Al-Ibānah As-Sughrā

Written by the Shaykh Abū ‘Abdillāh ibn Battah Al-‘Ukbarī rahimahullāhu ta’ālā.

The tahqīq and commentary is that of the Shaykh ‘Ādil Ālu Hamdān, who also wrote the introduction and the biography of the author.

The meaning of the title is: “The explanation and clarification of the principles of the Sunnah and religion, and avoiding the opposers, and separating from the heretic people of desires” also known as “The smaller clarification”.

Al-Ibānah As-Sughrā is considered to be from the fundamental works in i'tiqād and Sunnah written by one of the leaders of the Sunnah. This book mentions issues of 'aqīdah, behavior, manners, etiquettes that are all considered to be from the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and what he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited in those issues. The book is a summarized work in which the author mentions the issues of the Sunnah in short form, and the ahādīth and narrations without their chains of narrations.

The student of knowledge should start with reading the books mentioning the fundamentals – such as this book, “As-Sunnah” by Al-Karmānī and “As-Sunnah” by ‘Abdullāh – before he reads more advanced books of refutation.

All footnotes in the book are from the muhaqqiq and they include sources of narrations and the evidences and words that establish the words of the author.

A few times I have referred to works that are more extensive on the mentioned issue, in order for the reader to benefit from those. This and other comments from me has been marked with “Translator”.

I ask Allāh to benefit the author, the muhaqqiq, the translator and the reader of this great work with regards to issues of belief, deeds and manners, and to make our deeds sincerely seeking His Face alone. Allāhumma āmīn.

Introduction

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Verily all praise is due to Allāh, we praise Him, we ask Him for help and we ask for His forgiveness. And we seek refuge with Allāh from the evil within ourselves and from our evil deeds. Whoever Allāh guides then no-one can misguide him, and whoever Allāh misguides then no-one can guide him. I bear witness that no-one is worthy of worship besides Allāh alone Who has no partner, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and messenger. May the peace and blessing of Allāh be upon, his family and his companions.

Thereafter:

This is the book “Ash-Sharh wal-Ibānah ‘alā Usūl As-Sunnah wad-Diyānah wa Mujānabah Al-Mukhālifīn wa Mubāyanah Ahlil-Ahwā Al-Māriqīn” by Abū ‘Abdillāh ‘Ubaydillāh Ibn Battah Al-‘Ukbarī (d. 387h) rahimahullāh. It is among the summarized books of the people of Sunnah regarding the issues of Sunnah and I’tiqād (belief), and acts of worship and manners.

Among many from the people of knowledge this book is known as “Al-Ibānah As-Sughrā” as a way of distinguishing it from his other book: “Al-Ibānah ‘an Sharī’ah Al-Firqah An-Nājiyah wa Mujānabah Al-Firaq Al-Madhmūmah”, which is known as “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” among the people of knowledge. Despite the book “Al-Ibānah As-Sughrā” being a shortened work, then “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” does not serve instead of it. And the apparent is, that it is not a summarized version of it – as some people think – because the author did not indicate this. Rather, there are many ahādīth, narrations and important chapters in this book, which are not mentioned in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā”. So it is indeed a book of great value and abundant benefit, that the people of knowledge showed great care. And from what points this out is: the great number of times that great scholars of knowledge and Sunnah have listened to and written down this book.

Ibn Battah – rahimahullāh – verily clarified the reason for writing this book, and that is that when he saw the people of his time being far from the Sunnah and adhering to it, the spreading of innovations and considering it as something good, and them taking ignorant and misguiding people as lords and leaders in the religion, then all of this led him to writing a shortened book for them in which he reminded them about the Sunnah and adhering to it, and what the Salaf of the Ummah and the scholars of narration were upon, and warned them in it against the misguiding innovations and desires.

The author verily divided this book into four parts:

The first part: Here he narrated the prophetic ahādīth and the salafi narrations which command adhering to the Jamā'ah and separating from the people of deviation, disunity and hideousness (in beliefs).

The second part: Here he mentioned the beliefs of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah from that which the scholars of the Ummah agreed upon, and there is no room for ignorance in these issues for the Muslims. Allāh – tabāraka Ismuhu – will not excuse the one who fails in it.

The third part: Here he mentioned many issues from the obligatory acts of worship, the Sunan, the (Islamic) behavior and manners, which there is a great need for in the different issues from the issues of fiqh.

And he verily chose – when mentioning many of these judgments – that through which the people of Sunnah are distinguished from others than them among the people of raī (opinion) and innovation. Just as Ibn Taymiyyah said: “And from the affair of those who wrote summarized books about the beliefs of Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah is, that they mention that by which the people of Sunnah are distinguished from the disbelievers and innovators.”<sup>1</sup>

The fourth part: Here he mentioned many of the innovations which the people innovated in his time, that has no foundation in the Book of Allāh and regarding which there exist no narrations from the righteous Salaf.

In this book Ibn Battah – rahimahullāh – chose the method of summarization and he deleted the chains of narration. Just as he said: “(Due to) seeking summarization and abstaining from prolongement and abundance. In order for it to be easy for the one reading it, and for the one listening to it and memorizing it not to become bored.”

Whoever wants the long version and the establishment of the issues in the two first parts of this book, with the mentioning of the evidences from the Book, the Sunnah and the sayings of the Salaf of the Ummah, then let him return to his major book “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā”.

And I ask Allāh to make this work of mine sincerely for His Face and in accordance with the Sunnah of His Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). All praise is due to Allāh for Islām and the Sunnah, and I ask Him for steadfastness upon them until death occurs.

A biography of the author

His name: ‘Ubaydullāh ibn Muhammad ibn Muhammad ibn Hamdān ibn ‘Umar ibn ‘Īsā ibn Ibrāhīm ibn Sa’d ibn ‘Utbah ibn Farqad, the companion of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

His kunyah: Abū ‘Abdillāh Al-‘Ukbarī.

[An ascription to ‘Ukbarā which is a small city north of Baghdād]

* His status in knowledge:

Ibn Battah grew up in a house of knowledge and Sunnah. His father was verily from the people of knowledge and hadīth. So he took care of him and let him hear the hadīth from when he was small. And he allowed for him to travel to Baghdād to seek knowledge when he was no more than ten years old.

‘Alī ibn Ahmad ibn Al-Busrā said: Abū ‘Abdillāh Ibn Battah said: “My father had some partners in Baghdād, and among them was a man known as Abū Bakr. He said to my father: ‘Send your son to Baghdād so he can hear the hadīth.’ So he said: ‘My son is young.’ So he said: ‘I will carry him with me.’ So he took me to Baghdād. Then I came to the son of Manī’ while the hadīth was being read for him. Then some of them said to me: ‘Ask the shaykh to bring out his Mu’jam for you.’ So I asked his son, or the son of his daughter. So he said: ‘He verily wants some darāhim (pl dirham).’ So we gave him (what he wanted). Then we read “Kitāb Al-Mu’jam” for him in a small group of people in about ten days, or less or more. And this was year fifteen or sixteen (in age).”

Then his travelling in seeking knowledge continued into his adult years. He travelled much to Makkah, Ath-Thughūr, Al-Basrah and other cities. After that he returned to his city and abstained from the people.

Al-Qādī Abū Hāmid Ahmad ibn Muhammad Ad-Daylawī said: “When Abū ‘Abdillāh Ibn Battah returned from travelling he stayed in his house for forty years. So he was not seen even one day in the marketplace. And he was not seen eating, except on the day of Al-Adhā and Al-Fitr. He would command the good a lot, and no information about an evil would reach him, except that he would change it.”

He said: “And I heard Nasr ibn Al-Faraj Al-Bazzār say: ‘I entered upon Abū ‘Abdillāh Ibn Battah while he was fasting on a very hot day. And I saw him placing his chest upon washed plates in order to cool down by that.’”

* His shuyūkh:

He heard the knowledge and hadīth from Abū Bakr Ahmad Al-Qatī’ī (d. 368h), Abū Al-Fadl Ja’far Al-Qāfalānī (d. 325h), the shaykh of the Hanābilah in ‘Irāq Abū Bakr Ahmad ibn Salmān An-Najjād (d. 334h), Abū Bakr ibn Ziyād An-Naysabūrī Ash-Shāfi’ī (d.324h), Abū Al-Qāsim Al-Baghawī (d. 317h), Abū Dharr ibn Al-Bāghandī (d. 326h), Abū Bakr Al-Ājurrī (d. 360h), Yahyā ibn Sā’id (d. 318h), Muhammad ibn Makhlad Al-‘Attār (d. 331h) and Abū Bakr ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Ghulām Al-Khallāl (d. 363h).

* His students:

Ibn Shihāb Al-‘Ukbarī (d. 428h), Abū Hafs ‘Umar ibn Ahmad Al-Barmakī (d. 387h), Abū Bakr Az-Zāhid who is known as Ar-Rūshanānī (d. 411h), Abū Ishāq Al-Barmakī (d. 361h), Ahmad ibn ‘Abdillāh ibn Al-Khidr who is known as As-Sūsanjardī (d. 402h), Abū ‘Abdillāh ibn Hāmid Al-Baghdādī (d. 403h) and others.

* His traces of knowledge:

As-Sam'ānī said: “He was from the scholars of the Hanābilah. He wrote many beneficial works.”

Ibn Kathīr said: “He has many books which are filled with the different aspects of knowledge.”

Among those of his works which were mentioned are: “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubayrah”, “Al-Ibānah As-Sughayrah”, “As-Sunan”, “Al-Manāsik”, “Al-Imām Dāmin”, “Al-Inkār ‘alā man qasara bi-Kutub As-Suhuf Al-Ūlā”, “Al-Inkār ‘alā man akhadha Al-Qurān min Al-Mushaf”, “An-Nahī ‘an Salāh An-Nāfilah ba’d Al-‘Asr wa ba’d Al-Fajr”, “Tahrīm An-Namīmah”, “Salāh Al-Jamā’ah”, “Man’ Al-Khurūj ba’d Al-Adhān wal-Iqāmah li-ghayri Hājah”, “Ījāb As-Suddāq bil-Khulwah”, “Fadl Al-Mumin”, “Ar-Radd ‘alā man qāla At-Talāq Ath-Thalāth la yaqa’”, “Salāh An-Nāfilah fī Shahr Ramadān ba’d Al-Maktūbah”, “Dhamm Al-Bukhl”, “Tahrīm Al-Khamr”, “Dhamm Al-Ghinā wal-Istimā’ ilayhi”, “At-Tafarrud wal-‘Uzlah”, “Ibtāl Al-Hiyal”, “Ahkām An-Nisā”, “Tahrīm An-Nabīdh”, “Tahrīm Hurmah Al-Islām”, “Jawābāt Masāil Ibn Shāqilā”, “Al-Hammām”, “Jawāz Ittikhādh As-Sāqiyah fi Rahbah Al-Masjid”, “Ar-Radd ‘alā man fa’ala Nidā Al-Amr ba’d Al-Adhān”, “At-Turuqāt”, “Masalah Faskh Al-Hajj ilā Al-‘Umrah” and others. And it is said that they verily exceed over hundred books.

* His ‘aqīdah:

He was a follower of the Sunnah and had correct beliefs.

He held the Salaf at high esteem and followed their narrations, just as this is apparent in his books regarding the Sunnah and beliefs.

Adh-Dhahabī said: “He was an Imām in the Sunnah.”

* Some statements regarding him:

Al-'Utayqī said: "He was a righteous shaykh, whose invitation was answered."

Ibn Kathīr said: "He was one of the scholars of the Hanābilah."

Adh-Dhahabī said: "Ibn Battah, the Imām, the example, the worshipper, the scholar, the narrator of hadīth and the shaykh of 'Irāq."

And he said: "Ibn Battah was from the major scholars who has zuhd (asceticism), fiqh, Sunnah and following."

Abū Al-Fath Al-Fawwās said: "I mention Ibn Battah and his knowledge and zuhd to Abū Sa'īd Al-Isma'īlī, so he went out to meet him. Then when he returned to me he said: 'He is better than described.'"

And As-Sam'ānī said: "He was from the scholars of the Hanābilah. He wrote many beneficial works."

* Sources:

The translated text of the book

The shaykh Abū Tālib Al-Mubāarak ibn ‘Alī ibn Muhammad ibn Khudayr As-Surayfī informed us, by my recital upon him, and said: Abū Tālib ‘Abdul-Qādir ibn Muhammad ibn ‘Abdil-Qādir ibn Muhammad ibn Yūsuf informed us and said: Abū Ishāq Ibrāhīm ibn ‘Umar ibn Ahmad Al-Barkamī informed us and said: Ibn Battah informed us:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful

رب يسر وأعن ولك الحمد

My Lord, easen and give support, and all praise is due to You.

قال الشيخ الإمام أبو عبد الله عبيد الله بن محمد بن محمد بن حمدان بن بطة العكري -رحمه الله-:

The Shaykh, the Imām, Abū ‘Abdillāh ‘Ubaydullāh ibn Muhammad ibn Muhammad ibn Hamdān ibn Battah Al-‘Ukbarī, rahimahullāh, said:

الحمد لله الذي أسبغ علينا نعمه، وظاهر لدينا مننه، وجعل من أجلها قدرا، وأعظمها خطرا، أن هدانا لمعرفته، والإقرار بربوبيته، وجعلنا من أتباع دين الحق، وأشياع ملة الصدق .

All praise is due to Allāh, who lavishly bestowed His blessings upon us, and made His favors upon us apparent, and He made the most noble of them in value, and the greatest of them in status, that He guided us to the knowledge of Him and acknowledging His Rubūbiyyah, and He made us followers of the true religion and adherents of the millah of truthfulness.

فله الحمد نحمد ونثني عليه، بما اصطنع عندنا أن هداانا للإسلام، وعلمنا ووفقنا للسنة، وأهملناها وعلمنا ما لم نكن نعلم، وكان فضل الله علينا كبيرا .

So all praise is due to Him. We praise and extol Him due to what He caused for us; that He guided us to Islām, He taught it to us and gave us success in (following) the Sunnah, and He inspired it to us and taught us what we did not know. The favor of Allāh upon us is ever so great.

وصلى الله على محمد نبيه المرتضى، ورسوله المصطفى، أرسله لإقامة حجته، وإثبات وحدانيته، والدعاء إليه بالحكمة والموعظة الحسنة . والحمد لله على الشرائع الظاهرة، والسنن الزاكية، والأخلاق الفاضلة، وسلم تسليما . ونستوفق الله لصواب القول، وصالح العمل . ونسأله أن يجعل غرضنا فيما نتكلفه من ذلك، ابتغاء وجه وإيثار رضاه ومحبه، ليكون سعينا عنده مشكورا، وثوابنا لديه موفورا .

May the peace and abundant blessing of Allāh be upon Muhammad His approved Prophet and His chosen Messenger, whom He sent to establish the hujjah (argument, evidence), establish His Oneness and to invite towards Him with wisdom and good preaching. And all praise is due to Allāh for the apparent Laws of Islām, the pure Sunan and excellent manners.

We ask Allāh for success in speaking the truth and performing good deeds. And we ask Him to let whatever we perform of this to be in the search for His Face while preferring His Pleasure and Love. In order for our efforts to be appreciated by Him and our reward with Him plentiful.

أما بعد: فإني أسأل الله أن يحضرننا وإياك توفيقا، يفتح لنا ولك به أبواب الصدق، ويقبض لنا به العصمة من هفوات الخطأ، وفتلات الآراء، إنه رحيم ودود، فعال لما يريد .

Thereafter:

I verily ask Allāh to bestow a success upon us and you, that opens the doors of truthfulness for us and you, and by it to decree for us and you the protection against stumbling mistakes and erroneous opinions. Verily, He is Merciful and Loving. He does whatever He wants.

إني لما رأيت، ما قد عم الناس وأظهوره، وغلب عليهم فاستحسنوه، من فظائع الأهواء وقذائع الآراء، وتحريف سنتهم، وتبديل دينهم، حتى صار ذلك سببا لفرقتهم، وفتح باب البلية والعمى على أفئدتهم، وتشتيت ألفتهم، وتفريق جماعتهم، فنبذوا الكتاب وراء ظهورهم، واتخذوا الجهال والضلال أربابا في أمورهم، من بعد ما جاءهم العلم من ربهم .

Verily, when I saw what became spread among the people, what they publicly showed and what triumphed over them so they considered it as something good, from the heinous desires, evil opinions, distortion of their Sunnah and changing their religion until this became the reason for their disunity, and the opening of the door to affliction and blindness upon their hearts, the breaking up of their unity, the separation of their jamā'ah so they threw the Book behind their backs, and they took the ignorant and misguiding people as lords in their affairs after what had already reached them of knowledge from their Lord.

واستعملوا الخصومات فيما يدعون وقطعوا الشهادات عليها بالظنون، واحتجوا بالبهتان فيما ينتحلون، وقلدوا في دينهم الذين لا يعلمون، فيما لا برهان لهم به في الكتاب، ولا حجة عندهم فيه من الإجماع، وأيم الله لكثير مما ألفت الشياطين، على أفواه إخوانهم الملحدين، من أقاويل الضلال وزخرف المقال، من محدثات البدع بالقول المخترع، بدع تشتبه على العقول، وفتن تتلجلج في الصدور، فلا يقوم لتعرضها بشر، ولا يثبت لتلجلجها قدم، إلا من عصم الله بالعلم، وأيده بالتثبيت والحلم .

They used the disputes in what (i.e. as an argumet they claim, and they cut off the testimonies against it with assumptions. And they used false speech as arguments for what they claim. They followed in their religion people whom they do not know, in issues there is no clear evidence for in the Book, nor an argument with them for it in the ijmā' (consensus) regarding it.

By Allāh, much of what they shayātīn throw upon the mouths of their atheist brothers of misguided statements and beautified words of the newly invented innovation with made up words is something that is ambiguous for the mind and afflictions that tremble in the chests. So no person will rise to confront it, nor does any foot stand firm due to its trembling, except the one whom Allāh protected by the knowledge and aided by making him firm and patient.

جمعت في هذا الكتاب، طرفاً مما سمعناه، وجملاً مما نقلناه، عن أئمة الدين وأعلام المسلمين، مما نقلوه لنا عن رسول رب العالمين، مما حض عليه من اتبعه من المؤمنين، وما أمر به من التمسك بسنته، وسلوك طريقته، والافتداء بهديه، والافتقار لأثره.

I verily gathered in this book a part of what we have heard and some of what we have conveyed from the leaders of the religion and the heads of the Muslims, from what they conveyed to us from the Messenger of the Lord of all the worlds (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) among that which is specific for those who followed him of believers, and what he commanded of: Adhering to his Sunnah, traversing his path, adhering to his guidance and taking him as an example.

وقدمت بين يدي ذلك التحذير من الشذوذ، والتخويف من الندود، وما أمر الله - عز وجل - به رسوله - صلى الله عليه وسلم - من لزوم الجماعة، ومباينة أهل الزيغ، والتفرق والشناعة . وما يلزم أهل السنة من المجانبة والمباينة، لمن خالف عقدهم، ونكث عهدهم، وقصد لتفريق جماعتهم .

And before that I placed the warning against deviation and being afraid from falling in misguidance, and what Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - commanded His Messenger (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) of adhering to the Jamā'ah and staying away from the people of deviation, disunity and abhorrent (beliefs). And what is obligatory upon the people of Sunnah of avoiding and staying away from the one who opposes their beliefs, breaches their agreements with them, criticizes their religion and intends to seed disunity in the jamā'ah.

ثم على أثر ذلك شرح السنة، من إجماع الأئمة، واتفاق الأمة، وتطابق أهل الملة، فجمعت من ذلك ما لا يسع المسلمين جهلة، ولا يعذر الله -تبارك اسمه- من أضاعه، ولا ينظر إلى من خالقه، وطعن عليه، ممن دحضت حجته، لما استهزأ بالدين، وزالت قدمه، لما ثلب أئمة المسلمين، وعمي عن رشده، حين خالف سنة المصطفى، والراشدين المهديين، صلى الله على نبيه، وآله الطاهرين الطيبين، وعلى أصحابه المنتخبين، وأزواجه أمهات المؤمنين، وعلى التابعين، وعلى تابعي التابعين، من الأولين والآخرين إلى يوم الدين، وبالله نستعين .

Then after that:

The explanation of the Sunnah from the ijmā' of the leaders, the agreement of the Ummah and the conformity of the people of the millah (religion).

So I gathered from this: that in which there is no space for the Muslims to be ignorant and Allāh – tabāraka Ismuhu – will not excuse the one who fails in it, nor will He look at the one who opposes it and criticizes it (who is) among those whose argument was refuted when he mocked the religion, and his foot slipped when he slandered the leaders of the Muslims, and he became blind to the guidance when he opposes the Sunnah of Al-Mustafā (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and the righteous and guided people.

And may the peace of Allāh be upon His Prophet and his family – the pure and good – his chosen companions, his wives the mothers of the believers, those who followed in goodness and those who followed the followers, among the early and later generations, until the Day of Judgment. And we seek support from Allāh.

ثم إني أثبت في كتابي هذا، يا أخي وفقك الله بقبوله والعمل به، متونا تركت أسانيدها؛ طلبا للاختصار، وعدولا عن الإطالة والإكثار؛ ليسهل على من قرأه، ولا يمل من استمع إليه ووعاه، والله ولي توفيقنا، والآخذ بأيدينا، وهو حسبنا ونعم الوكيل .

After that, in this book of mine – O my brother, may Allāh grant you success in accepting and following it – I verily narrated some narrations where I left out the chains of narration seeking summarization and abstaining from prolongement and abundance. In order for it to be easy for the one reading it, and for the one listening to it and memorizing it not to become bored.

Allāh is the responsible for our success and the One grabbing hold of our hands. And He is sufficient for us and the best Disposer of affairs.

The first part: The mention of the narrations regarding adhering to the Sunnah and the criticism of innovation

فأول ما نبدأ بذكره من ذلك:

The first of what we will mention from this is:

ما أمر الله - عز وجل - به وذكره في كتابه، من لزوم الجماعة، والنهي عن الفرقة، وقال - عز وجل -:

1. What Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – commanded and mentioned in His Book of adhering to the Jamā’ah<sup>2</sup> and the prohibition of becoming disunited. So He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿وَأَعْتَصِمُوا بِحَبْلِ اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا وَلَا تَفَرَّقُوا﴾

“And hold on to the rope of Allāh altogether, and do not become disunited.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:103)

ثم تحدّد بالوعيد من فارق جماعة المسلمين، فقال:

Then He threatened the one who leaves the Jamā’ah of the Muslims when He said:

<sup>2</sup> Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (3): “And the basis upon which the Jamā’ah is built, are the Companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu alayhi wa sallam), may Allāh have mercy upon them all. And they are Ahlus-Sunnah wal-Jamā’ah. So whoever does not take from them he has verily gone astray and become an innovator. And every innovation is misguidance, while the misguidance and its people are in the fire.”

In “Al-Hilyah” (9/239) Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah said: “If you asked the ignorant people: ‘Who are As-Suwād Al-A’dham?’ They would say: ‘The gathering (or majority) of the people.’ And they do not know that the Jamā’ah is a scholar adhering to the narration of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and his path. So whoever is with him and follows him, then he is the Jamā’ah. And whoever opposes him in this, he leaves the Jamā’ah.”

﴿ وَلَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ تَفَرَّقُوا وَاخْتَلَفُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَاتُ وَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴾

“And do not be like those who became disunited and disagreed after what came to them of clear evidences. And for those there is a great punishment.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:105)

فأمر الله -تبارك وتعالى- بالاجتماع على دينه وطاعته، وقال عز وجل :

So Allāh – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – commanded unity upon His religion and in obedience to Him.

And He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ حُنَفَاءَ وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقَيِّمَةِ ﴾

“And they were only commanded to worship Allāh while dedicating the religion sincerely to Him, hunafā (free from shirk). And to establish the prayer and pay the zakāh, and that is the correct religion.” (Al-Bayyinah 98:5)

وقال تعالى:

And He – the Exalted – said:

﴿ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الَّذِينَ يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِهِ صَفًّا كَأَنَّهُمْ بُنْيَانٌ مَرْصُورٌ ﴾

“Verily, Allāh loves those who fight in His cause in rows, as if they were a solid structure.” (As-Saff 61:4)

وما أمر به المؤمنين من مباينة من خالف عقدهم، ونكث عهدهم، وطعن في دينهم، من مجانبتهم، وترك مجالستهم، والاستماع لخطبهم وخطبهم، فقال تبارك وتعالى:

2. What He commanded the believers of avoiding those who oppose their beliefs, breaches their agreement with them and criticizing their religion by staying away from them, not sitting with them and not listening to their talk and speeches. So He – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – said:

مَعَهُمْ حَتَّى يَخُوضُوا فِي حَدِيثٍ غَيْرِهِ إِنَّكُمْ إِذَا مِثْلُهُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ جَامِعُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْكَافِرِينَ فِي
جَهَنَّمَ جَمِيعًا﴾

“And it has verily been revealed to you in the Book that if you hear the verses of Allāh being rejected and mocked, then do not sit with them until they engage in another talk. (If you do this), then you are verily just like them. Verily Allāh will gather the hypocrites and the disbelievers in Hellfire altogether.”

(An-Nisā 4:140)

وأمر رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- الثلاثة الذين تخلفوا عنه بمجرأهم ومباينتهم، وأمرهم أن يعتزلوا نساءهم حتى أنزل الله -عز وجل- توبتهم .

3. And the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) commanded regarding the three who abstained from going with him (to the battel of Tabūk): the boycotting of them, avoiding them, and he commanded that they should stay away from their wives until Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – revealed their tawbah.<sup>3</sup>

---

<sup>3</sup> Al-Baghawī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (1/226): “In it there is an evidence for the boycotting of the people of innovation is continuous. And the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) feared nifāq for Ka’b and his companions when they stayed behind from going out with him. So he commanded that they should be boycotted until Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – revealed their tawbah and the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) knew their innocence. And the Sahābah, the tābi’ūn and their followers, and the scholars of the Sunnah all continued upon this, and they agreed and had consensus regarding the enmity toward the people of innovation and boycotting them.”

Translator: For further details on this subject refer to the book: “An admonition to the God-fearing” by Shaykh Abū Al-Muhammad.

وقال رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: أول ما دخل النقص على بني إسرائيل كان الرجل يلقي أخاه فيقول: يا هذا اتق الله ودع ما تصنع؛ فإنه لا يحل لك. ثم يلقاه من الغد فلا يمنعه ذلك أن يكون أكيله وشريبه وقعيده، فلما فعلوا ذلك ضرب الله قلوب بعضهم ببعض. ثم قال:

4. The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The first time deficiency entered upon Banū Isrāīl was when a man would meet his brother and then say: ‘O you, fear Allāh, and leave what you are doing. For it is verily not allowed for you.’”

Then he would meet him the day after, but this would not prevent him from eating, drinking and sitting with him. So when they did as such: Allāh turned their hearts against each other.”

Then He said:

﴿لُعِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ بَنِي إِسْرَائِيلَ عَلَى لِسَانِ دَاوُودَ وَعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ﴾ إلى قوله:
﴿وَلَكِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنْهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ﴾

“Those who disbelieved from Banū Isrāīl was cursed upon the tongue of Dāwūd and ‘Isā ibn Maryam.” Until His Words: “But many of them are rebellious.” (Al-Māidah 5:78-81)<sup>4</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: مثل القائم على حدود الله والمدهن فيها كمثل قوم استهموا على سفينة في البحر، فأصاب بعضهم أسفلها وبعضهم أعلاها، وكان الذين في أسفلها يخرجون ويستقون الماء، ويصبون على الذين أعلاها فيؤذونهم، فقالوا: لا ندعكم تمرون علينا فتؤذونا،

<sup>4</sup> A similar hadīth was narrated by Ahmad (3713), Abū Dāwūd (4336), At-Tirmidhī (3047) who said: “Hasan gharīb.” And Ibn Mājah (4006) by way of Abū ‘Ubaydah, from his father ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas‘ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). And its isnād is sahīh, except that Abū ‘Ubaydah did not hear from his father. And it was narrated by At-Tirmidhī (3048) and Ibn Mājah (4006) from Abū ‘Ubaydah, from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) as mursal. And this is what Abū Hātim considered to be correct, as it says in “Al-‘Ilal” by his son (2797) and in “Al-‘Ilal” (5/252) by Ad-Dāraqutnī.

I said: And in the tafsīr of the verse there are narrations from the Salaf similar to this hadīth which testify that it has an origin.

5. And he [the Messenger of Allāh] (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The example of the one who stops at the limits of Allāh and the one who violates them, is like a people who drew lots (for their seats) on a boat in the ocean. Then some of them got the lower part and some of them the upper part. And those who were in the lower part would go and bring water and they would drop it on those on the upper part and annoy them by this. So they said: ‘We will not let you pass by us and annoy us.’ So those on the lower part said: ‘If you prevent us then we will make a hole in the ship from the lower part of it, and take water from there.’”

He said: “So if they grabbed their hands and prevented them (from making a hole) they would all live, but if they left them (to do as they said) they would all die.”<sup>5</sup>

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم -: افتزقت بنو إسرائيل على اثنين وسبعين فرقة، وستفترق أمتي على ثلاث وسبعين فرقة، فرقة ناجية واثنين وسبعين في النار .

6. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Banū Isrāīl became divided into seventy two groups. And my Ummah will divide into seventy three groups. One saved group, and seventy two in Hellfire.”<sup>6</sup>

---

And it is a sahīh hadīth. I verily mentioned its takhrīj in the commentary upon “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Muḥtadī‘ah” by Ibn Al-Bannā (15).

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: عليكم بسنتي وسنة الخلفاء الراشدين من بعدي عضوا عليها بالنواجذ.

7. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “It is upon you to follow my Sunnah and the Sunnah of the righteous Khulafā after me. Bite onto it with your molar teeth.”<sup>7</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لقد جئتمكم بما بيضاء نقية فلا تختلفوا بعدي .

8. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I have brought them to you white and pure. So do not disagree after me.”<sup>8</sup>

9. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I have verily left you upon the clear (path). So do not walk (i.e. deviate) right or left.”<sup>9</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (17142), Abū Dāwūd (4607), At-Tirmidhī (2676) and he said: “Hasan sahīh.”

<sup>8</sup> It was narrated by Ahmad (15156), Ibn Abī ‘Āsim in “As-Sunnah” (50) and others, from Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) came to the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) with a book he took from some of the people of the Book. Then he read it for the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). So he became angry and said: “Are you hesistant regarding it, O son of Al-Khattāb. By the One in whose Hand my soul is in, I have verily come to you with them white and pure...”

The hadīth has many ways which altogether prove that it has an origin. See “Al-Fath” (13/252). As for the addition: “So do not disagree after me”, then I did not find anyone who narrated that. And Allāh knows best.

Ibn Abdil-Barr said in “Al-Istidhkār” (7/488): “This is a hadīth with a sahīh isnād.”

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إن الله ليدخل العبد الجنة بالسنة يتمسك بها .

10. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Verily, Allāh will enter a slave into Paradise due to a Sunnah which he adhered to.”<sup>10</sup>

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم-: والله لو أن موسى وعيسى حيَّان لما حل لهما إلا أن يتبعاني .

11. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “By Allāh, if Mūsā and ‘Īsā were alive, then it would only be allowed for them to follow me.”<sup>11</sup>

And Ad-Dāraqtūnī narrated, as it is stated in “Atrāf Al-Gharāib Al-Afrād” (6146), Al-Harawī in “Dhamm Al-Kalām” (1496) and Ibn Al-Jawzī in “Al-‘Ilal Al-Mutanāhiyah” (313) from the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever adheres to the Sunnah will enter Paradise...” Until the end of the hadīth. And Ad-Dāraqtūnī declared it weak.

I said: Its meaning is correct. And there are many verses and ahādīth that testify to this. Among that is what Al-Bukhārī (7280) narrated from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu), that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever obeys me will enter Paradise.”

<sup>11</sup> I did not find it with this wording. Ahmad (14631) and others narrated from the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “If Mūsā was alive amongst you, then it would only be allowed for him to follow me.”

And this hadīth is a part of the hadīth of Jabir ibn ‘Abdillāh (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that has gone forth in number (8).

وخرج -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وهم يتنازعون في القدر فقال: أجهذا أمرتم؟ أو ليس عن هذا نهيتم؟
إنما هلك من كان قبلكم بتماريهم في دينهم .

12. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) came out to his companions when they were disputing regarding the Qadar. So he said: “Is this what you have been commanded?! Is this not what you have been prohibited from?! Verily, those before you were destroyed due to disputing regarding their religion.”<sup>12</sup>

13. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) came out to his companions one day while they were saying: “Did Allāh not say this and that?” Answering each other back. Then it was as if a seed from a pomegranate had burst in his face, and he said: “It was verily this that destroyed the nations. So do not use some of the Book of Allāh (as argument) against another part. Because this will verily cause doubt to enter your hearts.”<sup>13</sup>

And a similar hadīth was narrated from ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) by Ahmad (6668, 6845), Ibn Mājah (85) and Al-Bayhaqī in “Al-Qadā wal-Qadar” (355, 356) and he said: “Its isnād is hasan.”

<sup>13</sup> Narrated by Ibn Battah in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (552, 553, 843) with different wordings. And it was narrated by Al-Ājurri in “Ash-Sharī’ah” (166), At-Tabarī in “At-Tafsīr” (25/88) and Al-Harawī in “Dhamm Al-Kalām”. And the hadīth by its witnesses and following up is hasan. And the hadīth will come in short form in number (34).

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لا تجالسوا أهل القدر؛ فإنهم الذي يخوضون في آيات الله -عز وجل- .

14. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not sit with the people of Qadar. Because they verily engage in idle talk regarding the verses of Allāh ‘azza wa jalla.”<sup>14</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: المرء في القرآن كفر .

15. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “Debating regarding the Qurān is kufr.”<sup>15</sup>

---

<sup>14</sup> I did not find it with this wording. Ibn Battah narrated in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (396) from the hadīth of ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not sit with the people of Qadar and do not open a conversation with them.”

The hadīth with this wording was narrated by Ahmad (206), Abū Dāwūd (4710, 4720), ‘Abdullāh ibn Ahmad in “As-Sunnah” (816), Al-Ājurri in “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (630), Ibn Hibbān in his “Sahīh” (79) and Ad-Diyā in “Al-Mukhtārah” (301). In its isnād is: Hakīm ibn Sharīk Al-Hudhalī. Adh-Dhahabī said in “Al-Mizān” (1/586): “Ibn Hibbān described him as strong. And Abū Hātim said: ‘He is unknown.’”

I said: And the sayings of the Salaf regarding the meaning of this hadīth are mutawātirah.

Translator: See “As-Sunnah” by ‘Abdullāh ibn Ahmad (Chapter: He was asked about the Qadariyyah and the prayer behind them and what was said regarding them).

<sup>15</sup> Narrated by Ahmad, Abū Dāwūd and ‘Abdullāh in “As-Sunnah” (90). And it is a sahīh hadīth.

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إنكم لا ترجعون إلى الله بشيء أفضل مما خرج منه. يعني: القرآن .

16. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “You will verily not return to Allāh with anything better than what came out from Him.” Meaning: The Qurān.<sup>16</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إن قريشا منعني أن أبلغ كلام ربي .

17. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Verily, Quraysh have [indeed] prevented me from conveying the Words of my Lord.”<sup>17</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- لjabir: أعلمت أن الله أحيا أباك فكلمه كفاحا .

18. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said to Jābir: “Do you know that Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – revived your father and spoke to him face to face (i.e. with no veil between them).”<sup>18</sup>

---

And Al-Bukhārī said in “Khlaq Af’āl Al-‘Ibād” (533): “This narration is not correct due to it being mursal and munqati’.”

I said: As for its meaning, then it is correct and it has many witnesses. Among those is what ‘Abdullāh narrated in “As-Sunnah” (93) with a sahīh isnād, from Khabbāb ibn Al-Arat (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “Seek nearness to Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – with what you are capable of (saying and doing). And you can verily not seek nearness to Him with anything more beloved to Him than His Words.” Meaning: the Qurān.

This hadīth was declared sahīh by: Ibn Khuzaymah in “At-Tawhīd” (599), Ibn Hibbān (7022), Al-Hākim (3/203) and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

19. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “After me there will be a fitnah in which a man will wake up in the morning as a believer and enter the evening as a disbeliever. And he will be a disbeliever in the evening and enter the morning as a disbeliever. Except the one whom Allāh gives life by the knowledge.”<sup>19</sup>

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم-: اقتدوا باللذين من بعدي: أبي بكر وعمر -رضي الله عنهما-.

20. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Follow the example of the two after me; Abū Bakr and ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhumā).”<sup>20</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Narrated by Ibn Battah in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (277), Ad-Dārimī in “Al-Musnad” (350), Ibn Mājah (3954) and Al-Harawī in “Dhamm Al-Kalām” from the hadīth of Abū Umāmah. And Ibn Battah also narrated it from the hadīth of Abū Mūsā (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).

And what testifies to this hadīth is what Muslim (7508) narrated from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu), that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Hasten to perform righteous deeds before you are overtaken by trials and tribulations, which would be like huge chunks of a dark night. A man would be a believer in the morning and a disbeliever in the evening, or he would be a believer in the evening and turn a disbeliever in the morning. He would sell his religion for a part of dunyā.”

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لم يزل أمر بني إسرائيل معتدلا حتى نشأ فيهم المولدون، أبناء سبايا الأمم، فأخذوا بالرأي وتركوا السنن .

21. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The affair of Banū Isrāīl remained upright, until the new (generations) emerged among them; the children of female slaves from other nations. They followed the opinion and left the Sunan.”<sup>21</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إن الله لا ينزع العلم انتزاعا من صدور الرجال، ولكن يقبض العلم بقبض العلماء، فإذا لم يبق عالم اتخذ الناس رؤساء جهالا، فسئلوا فأفتوا بغير علم؛ فضلوا وأضلوا.

22. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Verily, Allāh does not take away the knowledge by snatching it from the chests of men. Rather, the knowledge is taken by the passing away of the scholars. Then when no scholar remains, the people will take ignorant people as leaders and those (leaders) will be asked. So they will give fatwā without knowledge, and they will go astray and lead others astray.”<sup>22</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Ibn Battah narrated a similar hadīth in “Al-Ibānah” (863) from the hadīth of Wāthilah ibn Al-Asqa’ (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). And Ibn Mājah (56) and Al-Bazzār (2424) narrated it from the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). Ibn Qattān said in “Bayān Al-Wahm wal-Ihām fī Kitāb Al-Ahkām” (2/348): “This isnād is hasan.”

It was narrated in “Bayān Al-‘Ilm wa Fadlihi” from Sufyān ibn ‘Uyaynah who said: “The affair of the people of Kūfah was upright, until Abū Hanīfah emerged among them. And he is from the children of the female slaves from other nations. His mother was sindhiyyah (northwest India) and his father was a nabatī (semetic people). And those who innovated the opinion are three, and they are all from the children of females slaves from other nations. They are Rabī‘ah in Madīnah, ‘Uthmān Al-Battī in Basrah and Abū Hanīfah in Kūfah.”

23. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited from: He said, she said (i.e. gossiping), wasting money and asking much.<sup>23</sup>

Al-Baghawī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (1/203): “It is said regarding his words: ‘he said, she said’ that it has two aspects. The first of them: Conveying the sayings of the people and their conversations and seeking it out, so he says: ‘fulān said this’ and ‘this and that was said to fulān’. And this is from the aspect of spying which is prohibited. And it is said: This is regarding what returns to the issues of the religion and mentioning what occurred in it of disagreement. So he says: ‘fulān said this while fulān said that’, without establishing this and being certain which enables him to repeat what he has heard. And he is not on guard with regards to what he chooses from these sayings. And his words: ‘Asking much’, then this is asking the people for their money out of greed and not stopping with this in accordance with size of ones need. And the question can also be about issues and seeking (too) much about it. Just as Allāh – the Exalted – said:

﴿ لَا تَسْأَلُوا عَنْ أَشْيَاءٍ إِنْ تُبَدَّ لَكُمْ تَسْؤُكُمْ ﴾

“Do not ask about things that if they are made clear to you, may cause you trouble.” (Al-Māidah 5:101)

And He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ وَلَا تَجَسَّسُوا ﴾

“And do not spy.” (Al-Hujurāt 49:12)

And it can also be from the unclear which He commanded (us) to believe in the apparent meanings in His Words:

﴿ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ زَيْغٌ فَيَتَّبِعُونَ مَا تَشَابَهَ مِنْهُ ابْتِغَاءَ الْفِتْنَةِ وَابْتِغَاءَ تَأْوِيلِهِ وَمَا يَعْلَمُ تَأْوِيلَهُ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَالرَّاسِخُونَ فِي الْعِلْمِ يَقُولُونَ آمَنَّا بِهِ كُلٌّ مِنْ عِنْدِ رَبِّنَا وَمَا يَذَّكَّرُ إِلَّا أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ ﴾

“As for those who have deviation in their hearts, then they follow that of it which in unclear seeking fitnah and seeking its hidden meanings. And no-one knows its hidden meanings except Allāh. And those who are firm in knowledge says: ‘We believe in it. It is all from our Lord.’ And it is only men of understanding that will be reminded.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:7)

وكان -صلى الله عليه وسلم- يكره كثرة المسائل

24. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) used to dislike many questions (or asking much).<sup>24</sup>

ونهى -صلى الله عليه وسلم- عن الغلوطات

25. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited ughlūtāt.<sup>25</sup>

وقيل: هي شدة المسائل وصعابها.

26. And it was said: It (i.e. ughlūtāt) is the severe of questions (or issues) and the difficult ones of them.<sup>26</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Al-Bukhārī (4468) narrated from Sahl ibn Sa’d (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) disliked questions and he criticized it.

It was narrated it “Jāmi’ Al-‘Ulūm wal-Hikam” (p. 247) that Ibn Wahb said: From Malik: “I have met (the people of) this city and they verily hate the plenty which the people are in today.” He meant: Questions. And he also said: I heard Mālik while he was criticizing speaking much and giving fatwā much. Then he said: “He speaks as if he is a camel in heat (i.e. wanting to mate). He says: it is as such, and it is as such, spending his speech uselessly.” And he said: I heard Mālik disliking to answer on many questions.

The hadīth was declared weak by Ibn Al-Qattān in “Al-Wahm Wal-Īhām” (1502). And Ibn Battah narrated in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (420) from ‘Īsā ibn Yūnus who said: “Al-Ughlūtāt is what there is no need for of how? And how?”

And in “Jāmi’ Al-Bayān Al-‘Ilm” (2083) Al-Awzā’ī said: “If Allāh wants to prohibit the slave from the blessing of knowledge, He throws the aghālīt upon his tongue. Because I verily see them as the people with the least knowledge.”

<sup>26</sup> Al-Baghawī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (1/308): “This means: that a scholar accepts difficult questions in which many mistakes are made, in order to plant and drop his own opinion into it. And it was narrated from ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that he said: ‘I have warned you against the difficult of logic.’ And he meant: the in-depth and unclear questions. And he verily prohibited this because they are not beneficial and they are almost always about things that will never happen.”

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : اتركوني ما تركتكم .

27. And [the Prophet] (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Leave me in (i.e. do not ask me about) what I have left for you.”<sup>27</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : أعظم المسلمين جرما من سأل عن أمر لم يُحرم فُحرم من أجل مسألته .

28. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The Muslim greatest in crime among all Muslims is: the one who ask about an issue which is not forbidden, and then it is made forbidden due to him asking about it.”<sup>28</sup>

فقالوا: للحسن ما الحدث؟ فقال: أصحاب الفتن كلهم محدثون، وأهل الأهواء كلهم محدثون .

29. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever innovates an innovation or shelters an innovator, then the curse of Allāh is upon him, and the curse of those who curses, the angels and all of the people. Allāh will not accept any obligatory or voluntary deeds from him.”<sup>29</sup>

So they said to Al-Hasan: “What happened?”

<sup>27</sup> The hadīth was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (7288) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Leave me in what I have left for you. Verily, those who were before you were destroyed due to asking and disagreeing with their prophets...” Until the end of the hadīth. And a similar narration with Muslim (3236).

<sup>29</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (993), Abū Dāwūd (4530) and An-Nasāī (6911, 6921). And the hadīth is sahīh.

So he said: “The people of affliction all of them are innovators. And the people of desires all of them are innovators.”<sup>30</sup> وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : كلاب النار أهل البدع .

30. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The dogs of Hellfire are the people of innovation.”<sup>31</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : من وقر صاحب بدعة فقد أعان على هدم الإسلام .

31. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever respects (or admires or praises) an innovator has helped in the destruction of Islām.”<sup>32</sup>

وقال ابن مسعود - رضي الله تعالى عنه - : خط لنا رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- يوما خطا فقال: هذا سبيل الله، ثم خط خطوطا عن يمين الخط ويساره وقال: هذه سُبُل، على كل سبيل منه شيطان يدعو، ثم تلا:

32. And Ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) one day drew a line for us. Then he said: “This is the way of Allāh.” Then he drew some lines to the right

<sup>30</sup> “Dhamm Al-Kalām” (1357). And Abū Dāwūd narrated in “Al-Marāsīl” (535) from Al-Hasan Al-Basrī, from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) a similar hadīth. And in it there is: They said: “And what has happened, O Messenger of Allāh?” He said: “An innovation without a Sunnah. Mutilation without any limit. Booty (taken) without right.”

<sup>32</sup> Narrated by At-Tabarānī in “Al-Mu’jam Al-Awsat” (6772), Ibn ‘Adī in “Al-Kāmil” (116, 118) and Al-Ājurri in “Ash-Sharī’ah” (2262) from the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā). And it was also narrated from the ahādīth of Mu’adh, ‘Abdullāh ibn Bisr, Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī and Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhum). And the scholars had a difference of opinion regarding it being correct due to its many ways, just as I clarified this in the commentary upon the book “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Mubtadi’ah” (13).

and left of the line. And he said: “And these are the (other) ways. Upon each way there is a shaytān who invites to it.” Then he recited:

﴿وَأَنَّ هَذَا صِرَاطِي مُسْتَقِيمًا فَاتَّبِعُوهُ وَلَا تَتَّبِعُوا السُّبُلَ فَتَفَرَّقَ بِكُمْ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ﴾

“And that this is My Straight Path so follow it. And do not follow the ways, so you will become disunited from His way.”
(Al-An’ām 6:153)

يعني الخطوط التي عن يمينه ويساره .

قالت: سمعت رسول الله - صلى الله عليه وسلم - يقول: إذا رأيتم الذين يجادلون فيه، فهم الذين عنى الله فاحذروهم.

<sup>33</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (4142), Ibn Abī ‘Āsim in “As-Sunnah” (18), Al-Marwazī in “As-Sunnah” (4 and 5). And the hadīth has witnesses from the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās and Jābir ibn ‘Abdillāh (radiAllāhu ‘anhumā). The hadīth was declared sahīh by Ibn Hibbān (6 and 7), Al-Hakim (2/318) and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

﴿ مَا ضَرَبُوهُ لَكَ إِلَّا جَدَلًا بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ خَصِمُونَ ﴾

“They only presented that example to you to dispute. Rather, they are a quarrelsome people.” (Az-Zukhruf 43:58)<sup>35</sup>

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم-: المتمسك بسنتي عند فساد أمتي له أجر خمسين شهيدا .

35. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The one who adheres to my Sunnah when my Ummah becomes corrupt will have the reward of fifty martyrs.”<sup>36</sup>

And in “Al-Ibānah” (586) Ayyūb said: “I do not know anyone from the people of desires, except that he argues with the unclear.”

<sup>36</sup> Narrated by Ibn Battah in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (328) from the hadīth of Shurayh ibn Yahyā ibn ‘Umar. And it is mursal. And among what testifies to the meaning of this hadīth is what was narrated by Abū Dāwūd (4341), At-Tirmidhī (3054) and Ibn Mājah (4014) from the hadīth of Abū Tha‘labah Al-Khushanī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “...Upon you are days of patience. Patience during them will be like holding on to hot coal. The one who perform deeds during them will have the reward of fifty men who performs the same deeds as him.” He said: “O Messenger of Allāh. The reward of fifty of them?” He said: “The reward of fifty of you.”

At-Tirmidhī said: “Hadīth hasan gharīb.” And Ibn Hibbān declared it sahīh.

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: المتمسك بدينه عند فساد الناس كالقابض على الجمر.

36. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The one who adheres to his religion when the people become corrupt, he is like the one holding on to hot coal.”<sup>37</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: المتمسك بدينه في الهرج كالمهاجر إلي.

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: بدأ الإسلام غريباً، وسيعود غريباً كما بدأ، فطوبى للغرباء. قالوا: يا رسول الله من الغرباء؟ قال: الذين إذا فسد الناس صلحوا.

38. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Islām began as something strange and it will return to being something strange. So tūbā for the strangers.”

They said: “O Messenger of Allāh, who are the strangers?”

He said: “Those who are righteous when the people become corrupt.”<sup>40</sup>

<sup>37</sup> Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2260) who said: “This hadīth is gharīb from this way.” But the hadīth has witnesses that lifts it to the degree of hasan.

<sup>38</sup> With Al-Bukhārī (84): It was said: “O Messenger of Allāh, what is haraj?” So he did like this with his hand and turned it as if he meant killing.

And Muslim (289) narrated from Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) without his words: “Those who are righteous when the people become corrupt.”

وقال - صلى الله عليه وسلم-: الله الله في أصحابي، لا تتخذوهم غرضا بعدي، فمن أحبهم فبحبي أحبهم، ومن أبغضهم فببغضي أبغضهم، ومن آذاهم فقد آذاني، ومن آذاني فقد آذى الله، ومن آذى الله فيوشك الله أن يأخذه .

39. And [the Messenger of Allāh] (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Allāh Allāh, regarding my companions. Do not take them as a thing (you dispose of) after me. ---

وقال معاذ: قال لي النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: يا معاذ، أطيع كل أمير، وصَلِّ خلف كل إمام، ولا تسبب أحدا من أصحابي.

41. And Mu'ādh (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said to me: “O Mu'ādh. Obey every leader, pray behind every imām, and never curse any of my companions.”<sup>44</sup>

ووضع رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- يده على حية عمر بن الخطاب - رضي الله تعالى عنه - ثم قال: يا عمر، إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون. قال عمر: قلت: نعم -بأبي وأمي يا رسول الله- إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون، وما ذاك؟ قال: إن جبريل أتاني آنفا، فقال: يا محمد، إنا لله وإنا إليه راجعون، إن أمتك مفتونة بعدك بقليل غير كثير، قلت: يا جبريل أفتنة ضلال؟ أم فتنة كفر؟ قال: كلٌّ سيكون. قلت: كيف يضلون أو يكفرون وأنا مخلف بين أظهرهم كتاب الله؟! قال: بكتاب الله يضلون، يتأوله كل قوم على ما يهون، فيضلون به .

42. And the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) placed his hand upon the beard of 'Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu 'anhu) and said: “O 'Umar, verily to Allāh we belong and to Him we shall return.”

'Umar said: I said: “Yes – may my father and mother be sacrificed for you, O Messenger of Allāh – verily to Allāh we belong and to Him we shall return. So what is this?”

He said: “Verily Jibrīl ('alayhis-salām) came to me before. Then he said [to me]: ‘O Muhammad, verily to Allāh we belong and to Him we shall return. Verily your Ummah will be afflicted only a little (time) after you and not much (time).’

<sup>44</sup> Narrated by 'Abdullah ibn Ahmad in “Zawāid Fadāil As-Sahābah” (9), Ibn 'Adī in “Al-Kāmil” (2/279) and Al-Bayhaqī in “Al-Kubrā” (8/185) who said: “And this (hadīth) is munqati' between Makhūl and Mu'ādh (radiAllāhu 'anhu).”

But its meaning is correct and the author will narrate many correct ahādīth with this meaning.

I said: 'O Jibrīl, is it an affliction of misguidance or an affliction of kufr?'

He said: 'All of it will occur.'

I said: 'How will they go astray or commit kufr, when I have left them with the Book of Allāh?'

He said: 'By the Book of Allāh they will go astray. Every people will interpret it according to what they desire, and thus go astray by it.'"<sup>45</sup>

وقال الحسن : قال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : مثل أصحابي مثل الملح في الطعام ثم قال : "هيئات ذهب ملح القوم".

43. And Al-Hasan [Al-Basrī] said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The example of my companions is like the example of salt in the food."<sup>46</sup>

Then he said "How impossible. The salt of the people has disappeared."

<sup>45</sup> Narrated by Ibn Abī 'Āsim in "As-Sunnah" (311), Ibn Waddāh in "Al-Bida'" (279) and Al-Fasawī in "Ma'rifah At-Tārikh" (2/308).

Al-Fasawī said about this hadīth: "Muhammad ibn Hamir, he is humsī and not strong (in narration). And Maslamah ibn 'Alī dimashqī is weak in hadīth. And this 'Umar ibn Dharr, I don't think he is Al-Hamadhānī. For me he is an unknown old man. And this hadīth is not saḥīh."

As for the meaning of this hadīth, then it is correct and there are many narrations testifying to this.

<sup>46</sup> Narrated by 'Abdur-Razzāq (20377) and Ahmad in "Fadāil As-Sahābah" (16, 1730) and its isnād is munqati'.

ودخل -صلى الله عليه وسلم- المسجد، ومعه أبو بكر عن يمينه، وعمر عن يساره، وقال: هكذا نبعث يوم القيامة، وهكذا ندخل الجنة .

44. [He said]: And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) entered the masjid while Abū Bakr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) was to his right and ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) was to his left. Then he said: “We will be resurrected like this on the Day of Resurrection. And we will enter Paradise like this.”<sup>47</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: ما من نبي إلا وله وزيران من أهل السماء ووزيران من أهل الأرض، أما وزيراي من أهل السماء فجربريل وميكائيل، وأما وزيراي من أهل الأرض فأبو بكر وعمر

45. And he [the Prophet] (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “There is no prophet except that he has two ministers from the inhabitants of heaven, and two ministers from the inhabitants of earth. As for my two ministers from the inhabitants of the heaven: (then they are) Jibrīl and Mīkāīl. And as for my two ministers from the inhabitants of the earth: then (they are) Abū Bakr and ‘Umar.”<sup>48</sup>

46. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The love of four (people) is only established in the heart of a pure believer: Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān and ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ta’ālā ‘anhum).”<sup>49</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إن الله افترض عليكم حب أبي بكر وعمر وعثمان وعلي -رضي الله عنهم- كما افترض عليكم الصلاة والصيام والحج، فمن أبغض واحدا منهم أدخله الله النار.

47. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: *“Allāh has verily obligated upon you to love: Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān and ‘Alī, just as He has obligated the prayer, [the zakāh], the fasting, the Hajj upon you. In its isnād is Abū Shaybah Al-Jawharī Yūsuf ibn Ibrāhīm. Al-Bukhārī said in “At-Tārīkh Al-Kabīr”: “He has some strange narrations.”

And Abū Hātim Ar-Rāzī said in “Al-Jarh wat-Ta’dīl” (9/218): “Weak in hadīth (and) Rejected in hadīth. He has some strange narrations.”

وقال ابن عباس - رضي الله عنهما - : لا تسبوا أصحاب محمد - صلى الله عليه وسلم - فإن الله قد أمرنا بالاستغفار لهم، وهو يعلم أن سيقتلون.

50. Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhumā) said: "Do not swear at the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam). Because Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - verily commanded to ask for forgiveness for them, while He knew that they will fight each other."<sup>53</sup>

وقالت عائشة - رضي الله عنها - : أمروا بالاستغفار لأصحاب محمد فسبوهم .

51. And 'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) said: "They were commanded to ask for forgiveness for the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam), and instead they swore at them."<sup>54</sup>

وقال أبو بكر - رضي الله عنه - : أي سماء تظلني؟ وأي أرض تغلني؟ إذا قلت في كتاب الله ما لا أعلم!؟

52. And Abū Bakr As-Siddīq (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Which heaven will shade me, and which earth will carry me, if I said about the Book of Allāh what I do not know?"<sup>55</sup>

Ibn Taymiyyah said in "Minhāj As-Sunnah" (2/22): "And Ibn Battah narrated with a sahih isnād, from 'Abdullāh ibn Ahmad who said: My father narrated to me (and said): Mu'āwiyah narrated to us (and said): Raja narrated to us, from Mujāhid, from Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: ..." And then he mentioned it.

<sup>55</sup> Narrated by Sa'īd ibn Mansūr in his "Sunan" (39), Ibn Abī Shaybah (10156) and At-Tabarī in "At-Tafsīr" (1/35). And the different chains of narrations strengthen each other, as it is mentioned in "Al-Fath" (13/271).

وقال أبو بكر الصديق - رضي الله تعالى عنه - : السنة جبل الله المتين فمن تركها فقد قطع حبله من الله.

53. And Abū Bakr As-Siddīq (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The Sunnah is the firm rope of Allāh. Whoever leaves it has cut of his rope from Allāh.”<sup>56</sup>

وقال عمر بن الخطاب - رضي الله عنه - : أصحاب الرأي أعداء السنن، أعيتهم الأحاديث أن يحفظوها، وتفلمت منهم فلم يعوها، وقالوا بالرأي، فضلوا وأضلوا.

54. And ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The people of raī (opinion) are the enemies of the Sunan (pl. Sunnah). They were not able to memorize the ahādīth, and understanding them also slipped away from them. So they spoke with opinion (and not evidences), and they went astray and misled others.”<sup>57</sup>

وقال عمر - رضي الله عنه -: القرآن كلام الله - عز وجل - فلا تحرفوه إلى غيره .

55. And ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The Qurān is the Words of Allāh ‘azza wa jalla, so do not distort it to something else.”<sup>58</sup>

وقال عمر - رضي الله عنه -: إن الله - عز وجل - لم يأمر عباده إلا بما ينفعهم، ولم ينههم إلا عما يضرهم .

56. And ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “Verily, Allāh – azza wa jalla – did not command His slaves to anything but what benefits them. And He did not prohibit them from anything but what harms them.”

Ibn Al-Qayyim said in “I’lām Al-Muwaqqi’īn” (1/55): “And the chains of narrations from ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) are at highest level of correctness.”

<sup>58</sup> A similar narration was narrated by ‘Abdullāh in “As-Sunnah” and Al-Ājurrī in “Ash-Sharī’ah” (190) with a sahīh isnād, and its wording is: “The Qurān is the Words of Allāh so do not change it according to your opinions.”

وقال عثمان -رضي الله عنه-: الباطل فيما وافق النفس، وإن رأيت أن الله -عز وجل- فيه طاعة .

57. And ‘Uthmān (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The falsehood lies in what agrees with the nafs, even if you think that there is some obedience to Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – in it.”<sup>59</sup>

وقال علي -رضي الله عنه- : الهوى يصد عن الحق .

58. And ‘Alī [ibn Abī Tālib] (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The desire prevents from the truth.”<sup>60</sup>

وقال علي -كرم الله وجهه-: الهوى عند من خالف السنة حق، وإن ضربت فيه عنقه.

59. And ‘Alī, may Allāh honor his face, said: “The desire is truth for the one who opposes the Sunnah, even if he is beheaded due to it.”<sup>61</sup>

وقال ابن عباس -رضي الله عنهما-: لا تضربوا كتاب الله بعضه ببعض.

60. And Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “Do not use some of the Book of Allāh as an argument against another part (of it).”<sup>62</sup>

<sup>59</sup> And in “Futyā wa Jawābihā” (15) Al-Asma‘ī said: I heard a Bedouin say: “If two issues are difficult for you and you do not know which one of them is closest to the guidance, then oppose the one of them which is closest to your desire. For verily, mistakes are often in following the desire.”

And soon there will come many narrations regarding the criticism of desires and the command of opposing them.

<sup>61</sup> I did not find it anywhere, but its meaning is correct.

<sup>62</sup> Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah in “Al-Musannaf” (30794) and Al-Khallāl in “As-Sunnah” (1953). And it has gone forth in number (13) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

وجلد عمر -رضي الله عنه- سبيغا التميمي في مساءلته من حروف القرآن .

61. And 'Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu 'anhu) whipped Sabīgh At-Tamīmī when he was asking (too much) about some letters from the Qurān.<sup>63</sup>

وقال ابن مسعود -رضي الله عنه-: إذا سمعت الله -عز وجل- يقول كذا وكذا، فأصغ لها سمعك، فإنما هو خير تؤمر به أو شر تنهى عنه.

62. And Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "When you hear that Allāh – azza wa jalla – says such and such, then listen to it closely. For it is verily something good that you are commanded to, or something evil that you are prohibited from."<sup>64</sup>

وقال ابن مسعود -رضي الله عنه-: القرآن كلام الله -عز وجل-، فمن قال فيه شيئا، فإنما يتقوله على الله -عز وجل-.

63. And Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "The Qurān is the Word of Allāh 'azza wa jalla. So whoever says anything (incorrect) about it, then he is verily fabricating lies against Allāh 'azza wa jalla."<sup>65</sup>

And see the chains of narration of this story and its classification as sahīh in "Al-Isābah fi Tamyīz As-Sahābah" (3/459).

وقال ابن عمر -رضي الله عنهما-: من ترك السنة كفر.

64. And Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhumā) said: "Whoever leaves the Sunnah has committed kufr."<sup>66</sup>

وقال عمر بن عبد العزيز: السنة إنما سننها من علم من جاء في خلافها من الذلل، ولهم كانوا على المنازعة والجدل أقدر منكم.

65. And 'Umar ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz said: "The Sunnah was established by those who knew what came of mistakes that opposed it, and they were more capable than you of debating and disagreeing with them."<sup>67</sup>

وقال رجل لابن عباس -رضي الله عنهما-: الحمد لله الذي جعل هوانا على هواكم، فقال ابن عباس: إن الله لم يجعل في هذه الأهواء شيئاً من الخير، وإنما سمي هوى لأنه يهوي بصاحبه في النار.

66. And a man said to Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhumā): "All praise is due to Allāh for making our desires according to your desires."

So Ibn 'Abbās said: "Verily, Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – did not put any goodness in these desires. It was verily called desires, because it leads its companion to the fire."<sup>68</sup>

<sup>66</sup> Narrated by 'Abdur-Razzāq (4381), 'Abd ibn Humayd in "Al-Muntakhab" (830) and Al-Bazzār (5929), and their wording is: From Muwarriq Al-'Ajli who said: Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) was asked about the prayer during travel. So he said: "It is two rak'ah after two rak'ah. Whoever opposes the Sunnah has committed kufr." And on some of the words: "Whoever leaves the Sunnah has committed kufr." Ibn Hajr said in "Al-Matālib Al-'Āliyah" (736): "Its isnād is saḥīh." And in "Al-Hilyah" (4/321) Ash-Sha'bī said: "Verily, the one who interprets the Qurān with his opinion, he is verily narrating this from his Lord."

وقال الحسن، ومجاهد، وأبو العالية: إنما سمي هوى لأنه يهوي بصاحبه في النار.

67. And Al-Hasan, Mujāhid [ibn Jabr], Abū Al-‘Āliyah [Ar-Riyāhī] said: “It was verily called desires, because it leads its companion to the fire.”<sup>69</sup>

وقال الحسن: ما من داء أشد من هوى خالط قلبا.

68. And Al-Hasan said: “There is no worse disease than desires that enter a heart.”<sup>70</sup>

وقال أبو قلابة: إياكم وأصحاب الخصومات، فإني لا آمن أن يغمسوكم في ضلالتهم، أو يلبسوا عليكم بعض ما تعرفون.

69. And Abū Qilābah said: “Beware against the people of disputes. Because I do not feel safe from them submerging you in their misguidance, or that make some of what you already know unclear for you.”<sup>71</sup>

وكره عطاء وطاووس ومجاهد والشعي وإبراهيم أن يفتوا في شيء من الخصومات، وقالوا: الخصومات محق الدين، وقالوا: ما خاصم ورع قط .

70. And ‘Atā, Tāwūs, Mujāhid, Ash-Sha’bī and Ibrāhīm – rahimahumullāh – all hated to give fatwā in anything from the disputes.

And they said: “The disputes erase the religion.”

He said: “A God-fearing man never disputed.”

71. And 'Imrān ibn Al-Husayn (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Hayā (shyness) is from īmān."

So a man with him said: "In (or regarding) wisdom it is written: Verily some of shyness is weakness and some of it is dignity."

So 'Imrān said: "I narrate to you from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam), and you narrate to me from your scrolls?! I will never speak to you again."<sup>72</sup>

وذكر عند عمران بن حصين الحديث، فقال رجل من القوم: لو قرأتتم سورة من كتاب الله كان أفضل من حديثكم، فقال عمران إنك لأحمق، أتجد الصلاة في كتاب الله مفسرة؟! أتجد الزكاة في كتاب الله مفسرة؟! إن القرآن حكمة، وإن السنة فسرته.

72. And the hadīth (in general) was mentioned with 'Imrān ibn Husayn (radiAllāhu 'anhu), so a man from the people said: "If you recited from the Book of Allāh then this is better than your hadīth."

So 'Imrān said: "You are verily stupid. Do you find the prayer explained in detail in the Book of Allāh? Do you find the zakāh explained in detail in

<sup>72</sup> Ibn Battah narrated this narration with a more complete wording in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (103). And the hadīth was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (6117) and Muslim (66), and the wording of the hadīth of 'Imrān (radiAllāhu 'anhu) is: "All of hayā is good."

As for what the author mentioned of the hadīth: "Hayā (shyness) is from īmān", then this is the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu). It was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (24) and Muslim (63). And it seems that what the author intended was the hadīth: "All of hayā is good." And Allāh knows best.

73. And Al-Miqdām ibn Ma’dī Karib (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited some things on the day of Khaybar and said: “Soon (a time will come where) a man will be lying on his sofa, and that which I have commanded and forbidden will come to him. So he will say: ‘Free us from this. We do not know what this is. It is upon you (to follow) the Book of Allāh. Because I verily do not now any man among you.’”

Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah”: “If you hear about a man whom you come to with the narrations but he does not want it, and he wants the Qurān (instead), then do not doubt that the man possesses zandaqah, so get up from him and leave him.”

<sup>74</sup> Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1611) and its wording is: That a man asked Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) about touching the Black Stone. So he said: “I saw the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) touch it and kiss it.” He said: “What if I am caught in a crowd? What if someone overpowers me?” He said: “Leave ‘what if’ in Yemen.”

And Al-Bukhārī (6169) narrated from Ibn Mas‘ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: A man came to the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and said: “O Messenger of Allāh, what do you say about a man who loves a people whom he has never met?” So the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “A man is with those whom he loves.”

154. And Al-Hasan ibn Shaqīq said: We were with Ibn Al-Mubārak when a man came to him. So he said to him: “Are you that jahmī?”

He said: “Yes.”

He said: “When you go out from here, then never come back to me.”

The man said: “But I am repenting.”

He said: “No. Not until you show from your repentance the same as what you showed from your innovation.”<sup>141</sup>

<sup>141</sup> Ad-Dārimī said in “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Jahmiyyah” (p. 181): “So the Jahmiyyah for us are zanādiqah from the dirtiest of zanādiqah. We believe they should be asked to repent. Then if they show repentance then they are left alone, and if they do not show repentance then they are killed. And if (trustworthy) witnesses testify to this (i.e. zandaqah) from them and they reject this and do not repent, then they are killed. As such it has reached us about ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that he did with the zanādiqah.”

And in “Dhayl At-Tabaqāt” (1/300) Abū Hātim Muhammad ibn Idris said: Verily, a man from the people of knowledge who had a mistake was mentioned to Ahmad ibn Hanbal, and that he had repented from his mistake. So he said: “Allāh will not accept that from him until he openly shows his repentance and the retraction of his saying. And he must inform that he said his saying of this and that and that he is repenting to Allāh – the Exalted – from his saying and takes it back. Then if this appears from him, then it is accepted.” Then Abū ‘Abdillāh recited:

﴿إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا وَأَصْلَحُوا وَبَيَّنُّوا فَأُولَٰئِكَ أَتُوبُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَأَنَا التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيمُ﴾

“Only those who repent and correct themselves and openly declare.”

155. And Baqiyyah ibn Al-Walīd said: Thābit ibn ‘Ajlān said to me: “I met Mālik ibn Anas, Sa’id ibn Al-Musayyib, ‘Āmir Ash-Sha’bī, Ibrāhīm An-Nakha’ī, Sa’id ibn Jubayr, Al-Hakam ibn ‘Utbah, Hammād ibn Abī Sulaymān, ‘Atā, Tāwūs, Mujāhid, Ibn Abī Mulaykah, Makhūl, Sulaymān ibn Mūsā, Al-Hasan, Ibn Sīrīn and Abū ‘Āmir – and Abū ‘Āmir met Abū Bakr As-Siddīq (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) and others whom he mentioned – and they all commanded me to praying in a jamā’ah, and prohibited me from desires and innovation.” Until he said: “And Abū Muhammad said to me: ‘By Allāh, there is no deed which is more trustworthy to me than me going to this masjid. And perhaps the responsible for it was as Allāh wanted for him to be (i.e. misguided), and we would know this about him and had seen it, but we would still not leave the prayer behind him.’”<sup>142</sup>

159. And Mālik said: A man said: “I have verily entered into all of these religions, and I did not find anything upright.”

Then a man from the people of Madīnah from the mutakillimūn<sup>146</sup> said: “I will inform you why that is.”

160. And Abū Suhayl – the uncle of Mālik [ibn Anas] said: ‘Umar ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz consulted me regarding the Qadariyyah.

So I said: “I believe they should be asked to repent. Then either they repent or else they are struck with the sword.”

“Whoever fears Allāh, then He will make a way out for him.” (At-Talāq 65:2)

﴿وَلَوْ عَلِمَ اللَّهُ فِيهِمْ خَيْرًا لَأَسْمَعَهُمْ وَلَوْ أَسْمَعَهُمْ لَتَوَلَّوْا وَهُمْ مُعْرِضُونَ﴾

“If Allāh knew of any good in them, He would have made them listen. And if He made them listen, they would verily turn away heedlessly.” (Al-Anfāl 8:23)

<sup>148</sup> "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (1955), "Al-Qadar" by Al-Firyābī (273) and "As-Sunnah" by Al-Khallāl (863). And none of them mentioned Al-Hasan in their narrations.

And with Al-Khallāl (862) Muhammad said: I asked Ahmad ibn Hanbal if the qadarī is asked to repent, and said: "Verily Mālik and 'Umar ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz believe that he should be asked to repent. Then either he repents or else he is beheaded?" He said: "I believe that I would ask him to repent if he rejects the Knowledge of Allāh." I said: "And how does he reject the Knowledge of Allāh?" He said: "If this (i.e. everything occurring) is not in the Knowledge of Allāh (in his opinion) then I ask him to repent. Then he either repents or else he is beheaded." He said: "There are verily some of them who says: 'Everything was in Knowledge, but He did not command you perform a sin.'" I said: As for him mentioning Al-Hasan in the end of this narration, then what is apparent from this for me is that this is an addition from the author in order to refute the people of Qadar in their claim that their leader in the innovation of the Qadariyyah is Al-Hasan Al-Basrī, just as Ibn Battah said in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (Chapter/50): "And perhaps it is said to some of them - meaning: the Qadariyyah - 'Who is your imām in what you claim in this evil dirty manhaj?' Then he will claim that his imām in this is: Al-Hasan ibn Abī Al-Hasan Al-Basrī rahimahullāh. So he ads to his ugly kufr and zandaqah that he accuses of kufr an imām from the aimmah of the Muslims, a leader from their leaders and a scholar from their scholars. And he invents a lie about him and accuses him of sin and transgression, in order for him to beautify his innovation by this for the one who disputes with him and humiliates him. And I will mention some of the words of Al-Hasan - rahimahullāh - regarding the Qadar, and his refutation of the Qadariyyah with what Allāh will burn their eyes with, and by which their ugly lie becomes clear to the listener."

<sup>149</sup> Ahlus-Sunnah declare takfīr upon those of the Qadariyyah who reject the (pre-existing) Knowledge of Allāh the Exalted. ‘Abdullāh ibn Ahmad said in “As-Sunnah” (835): I heard my father – rahimahullāh – when ‘Alī ibn Al-Jahm asked him regarding the one who holds the opinion of the Qadar, (whether or not) he is a kāfir? He said: “If he rejects the Knowledge (then he is a kāfir). If he says: ‘Verily Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – did not have knowledge until He created knowledge, (first) then He knew.’ So he rejects the Knowledge of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – then he is kāfir.”

As for the Khawārij then from among Ahlus-Sunnah are those who declare takfīr upon the group (called) Muhakkimah from them; those who declare takfīr upon ‘Uthman and ‘Ali (radiAllāhu ‘anhumā) and others than them from the Sahābah (radiAllāhu ‘anhum). And the words of the author will come in (198) regarding the takfīr upon those who declare takfīr upon ‘Uthman and ‘Ali (radiAllāhu ‘anhumā) due to him belying the Messenger (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). Because he testified to their (righteousness) and gave them the glad tidings of Paradise. As for the rest of the Khawārij, then they are māriqah (people who pass through the religion, just as the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said.

Imām Ahmad said: “The Khawārij are an evil people. I do not know of a more evil people on earth than them.”

And he said: “And the hadīth from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) regarding them is saḥīh from ten aspects.”

Yūsuf ibn Mūsā said: It was verily said to Abū ‘Abdillāh: “Did the Khawārij commit kufr?” He said: “They are māriqah.” It was said: “Are they kuffār?” He said: “Free me from this (question), and say about them just as it was stated in the hadīth.” See: “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallal” (11/Regarding the tawaaquf of Abū ‘Abdillāh regarding the māriqah), “Masāil Ibn Hāni” (1884), “Minhāj As-Sunnah” (5/241-248). وقال: ابن المبارك: إن لله ملائكة يطلبون حلق الذكر، فانظر مع من يكون مجلسك، لا يكون مع صاحب بدعة، فإن الله لا ينظر إليهم، وعلامة النفاق: أن يقوم الرجل ويقعد مع صاحب بدعة.

163. And Ibn Al-Mubārak said: “Verily, Allāh has angels who seek out the gatherings of remembrance. So look to who your gathering is with. Do not let it be with an innovator, because Allāh does not look at them. And the sign of nifāq is that a man gets up and sits down with an innovator.”<sup>151</sup>

وقال محمد بن النضر الحارثي: من أصغى بسمعه إلى صاحب بدعة نزلت منه العصمة، ووكل إلى نفسه

This type of person is not boycotted before he is informed and taught that the one whom he is walking with is an innovator. Then if he insists on walking with him after knowing his innovation, then he is boycotted.

- Abū Dāwūd As-Sijistānī said: I said to Ahmad ibn Hanbal: “I see a man from Ahlus-Sunnah with a man from the people of innovation, should I refrain from speaking with him?” He said: “No. Or you inform him that the man whom you saw him with is an innovator. Then if he leaves speaking with him, then you can speak with him. And if not then associate him with him (i.e. the innovator). Ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: ‘A person is with his companion.’”

He said: “My followers are those with dry lips and stomachs that are a fifth full (due to fasting). You can recognize the worship and the devotion (to Allāh) on their faces. They are monks in the night and lions in the day. When the night covers them they tighten their garments around their waists (to pray) and they put their covers over their shoulders (similar to the clothes of ihrām), and they roar just like the bulls roar (i.e. they cry) seeking their necks to be freed (from Hellfire).

My shī’ah are those who if they testify they are not known, if they ask for a woman they are not given her in marriage, if they are sick they are not visited and if they are absent no-one misses them (due to being far away from fame).

My shī’ah are those who support each other with their wealth and for Allāh they spend: a dirham (to one) and a dirham (to another), a fil (to one) and a fil (to another), a garment (to one) and a garment (to another), and if not (fairly distributed like this) then not.

My shī’ah are those who do not whine like the whining of the dog, and they do not crave (for dunyā) like the craving of the crow. Their needs are small and their souls are simple. And even if their countries differ, then their hearts do not differ.

As for in the night, then they straighten their feet (in prayer), make level their foreheads (in prostration), their tears run down their cheeks while invoking for the freeing of their necks (from Hellfire).

As for in the day, then they are forbearing, scholars, noble, honorable, righteous and God-fearing.

*O Nawf, my shī'ah are those who took the earth as something simple (i.e they do not have much dunyā), water as their perfume, the Qurān as their banner, invocation as their garment and they only took from the dunyā what they needed. قد أتينا يا أخي -رحمك الله- ونفعنا وإياك بالعلم، واستعملنا به ووقفنا للسنة، وأماتنا عليها بمجمل من أقاويل العلماء، وأخبار المصطفى -صلى الله عليه وسلم- في التحذير والتخويف، والإعذار والإنذار من الوقوع في البدعة، وما أمروا به من التمسك بالسنة، والتحفظ لها، والإقبال عليها، ومجانبة من خالفها، ومباينة من خرج عنها، بما أتجه لنا رسمه، وسهل علينا ذكره، مما في بعضه كفاية وغنى، لمن أحب الله عز وجل خيره، وكان بقلبه أدنى وحياة .

O brother – may Allāh show you mercy and benefit us and you with knowledge, appoint us to it, give us success in (following) the Sunnah and let us die upon it – we have verily conveyed some of the sayings of the scholars and the narrations from the Mustafā (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) regarding warning against, frightening, noticing and cautioning against falling into innovation. And what they commanded of adhering to the Sunnah, preserving it, drawing near to it, staying away from those who oppose it and separating from those who exit from it by what we have presented and what was easy for us to mention, from that in which there is enough and sufficiency for the one whom Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – wants good for and who has the slightest amount of life in his heart.

And now we will mention the sharh (explanation) of the Sunnah and its description and what it essentially is, and what it is that if the slave adheres to it and believes in Allāh by it, then he is named by it and deserves to be considered among its people.

And that which if the slaves opposes any of it, then he is considered to be among those whom we criticized, mentioned and warned against from the people of innovation and deviation. The explanation of which the people of Islām have agreed upon, and all of the Ummah have gone forth (believing it) since Allāh sent our Prophet Muhammad (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) until this time of ours.

أول ما نبدأ بذكره من ذلك:

And the first we begin with mentioning from this is:

ذكر ما افترض الله -عز وجل- على عباده، وبعث به رسوله -صلى الله عليه وسلم-، وأنزل فيه كتابه، وهو الإيمان بالله -عز وجل-، ومعناه التصديق، بما قاله وأمر به، وافترضه ونهى عنه، من كل ما جاءت به الرسل من عنده، ونزلت فيه الكتب، وبذلك أرسل المرسلين، فقال -عز وجل-:

240. The mentioning of what Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – have obligated upon His slaves, and what He sent His Messenger (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) with and revealed His Book with; and that is the īmān (belief) in Allāh ‘azza wa jalla.

And the meaning of it (i.e. īmān) is: The belief in what He said, commanded, obligated and prohibited from everything what the messengers came with from Him and the Books were revealed with. This is what the messengers were sent with. For He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رَسُولٍ إِلَّا نُوحِي إِلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنَا فَاعْبُدُونِ ﴾

“And We have not sent any messenger before you, except that it was revealed to him that there is no-one worthy of worship besides Me, so worship Me.” (Al-Anbiyā 21:25)

والتصديق على ذلك، قول باللسان وتصديق بالجنان، وعمل بالأركان،

241. And the belief in this is by:

The speech upon the tongue, the belief in the heart and performing the pillars.<sup>218</sup>

يزيده كثرة العمل، والقول بالإحسان، وينقصه العصيان، وله أول وبداية، ثم ارتقاء وزيادة بلا نهاية، قال الله - عز وجل -:

242. Performing more (good) deeds and saying good words increases it. And what disobedience decreases it. And it has a start and a beginning, and after that progressing and increasing until no end.<sup>219</sup>

Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - said:

﴿الَّذِينَ قَالَ لَهُمُ النَّاسُ إِنَّ النَّاسَ قَدِ جَمَعُوا لَكُمْ فَآخْشَوْهُمْ فَزَادَهُمْ إِيمَانًا وَقَالُوا حَسْبُنَا اللَّهُ وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيلُ﴾

“Those to whom the people said: ‘Verily, the people have gathered against you, so fear them.’ But this increased them in īmān and they said: ‘Allāh is Sufficient for us and the best Disposer of affairs.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:173)

<sup>218</sup> This is in opposition to the Murjiah and those who agree with them, among those who do not make it as a condition for the correctness of īmān that a person performs good deeds. As for the people of Sunnah, from the righteous Salaf and those who followed them until this time of ours, then they all agree that īmān has three pillars, and that the īmān of the slave is not accepted except if these three pillars are gathered (at the same time).

Imām Ash-Shāfi‘ī - rahimahullāh - said: “And the ijmā’ from the Sahābah and tābi’ūn and those who came after them, among those whom we met, is that they say: Verily īmān is in speech, deeds and intention (i.e. the heart). None of these three will benefit except by the others.” See: Al-Lālakāī (1593).

<sup>219</sup> In “As-Sunnah” by ‘Abdullāh ibn Ahmad (665) Al-Walīd ibn Muslim said: “I heard Al-Awzā‘ī, Mālik and Sa‘īd ibn ‘Abdīl-Azīz all say: that īmān does not end, it can always increase. And they would rebuke the one who said that his īmān is complete and that his īmān is equal to the īmān of Jibrīl (‘alayhi as-salām).”

And He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ وَيَزِدَادَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِيمَانًا ﴾

“And for those who believe to increase in īmān.”

(Al-Muddaththir 74:31)

وقال تبارك وتعالى:

And He – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – said:

﴿ لِيَزِدَادُوا إِيمَانًا مَعَ إِيمَانِهِمْ ﴾

“In order for them to increase in īmān upon their (current)

īmān*.” (Al-Fath 48:4)

وقال معاذ بن جبل لرجل: اجلس بنا نؤمن ساعة، يعني نذكر الله فتزداد إيماننا، وكل شيء يزيد فهو ينقص .

243. And Mu’adh ibn Jabal (radi Allāhu ‘anhu) said to a man: “Sit down and let us believe for a while.”<sup>220</sup>

Meaning: We mention Allāh so we increase in īmān.

And everything that increases can also decrease.<sup>221</sup>

<sup>221</sup> This is in opposition to the Murjiah and Ashā’irah who say: Īmān does not increase nor decrease.

ثم الاستثناء في الإيمان، وهو أن يقول الرجل: "أنا مؤمن إن شاء الله"،

244. Then the istithnā (exception) in īmān. And this is that a man says: "I am a believer, in shā Allāh."

245. 'Abdullāh ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) used to say like this.<sup>222</sup>

And the scholars after him adhered to this, such as: 'Alqamah, Al-Aswad, Abū Wāil, Masrūq, Mansūr, Mughīrah, Ibrāhīm An-Nakha'ī, Al-A'mash, Hammād ibn Zayd, Yazīd ibn Zuray', Bishr ibn Al-Mufaddal, Mu'ādh ibn Mu'ādh, Sufyān ibn Habīb, Sufyān Ath-Thawrī, Ibn Al-Mubārak and Al-Fudayl ibn 'Iyyād along with others besides them. The book would become long by mentioning them (all).

And this is an istithnā (exception) while being upon yaqīn (certainty). Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – said:

<sup>222</sup> This was narrated by Ibn Battah in "Al-Ibānah" (1269) and its wording is: From Al-Hasan that a man said in front of 'Abdullāh ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "I am verily a believer." So it was said to Ibn Mas'ūd: "Verily, this man claims that he is a believer!" So he said: "Ask him whether he will be in Paradise or Hellfire." So they asked him and he said: "Allāh knows best." So 'Abdullāh said to him: "Then why did you not entrust the worldly life (to Allāh), just like you entrusted the hereafter."

And the opinion of istithnā in īmān is firmly established from Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu). And I mentioned this in my commentary upon "As-Sunnah" by 'Abdullāh (634) and "Ar-Radd 'alā Al-Mubtadi'ah" by Ibn Al-Bannā (252).

﴿لَتَدْخُلَنَّ الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ آمِينَ﴾

“You will verily enter Al-Masjid Al-Harām – in shā Allāh – in safety.” (Al-Fath 48:27)<sup>223</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إني لأرجو أن أكون أتقاكم لله عز وجل.

246. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I verily hope to be the most fearing of Allāh – azza wa jalla – among you.”<sup>224</sup>

وقال وقد اجتاز البقيع: وإنا -إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ- بكم لاحقون.

247. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) – when he passed by Al-Baqī’ (i.e. the graveyard of the Sahābah) – said: “And we will verily follow you, in shā Allāh.”<sup>225</sup>

فهذا كله استثناء على يقين، ولكن يجب أن يعلم كيف يستثنى، ولأبي سبب وقع الاستثناء؛ لئلا يظن المخالف أن استثناءه من قبل الشك،

So this is all istithnā upon yaqīn (and not due to doubting in ones īmān).

But it is obligatory upon everyone who makes istithnā to know how he should make istithnā? And for what reason did the istithnā occur?

<sup>223</sup> Imām Ahmad – rahimahullāh – said: “He verily knew that they would enter it, and He (still) made istithnā.” “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah (2/181).

And Muslim (2562) narrated it from the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “By Allāh, I verily hope that I am the one among you who fears Allāh the most, and the one among you with most knowledge about what I must avoid.”

Imām Ahmad – rahimahullāh – said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) verily knew that he would follow them, and he (still) made istithnā.” “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah (2/181).

In order for the opposer not to think that the istithnā is from the aspect of doubt.<sup>226</sup>

فقد كان سفیان الثوري وابن المبارك يقولان: الناس عندنا مؤمنون في الموارث والأحكام، ولا ندرى كيف هم عند الله -عز وجل-، ولا ندرى على أي دين يموتون؛ لأن الاستثناء واقع على ما يستقبل؛ لأن قول العبد: "أنا مؤمن إن شاء الله" معناه: إن قبل الله إيماني وأماتي عليه، بمنزلة رجل صلى صلاة فقال: قد صليت وعلى الله القبول.

248. Sufyān Ath-Thawrī and Ibn Al-Mubārak verily used to say: "The people for us are believers in the inheritance and judgments. And we do not know what their state is with Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – and upon which religion they will die."<sup>227</sup>

For the istithnā occurs for what will happen in the future, because the saying of the slaves: "I am a believer, in shā Allāh", means: If Allāh accepts my īmān and my faithfulness towards him, from the same aspect as a man who performs a prayer and then says: "I have prayed, and it is for Allāh to accept it (or not)."

<sup>226</sup> Ibn Battah said in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (1/552): "Istithnā is correct from two aspects. (1) The first of them: Is negating the purification of one's self in order for him not to testify upon himself with the realities of īmān and its perfections. For verily, the one who is absolute certain about his soul in these descriptions, he has testified that it will be in Paradise, and the Pleasure and Satisfaction (of Allāh upon himself). And whoever testifies upon himself with this, he is more suitable for the opposite of it. (2) And the istithnā is also correct from another aspect. That is that it occurs upon the future deed, continuous actions and upon the ending and the remaining of life. And (the one who says it) intends: I am verily a believer if Allāh makes my end to be upon the deeds of the believers, and if I am written with Allāh in the register of the people of īmān. And if what I am upon (now) of the deeds of the believer is something that will continue and remain for me until I meet Allāh. And I do not know if I wake up or go into the evening upon īmān or not."

كذلك الحج، وكذلك إذا صام أو عمل عملاً، فإنما يقع استثناءه فيه على الخاتمة، وقبول الله إياه، لا أنه قد شك فيما قد قاله وعمله، وقد يرى الرجل يصلي، فيقال له: صليت، فيقول: نعم، إن قبلت.

And likewise is the Hajj. And likewise if he fast or perform any good deed, then the istithnā in it occurs upon the ending and whether Allāh accepts it. Not that he doubts regarding what he said or performed.

And a man might be seen prayer, and then it is said to him: “Have you prayed?”

So he will say: “Yes, if it is accepted.”

ثم بعد ذلك أن يعلم أن الإسلام معناه غير الإيمان، فالإسلام اسم ومعناه الملة، والإيمان اسم ومعناه التصديق، قال الله -عز وجل-:

249. Then after that: That you know that the meaning of Islām is different than (the meaning of) īmān.

“Al-Islām”: is a name. And its meaning is: the millah (religion).

And “Al-Īmān”: is a name. And its meaning is: the belief.

Allāh - ‘azza wa jalla - said:

﴿ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِمُؤْمِنٍ لَنَا ﴾

“And you are not a mumin (believer in) us.” (Yūsuf 12:17)

يريد "بمصدق لنا"، والآي في صحة ما قلناه كثير، ومنه:

Intending: (You are not) a believer in us.<sup>228</sup>

And the evidences for the correctness of what we have said are many.

From it is:

<sup>228</sup> Many from the first generations of Ahlu-s-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah explained īmān with its meaning in the language, so they said: Īmān is the belief.

I said: This is the definition of īmān in the language. As for its meaning in the Islamic Law then it is more specific than its meaning in the language. Because the Legislator verily added some issues to it which it cannot be fulfilled without. So He made it to be in the heart, upon the tongue and with the limbs. A person is not a Muslims without these (three) are gathered in him.

Ibn Jarīr At-Tabarī said in "Tabsīr fī Ma'ālim Ad-Dīn" (p.190) after he mentioned the disagreement regarding the meaning of īmān. He said: "The correct opinion in that with us is, that īmān is a name for the belief, just as the Arabs have said. And the Book of Allāh – Exalted is His Mention – came with this (meaning) from the brothers of Yūsuf in their saying to their father:

﴿وَمَا أَنْتَ بِمُؤْمِنٍ لَنَا﴾

"And you are not a mumin (believer in) us." (Yūsuf 12:17)

Which means: You are not going to believe us in what we say. Except that the meaning based upon which the name mumin (believer) deserves to be given, is what gathers all of the meanings of īmān. And that is performing all of the obligatory deeds of Allāh – Exalted is His Mention – of knowledge (in the heart), acknowledgement (upon the tongue) and deeds (with the limbs)."

And this clarifies that when the scholars of Ahlu-s-Sunnah explained īmān as being the belief, they did not mean the same as what most of the Murjiah and Ashā'irah mean when they explain īmān as being the belief.

As for the difference between the saying of Ahlu-s-Sunnah and the saying of the Ashā'irah (and the Murjiah) in īmān that it is only in belief (and not deeds), then Abū Al-Qāsim Al-Asbahānī – whose nickname is Qawām As-Sunnah – said in "Al-Hujjah fī Bayān Al-Mahajjah" (1/403): "Īmān in the Islamic Law is an expression for all of the inwardly and outwardly acts of obedience. And the Ashā'irah said: 'Īmān is the belief, and the deeds and sayings are from its laws, and not from īmān itself.'"

﴿ قَالَتِ الْأَعْرَابُ آمَنَّا قُلْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوا وَلَكِنْ قُولُوا أَسْلَمْنَا ﴾

“And the Bedouins said: ‘We have believed.’ Say: ‘You have not believed, rather say: We have submitted ourselves (to Islām).”

(Al-Hujurāt 49:14)<sup>229</sup>

250. And a man can exit from īmān to Islām<sup>230</sup>, and nothing makes him exit from Islām, except shirk.<sup>231</sup>

<sup>229</sup> Al-Maymūnī said: I said to Ahmad: “Do you differentiate between Islām and īmān?” So he said to me: “Yes.” So I said to him: “What do you use as evidence for this?” He said: “The majority of ahādīth points this out.” Then he said: “The fornicator does not fornicate while he is a believer.” And Allāh – the Exalted – said:

﴿ قَالَتِ الْأَعْرَابُ آمَنَّا ﴾

“And the Bedouins said: ‘We have believed.’” ... until the end of the verse. And Hammād ibn Zayd differentiated between Islām and īmān.” And he said about the Murjiah: “They make all of this one thing, and they describe a person as one Muslim mumin with the īmān of Jibrīl; a completed īmān.”

<sup>230</sup> In “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallāl (1063) Hanbal said: I said to Abū ‘Abdillāh: “If a man performs a sin of fornication or he steals, does his īmān then leave him?” He said: “He is deficient in īmān. So the īmān is taken away from him, just as a man takes off his shirt. Then if he repents and returns (to obedience) his īmān returns to him.”

<sup>231</sup> And from the major shirk is leaving the prayer, just as the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) informed about this when he said: “Verily between a man and shirk and kufr is leaving the prayer.” Narrated by Muslim (134) from the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhū).

أو برد فريضة من فرائض الله - عز وجل - جاحدا بما، فإن تركها تهاونا وكسلا كان في مشيئة الله - عز وجل -،

Or if he refuses a farīdah (obligatory act of worship) from the farāid of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – while rejecting it.<sup>232</sup>

But if he leaves if out of neglectfulness or laziness, then he is under the Mashīah (Will) of Allāh ‘azza wa jalla.

<sup>232</sup> Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (51) with my tahqīq: “And no-one from the people of the qiblah (i.e. those who pray) are exited from Islām (i.e. declared takfīr upon) before he rejects a verse from the Book of Allāh – the Exalted – or he rejects something of the narrations of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), or he prays to other than Allāh, or he slaughters for others than Allāh. But if he does any of these things, then it is obligatory upon you to exit him from Islām. And if he does not do any of these things, then he is a mumin Muslim in name and not in reality.”

I said: Some of the Murjah use this saying of Al-Barbahārī to say that he does not believe in declaring takfīr upon the one who leaves the prayer. And this is because he did not mention it here along with what exits a Muslim from the religion of Islām. And this is from their pure ignorance regarding the words of the leaders of the Sunnah. For verily, Al-Barbahārī is here speaking about “Ahlul-Qiblah” (the people of the prayer direction), and if a nullifier from the nullifiers of Islām which he mentioned occurs from them. And this is his words: “And no-one from the people of the qiblah (i.e. those who pray) are exited from Islām.” And “Ahlul-Qiblah” are the people of Tawhīd and prayer, just as this is not hidden for anyone who has (the slightest) insight. So whoever does not pray and does not face the qiblah, then he is kāfir to begin with, no matter if he acknowledges these things or not. And this was narrated clearly from Imām Ahmad, just as this was narrated in “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallāl (139).

And due to this, whoever from the leaders of the Sunnah who did not mention not performing takfīr upon “Ahlul-Qiblah” or “Ahlut-Tawhīd” in his ‘aqīdah, then he mentions the takfīr upon the one who leaves the prayer. Just as the Imām Ibn Qutaybah ibn Sa’d (d 240h), the shaykh of Imām Al-Bukhārī, did in his ‘aqīdah when he said: “And we do not declare takfīr upon anyone due to a sin, except for leaving the prayer. Even if he performs major sins.”

And Imām Ahmad said: “And no-one is declared takfīr upon due to a sin, except the one who leaves the prayer on purpose.” “Ta’dhīm Qadr As-Salah” (982).

If He wants He punishes him, and if He wants He forgives him.<sup>233</sup>

<sup>233</sup> And this is the opinion of Ahlu-Sunnah in all of the deeds, except the prayer. For the ijmā' of the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum) and the tābi'ūn verily occurred upon declaring takfir upon the one who leaves the prayer. No matter if he leaves it due to rejecting it, or he leaves it out of neglectfulness or laziness.

And Ibn Battah included a chapter in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" called: (Chapter regarding declaring takfir upon the one who leaves the prayer and withholds the zakāh, and the permissibility of fighting them and killing them if they do so). Then he narrated the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) with its chain of narration: "There is nothing between the slave and kufr, except leaving the prayer."

And the saying of 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) when he was stabbed: "A person who leaves the prayer has no share in Islam."

And the saying of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) when he was asked: "What used to be the distinguishing factor between kufr and īmān for you from the deeds in the time of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam)?" So he said: "The prayer."

And the saying of Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "Leaving it is kufr."

And he also said: "Whoever does not pray, he has no religion."

Translator: The muhaqqiq here continued bringing argumentation for declaring takfir upon the one leaving the prayer from the sayings of the scholars of the people of Sunnah. And among what he mentioned is:

'Abdullāh ibn Shaqīq said: "The companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) would not consider leaving any of the deeds as kufr, except the prayer."

Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2622), Muhammad in Nasr in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (948) and it is a sahīh narration.

Al-Hasan Al-Basrī said: "It has reached me that the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to say: 'Between the slave and between him committing shirk by which he commits kufr, is him leaving the prayer without any excuse.'" Narrated by Ahmad in "Al-īmān" (210) with my tahqīq and Ibn Battah in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (935). And its isnād is sahīh.

Ayyūb As-Sikhtiyānī – and he is from the elders of the tābi'ūn – said: "Leaving the prayer is kufr, there is no disagreement regarding that." Narrated by Muhammad ibn Nasr in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (978) and its isnād is sahīh.

Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah said: "And it has verily been correctly narrated from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) that the one who leaves the prayer is a kāfir. And likewise was the opinion of the people of knowledge from the time of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) until this day of ours; that the one who leaves the prayer on purpose without any excuse until its time passes, he is a kāfir." Narrated by Muhammad ibn Nasr in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (978)

ثم من بعد ذلك أن يعلم بغير شك ولا مرية ولا وقوف أن القرآن كلام الله ووحيه وتنزيله، فيه معاني توحيدية، ومعرفة آياته وصفاته وأسمائه، وهو علم من علمه غير مخلوق، وكيف قرئ، وكيف كتب، وحيث تلي، وفي أي موضع كان في السماء وجد أو في الأرض، حفظ في اللوح المحفوظ وفي المصاحف، وفي ألواح الصبيان مرصودا، أو في حجر منقوشا. وعلى كل الحالات، وفي كل الجهات، فهو كلام الله غير مخلوق، ومن قال: مخلوق، أو قال: كلام الله، ووقف أو شك، أو قال بلسانه وأضرمه في نفسه

250. After that, that he knows without any doubt, uncertainty and hesitation:

That the Qurān is the Word (or Speech) of Allāh and His revelation. In it are the meanings of His Tawhīd, the knowledge of Him, His favors, His Attributes and His Names. And it is Knowledge from His Knowledge and not created. And no matter how it is read, how it is written, where it is recited, where it is located – whether this is in the heaven or on earth – memorized in the Preserved Tablet, in the Masāhif (pl. Mushaf), written in the scrolls of the young boys, or engraved in rocks, in all situations and from all aspects, then it is the Word of Allāh and not created.

a. And whoever says: “It is created.”

b. Or says: “It is the Word of Allāh”, and then stops or doubts.<sup>234</sup>

<sup>234</sup> Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqīdah in which he conveyed the ijmā’ of the people of knowledge (97): “The Wāqifah: And they are those who claim: That we say the Qurān is the Word of Allāh, and we do not say: (That it is) not created. And they are the worst category and the dirtiest of them.”

And with Al-Khallāl (1774) from Al-Marrūdhī who said: I asked Ahmad about the one who stops and does not say: It is not created. (Instead) he says: “I say: It is the Words of Allāh.”? He said: “It is said to him: Verily the scholars say that it is not created. Then if he refuses, then he is a jahmī.”

And Abū Dāwūd said in his “Masāil” (1705): I heard Ahmad in Hanbal when he was asked: “Is it permissible for a man to say: The Words of Allāh, and then remain quiet?” He said: “And why would he remain quiet? If it had not been for what occurred among the people, then he could remain quiet. But when they spoke (about this), then what is their reason for not speaking (against it).”

c. Or he says it with his tongue (i.e. that it is the Words of Allāh), and keeps it secret in his heart (i.e. that it is created).<sup>235</sup>

فهو بالله كافر، حلال الدم، بريء من الله، والله منه بريء،

Then he is a kāfir, his blood is permissible, he has nothing to do with Allāh and Allāh has nothing to do with him.

ومن شك في كفره ووقف عن تكفيره، فهو كافر؛ لقول الله - عز وجل -:

And whoever doubts regarding his kufir, or hesitates in declaring takfir upon him, then he is (also) a kāfir<sup>236</sup>, due to the Words of Allāh the Exalted:

﴿بَلْ هُوَ قُرْآنٌ مَّجِيدٌ ۝ فِي لَوْحٍ مَّحْفُوظٍ﴾

“Rather, it is a Majestic Qurān. In the Preserved Tablet.”

(Al-Burūj 85:21-22)

And He said:

<sup>235</sup> As such is the one who says: “My pronunciation of the Qurān is created.” The leaders of Sunnah verily counted him to be from the Jahmiyyah. Ibn Battah said in “Al-Ibānah” (2259): “Whoever says: My pronunciation of the Qurān is created, then he is a misguided and misguiding jahmī. And whoever says: My pronunciation of the Qurān is not created, then he is an innovator. He is not spoken to until he leaves his innovation and repents from his statement. This is our madhhab in which we follow our leaders and take the example of our shuyūkh. And it is the opinion of our Imām: Ahmad ibn Hanbal rahimahullāh.” And then he mentioned the statements from Imām Ahmad regarding this issue. So look at them.

<sup>236</sup> Declaring takfir upon the one who doubts regarding the kufir of the one who says that the Qurān is created, is something the scholars have agreed upon. Abū Hātim and Abū Zur’ah said in their ‘aqīdah’: “We have met the scholars from all of the lands: Hijāz, ‘Irāq, Shām and Yemen. And from their madhhab was: ... And whoever claims that the Qurān is created, then he is a disbeliever in Allāh the Almighty with a kufir that brings him out of the millah. And whoever doubts regarding his kufir, among those who understand, then he is kāfir.” “Al-Lālakāī” (321).

﴿ حَتَّى يَسْمَعَ كَلَامَ اللَّهِ ﴾

“So that he may hear the Words of Allāh.” (At-Tawbah 9:6)

وقوله:

And His Words:

﴿ ذَلِكَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ أَنْزَلَهُ إِلَيْكُمْ ﴾

“That is the Command of Allāh which He revealed to you.”
(At-Talāq 65:5)

فمن زعم أن حرفا واحدا منه مخلوق فقد كفر لا محالة، فالآي في ذلك من القرآن، والحجة عن المصطفى -صلى الله عليه وسلم- أكثر من أن تحصى، وأظهر من تخفى .

So whoever claims that even one letter of it is created, then he has verily committed kufr without any exception.

And the evidences for this in the Qurān, and the argument from the Mustafā (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) are more than it is possible to count, and more clear than it is possible to hide.

ثم الإيمان بصفات الله - تبارك وتعالى - : بأن الله حي ناطق، سميع بصير، يعلم السر وأخفى، وما في الأرض والسماء، وما ظهر، وما تحت الثرى، وأنه حكيم عليم، عزيز قدير، ودود رؤوف رحيم. يسمع ويرى، وهو بالمنظر الأعلى، ويقبض ويبسط، يأخذ ويعطي، وهو على عرشه بائن من خلقه. يميت ويحيى، ويفقر ويغني، ويغضب ويرضى، ويتكلم ويضحك، لا تأخذه سنة ولا نوم، ما تسقط من ورقة إلا يعلمها، ولا حبة في ظلمات الأرض، ولا رطب ولا يابس، إلا في كتاب مبين.

252. Then (he must know) that the īmān in the Attributes of Allāh – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – is:

That Allāh – the Exalted – is Living, Nātiq (Uttering)<sup>237</sup>, Hearing and Seeing. He knows the secret and hidden, what is on earth and in the heaven [and what is between them], what is apparent and what is beneath the soil. And that He is Wise and Knowledgably, Mighty and Powerful. Loving, Mild and Merciful. He hears and sees, and He is in the highest viewpoint. He grasps and lets go (with His Hand), and He takes and gives. He is upon His Throne, separated from His creation. He takes life and gives life. He makes poor and enrichens. He becomes angry and pleased. And He speaks and laughs.

﴿ لَا تَأْخُذُهُ سِنَّةٌ وَلَا نَوْمٌ ﴾

“Neither slumber nor sleep overtake Him.” (Al-Baqarah 2:256)

﴿ وَمَا تَسْقُطُ مِنْ وَرَقَةٍ إِلَّا يَعْلَمُهَا وَلَا حَبَّةٍ فِي ظِلْمَاتِ الْأَرْضِ وَلَا رَطْبٍ وَلَا يَابِسٍ إِلَّا فِي

﴿ كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ﴾

“And there is no leaf that falls, except that He knows about it. Nor is there a seed in the darkness of the earth, or something wet or dry, except that it is in a Clear Book.” (Al-An’ām 6:59)<sup>238</sup>

<sup>237</sup> Nātiq: Using this word about Allāh is from the aspect of allowed informing. And what he means is the establishment of the Speech of Allāh the Exalted.

<sup>238</sup> Ibn Battah said in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (2667): “And the jahmī negate all of these Attributes and rejects them, by rejecting the text of the revelation and the correct Sunnah. And he claims that Allāh does not become angry or pleased and that He does not love or hate. By negating the Attributes and rejecting them he verily wants to the reject the One who is described with them. And Allāh – the Exalted – verily belied the jahmī and humiliated him, and He kept him away from the oath of guidance and driven him away.”

Then he mentioned the chain of narration for the words of Abū Ma’mar Al-Hudhalī who said: “Whoever claims that Allāh – the Exalted – does not speak, nor hear, see, get angry or pleased – and he mentioned some of these Attributes - then he is a disbeliever in Allāh ‘azza wa jalla. If you see him standing at a well, then throw him in it. By this I worship Allāh ‘azza wa jalla, because they are disbelievers in Allāh the Exalted.”

ويعلم بعد ذلك : أنه يتجلى لعباده المؤمنين يوم القيامة ؛ فيرونه، ويراهم، ويكلمهم، ويكلمونه، ويسلم عليهم،

253. And that he knows after this:

That He will appear to His slaves on the Day of Resurrection, so they will see Him and He sees them. And He will speak to them and they will speak to Him. And He will greet them [just as He – the Exalted – said:

﴿سَلَامٌ قَوْلًا مِنْ رَبِّ رَحِيمٍ﴾

“Salām; a word from a Merciful Lord.” (Yā-Sīn 36:58)]

ويضحك إليهم، لا يُضامون في ذلك، ولا يرتابون، ولا يشكون. فمن كذَّب بهذا، أو ردَّه، وشك فيه، أو طعن على راويه ؛ فقد أعظم الفرية على الله -عز وجل-، وقد بريء من الله ورسوله، والله ورسوله منه بريئان، كذلك قال العلماء، وحلف عليه بعضهم.

And He will laugh to them and they will laugh to Him. They will have no difficulty in this, nor will they be uncertain or doubt.<sup>239</sup>

So whoever rejects this, negates it, doubts it or slanders the one narrating it, then he has verily invented a mighty lie about Allāh ‘azza wa jalla. And he has disassociated himself from Allāh and His Messengers, and Allāh and His Messenger are free from him. This is how the scholars said, and some of them swore to this.

<sup>239</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) in which it says: “Then our Lord will come to us after that, and He will say: ‘What are you waiting for?’ So they will say: ‘We are waiting for our Lord.’ So He will say: ‘I am your Lord.’ So they will say: ‘Until we look at you.’ So He will appear to them while laughing...” Until the end of the hadīth. Narrated by Ahmad (14721) and Muslim (388).

254. Then after that:

The belief in the Qadar; the good of it, the bad of it, the sweet of it, the bitter of it, the small of it and the abundant of it, is all predetermined and occurring from Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – upon His slaves in the time that He wanted for this to occur. Its time is not advanced nor is it postponed. (Everything occurs) according to what has gone forth in the Knowledge of Allāh.

And that whatever befalls the slave would never have gone him by, and whatever went him by would never have befallen him. Whatever was advanced would never have been postponed and whatever was postponed would never have been advanced.

Regarding this there are correct evidences and established arguments from all of the Qurān and the narrations from the Mustafā (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) which are not able to be refuted. Nor is anyone capable of negating it, except by inventing lies about Allāh ‘azza wa jalla, and disputing with Him regarding His Power.<sup>240</sup>

<sup>240</sup> In “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (565) Zayd ibn Aslam said: “The Qadar is the Power of Allāh. So whoever rejects the Qadr, then he has verily rejected the Power of Allāh.”

وإلى ما وصفناه : دعت الرسل، وأُنزِلَتِ الكتب، وعليه اتفق أهل التوحيد: ممن أقر الله بالربوبية، وعلى نفسه بالعبودية من مَلِكٍ مقرب، ونبي مُرْسَلٍ. منذ كان الخلق إلى انقضائه مجتمعون على أنه : ليس شيء كان، ولا شيء يكون في السماوات، ولا في الأرض، إلا ما أَرَادَهُ اللهُ -عز وجل - وشاءه، وقضاه. والخلق كلهم أضعف في قوتهم، وأعجز في أنفسهم -من أن يحدّثوا في سلطان الله -عز وجل - شيئاً يخالفون فيه مراده، ويغلبون مشيئته، ويردون قضاءه ؛ فالإيمان بهذا حق لازم، فريضة من الله -عز وجل - على خلقه. فمن خالف ذلك، أو خرج عنه، أو طعن فيه : لم يثبت المقادير لله -عز وجل - ويضفها، ويضف المشيئة إليه، فهو أول الزندقة ؛ لأنه جاءت الأخبار: أن القدر أبو جاد الزندقة .

And the messengers invited towards what we have described, the Books were revealed with this and the people of Tawhīd among those who acknowledged the Rubūbiyyah for Allāh, and acknowledged the 'ubūdiyyah (worship) upon himself, among an angel brought near and a sent messenger since the beginning of the creation until its end, all agree upon this.

They all agree that nothing ever was, nor will anything ever be in the heavens and the earth, except what Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - intended, wanted and decreed. And all of the creation (combined) are weaker in their strength and more incapable in themselves than that they would be able to introduce anything in the Dominion of Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - in which they oppose what He wants, overpower His Will and negate His Decree.

So believing in this is a necessary right and an obligation from Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - upon His slaves.

Whoever opposes this, or exits from it, or speaks ill of it and do not establish the maqādīr of Allāh 'azza wa jalla, and ascribes them and ascribes the Mashīah (Will) to Allāh, then this is the first of zandaqah.

Because the narrations have verily said: that the (innovation in) Qadar is the entrance into zandaqah.<sup>241</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لعنت القدرية على لسان سبعين نبيا، وأنا آخرهم .

255. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The Qadariyyah and the Murjiah were curse upon the tongues of seventy prophets. And I am the last of them.”<sup>242</sup>

وقال : كتب الله - عز وجل - على كل نفس حظها من الزنا .

256. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Allāh - ‘azza wa jalla - decreed for every soul its share of zinā (fornication).”<sup>243</sup>

---

<sup>241</sup> Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqidah (93): “The Qadariyyah: And they are those who claim that the capability belongs to them, and the will and the power, and that they own the (capability of bringing about) good and evil for themselves, the harm and benefit, the obedience and disobedience, the guidance and misguidance and that the slaves make deeds which begin with themselves without this having gone forth for them in the Knowledge of Allāh. And their saying is similar to the saying of the Majūs (Magians) and Christianity. And this is the foundation of zandaqah (disbelief, heresy).”

عذاب القبر ثم الإيمان بعذاب القبر، وبمكر ونكير؛

257. After that the belief in the punishment in the grave, and (the angels) Munkar and Nakīr.<sup>244</sup>

قال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- فيما روى عنه البراء: استعينوا بالله من عذاب القبر

258. And [the Propet] (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said in what was narrated from Al-Barā (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “Seek refuge with Allāh from the punishment in the grave.”<sup>245</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : يقعد الميت في قبره.

259. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The dead will be sat up in his grave.”<sup>246</sup>

<sup>244</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) in which he said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When the dead is buried.” Or he said: “When one of you is buried, two angels that are black and blue will come to him. One of them is called Al-Munkar and the other An-Nakīr.” Until the end of the hadīth. Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (1071) and he said: “Hadīth hasan gharīb.” And Ibn Hibbān (3117) declared it as sahīh.

And in “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (1/135) Ahmad ibn Al-Qāsim said: I said to Abū ‘Abdillāh Ahmad ibn Hanbal: “Do you acknowledge (or believe in) Munkar and Nakīr and what was narrated regarding the punishment in the grave?” So he said: “Yes, subhānAllāh! We acknowledge all of this and we believe in it.” I said: “These words: Munkar and Nakīr, do you say like this? Or do you say: two angels?” He said: “We say: Munkar and Nakīr. And they are two angels. And the punishment of the grave (is real).”

وقال-صلى الله عليه وسلم- : لو نجا أحد من ضمة القبر ؛ لنجا منها سعد بن معاذ.

260. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “If anyone would have been saved from the embrace of the grave – or he said: the squeeze of the grave – then Sa’d ibn Mu’ādh would have been saved.”<sup>247</sup>

261. And Allāh said:

﴿ فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا ﴾

“Then he will verily have a life of hardship.” (Tā-Hā 20:124)

قال أصحاب التفسير: عذاب القبر.

The people of tafsīr said: “(This is) the punishment in the grave.”<sup>248</sup>

262. Then after that:

<sup>248</sup> This saying was narrated from a group of the Salaf. I mentioned them in my commentary upon “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Muḥtadī’ah” (206).

And Al-Bazzār narrated, just as it says in “Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr” (5/324) from Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said:

﴿ فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا ﴾

“Then he will verily have a life of hardship.” (Tā-Hā 20:124)

He said: “The punishment in the grave.” Ibn Kathīr said: “Its isnād is good.”

The belief in the cry for the resurrection by the voice of Isrāfil for the rising from the graves.<sup>249</sup>

So for the heart to believe that you will die, be squeezed in the grave, questioned in the grave and resurrected after death is a binding obligation. Whoever rejects this has disbelieved in it.

قال النبي - صلى الله عليه وسلم - : إنكم تُخشرون من قبوركم حفاة عراة غرلا .

263. The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “You will verily be resurrected from your graves barefooted, naked and uncircumcised.”<sup>250</sup>

وقال الله - تبارك وتعالى - :

264. And Allāh - tabāraka wa ta’ālā - said:

﴿يَوْمَ يَخْرُجُونَ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ سِرَّاءًا﴾

“The Day when they will come out of the graves quickly.”
(Al-Ma’ārij 70:43)

فمن كذّب بآية، أو بحرف من القرآن، أو رد شيئا مما جاء به رسول الله - صلى الله عليه وسلم -، فهو كافر.

So whoever rejects a verse or a single letter from the Qurān, or he repels something that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) came with, then he is a kāfir.

---

<sup>249</sup> Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqīdah which he met the people of knowledge upon in ‘Irāq, Shām, Hijāz and other countries (41): “And the Trumpet is true. Isrāfil will blow in it and the creation will die. Then he will blow in it (again) and they will stand up in front of the Lord of all the worlds for the account and the judging.”

ثم الإيمان بالبعث والصراط، وشعار المؤمنين يومئذ: "سلم سلم"،

264. After than the belief in the Resurrection and the Sirāt (path over Hellfire). And the slogan of the believers that Day will be: "[Our Lord] grant safety, grant safety."<sup>251</sup>

والصراط جاء في الحديث: أنه أحد من السيف وأدق من الشعرة.

265. And regarding the Sirāt the hadīth stated that it is: "Sharper than a sword and thinner than a hair."<sup>252</sup>

ثم الإيمان بالموازين، كما قال الله -تبارك وتعالى-:

266. After that, the belief in the mawāzīn (scales), just as Allāh – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – said:

﴿ وَنَضَعُ الْمَوَازِينَ الْقِسْطَ لِيَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ ﴾

“And We will set up the scales of justice on the Day of Resurrection” (Al-Anbiyā 21:47)

<sup>251</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Al-Mughīrah ibn Shu’bah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) in which he said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: "The slogan of the Muslims upon the Sirāt will be: Sallim sallim (grant safety, grant safety)." Narrated by At-Tabarānī in "Al-Kabīr" (20/425) and Al-Hākīm (2/375) who declared it as sahīh, and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

<sup>252</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā), from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) who said: "...And Jahannam has a bridge which is thinner than a hair and sharper than a sword. And it has hooks and thorns that take whoever Allāh wants..." Narrated by Ahmad (24793).

267. And ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “The people will be brought [on the Day of Resurrection] to the scale. Then they will dispute at it with the most severe disputing.”<sup>253</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: الميزان بيد الرحمن، يخفضه ويرفعه.

268. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The mīzān (scale) is in the Hand of Ar-Rahmān. He lowers it and raises it.”<sup>254</sup>

فمن شك في ذلك أو كذب فقد أعظم الإلحاد. وقد اتفق أهل العلم بالأخبار، والعلماء والزهاد في جميع الأمصار، أن الإيمان بذلك واجب لازم.

So whoever doubts regarding this or rejects it, then he has committed major disbelief.

And the people of knowledge about the evidences, the scholars, the ascetics and the worshippers from all of the countries, all agreed that believing in this is a necessary obligation.<sup>255</sup>

<sup>254</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (17630), Ibn Mājah (199) and ‘Abdullāh in “As-Sunnah” (1202) from the hadīth of An-Nuwās ibn Sam’ān (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).

Ibn Mandah said in “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Jahmiyyah” (69): “The hadīth of An-Nuwās ibn Sam’ān (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) is an established hadīth. It was narrated by the famous leaders whom it is not possible to discredit anyone of.”

<sup>255</sup> Imām Ahmad said in his ‘aqīdah which was narrated by ‘Abdūs: “And from the Sunnah... And the belief in the mīzān (scale) on the Day of Resurrection just as this has been narrated. The slave is weighed on the Day of Resurrection and he will not weigh (even the weight of) the wing of a fly. And the deeds of the slaves are weighed just as it has been narrated. And believing in this and confirming it. And turning away from those who reject this, and leaving the dispute with him.” Narrated by Al-Lālakāī (317).

269. Then the belief in the hawd (basin) and the shafā'ah (intercession).<sup>256</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: إن لي حوضا ما بين أيلة وعدن -يريد أن قدره ما بين أيلة وعدن- أباريقه بعدد نجوم السماء.

270. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "I verily have a basin which is what is between Aylah and 'Adan." He means that its size is the distance between Aylah (in Shām) and 'Adan (in Yaman). "The number of its vessels are the same as the stars in the sky."<sup>257</sup>

وقال أنس بن مالك: من كذب بالحوض فقد كذب بالحق.

271. And Anas ibn Mālik (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Whoever rejects the basin, then he has verily rejected the truth."<sup>258</sup>

---

<sup>256</sup> Sufyān Ath-Thawrī said: "As for the Mu'tazilah then they reject... the basin and the intercession. And they do not believe in the prayer behind anyone from the people of the qiblah, except those who believe in their desires." "As-Sunnah" by Ibn Shāhīn (36).

<sup>258</sup> Hannad narrated in "Az-Zuhd" (189) from Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "Whoever rejects the intercession, then he will have no share in it. And whoever rejects the basin, the he will have no share in it." And its isnād is sahīh.

وجاء في الحديث: من كذب بالحوض لم يشرب منه.

272. And it was narrated in the hadīth: “Whoever rejects the basin he will not drink from it.”<sup>259</sup>

ثم الإيمان بالمساءلة، أن الله - عز وجل - يسأل العباد عن كل قليل وكثير في الموقف، وعن كل ما اجتمروا.

273. Then the belief in the questioning [and] that Allāh - ‘azza wa jalla - will ask the slave about every small and big thing in the place of standing. And about all their crimes (or sins).

﴿لَيْسَ أَلِصَّادِقِينَ عَنْ صِدْقِهِمْ﴾

“In order for the truthful to be asked about their truthfulness.”
(Al-Ahzāb 33:8)

وقال الله - عز وجل -:

And Allāh - ‘azza wa jalla - said:

<sup>259</sup> Perhaps he is referring to the hadīth of Anas (radi Allāhu ‘anhu) in which he said: The Prophet (sall Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever rejects the punishment in the grave, then Allāh will punish him. And whoever rejects the basin, then Allāh will not let him drink from it. And whoever rejects my intercession, then Allāh will not let him benefit from it.” Narrated in “Fawāid Al-Harbī” (61) and “Amālī Ash-Shajrī” (2/302). In its isnād are Al-Hakam ibn Sinān and Yazīd Ar-Raqqāshī and they are both weak.

And it was narrated by Ahmad (19763) and Ibn Abī ‘Āsim in “As-Sunnah” (720) from ‘Abdullāh ibn Buraydah Al-Aslamī who said: ‘Ubaydullāh ibn Ziyād doubted regarding the basin, so he sent for Abū Burdah Al-Aslamī and he came to him. Then those sitting with ‘Ubaydullāh said to him: “The amīr has verily sent for you in order to ask you about the basin. Did you hear anything regarding it from the Messenger of Allāh (sall Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam)?” He said: “Yes. I heard the Messenger of Allāh (sall Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) mention it, so whoever rejects it then Allāh will not let him drink from it.” And its isnād is sahih.

﴿ فَوَرَبِّكَ لَنَسْأَلَنَّهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ۚ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴾

“So by your Lord, We will verily ask them all about what they used to do.” (Al-Hijr 15:92-93)

ويأخذ للمظلومين من الظالمين، حتى الجماء من القرناء، وللضعيف من القوي .

And He will take for the wronged ones from those who wronged (them), even for the (animal) with no horns from the one with horns, and for the weak from the strong.<sup>260</sup>

ثم الإيمان بأن الله -عز وجل- خلق الجنة والنار قبل خلق الخلق، ونعيم الجنة لا يزول، دائم أبدا في النضرة والنعيم، والأزواج من الحور العين، لا يمتن ولا ينقصن ولا يهرمن، ولا ينقطع ثمارها ونعيمها، كما قال الله -عز وجل-:

284. Then the belief in, that Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – created Paradise and Hellfire before He created the creation.<sup>261</sup> And the delight in Paradise does not end and remains forever in brightness and delight (or enjoyment).

<sup>260</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The rights will verily be given to its rightful owners on the Day of Resurrection. There will be avenged for the sheep with no horns from the sheep with horns that butted it (with its horns).”

Narrated by Ahmad (7204) and At-Tirmidhī (2420) who said: “Hasan sahīh.” Ibn Abī Az-Zamanīn said in “Usul As-Sunnah” (p. 117): “And from the saying of Ahlus-Sunnah is: Verily Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – will hold His slaves to account on the Day of Resurrection and ask Him orally from Himself to them.” And he mentioned the chain of narration for the hadīth of ‘Adī ibn Hātim (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) in which the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “There is none of you, except that Allāh will speak with him without there is a translator between Him and him.” And this hadīth is agreed upon.

<sup>261</sup> Imām Ahmad said: “Whoever says: They have not been created (i.e. Paradise and Hellfire), he is a kāfir.” And he said: “So whoever claim that they have not been created, then he is rejecting the Qurān and the ahādīth of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).” See: “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Mubtadi’ah” (Chapter: The creation of Paradise and Hellfire) and the commentary upon it.

And the wives from the Hūr Al-Īn (the maidens of Paradise). They do not die, they have no flaws and they do not grow old. Its (i.e. Paradise) fruits and delights are not cut off, just as He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ أَكُلُهَا دَائِمٌ وَظِلُّهَا ﴾

“Its food is eternal and (also) its shade.” (Ar-Ra’d 13:35)

وأما عذاب النار فدائم أبدا بدوام الله، وأهلها فيها خالدون مخلدون، من خرج من الدنيا غير معتقد للتوحيد ولا متمسك بالسنة .

فأما الموحدون فإنهم يخرجون منها بالشفاعة،

As for the punishment in Hellfire: Then it is remaining by Allāh letting it remain. And its people will remain therein forever; those who left dunyā while not believing in Tawhīd and not adhering to the Sunnah.

As for the Muwahhidūn, then they will exit it by the intercession.<sup>262</sup>

<sup>262</sup> Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqīdah upon which he met the people of knowledge (47-48): “And verily has Paradise and whatever is in it already been created, and Hellfire and whatever is in it has already been created. Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – created them and then He created the creation for them. They will not cease to exist, nor will anything which is in them cease to exist. Then if an innovator or a zindīq uses the Words of Allāh as argument:

﴿ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ هَالِكٌ إِلَّا وَجْهَهُ ﴾

“Everything will be destroyed except His Face.” (Al-Qasas 28:88)

And similar to this. Then say to him: Everything for which Allāh has written an end and destruction will be destroyed. But the Paradise and Hellfire were created for staying (forever) and not for ending nor for being destroyed, and they are from the ākhirah and not from dunyā. And the Hūr Al-Īn (maidens of Paradise) do not die at the time of the establishment of the Hour, nor at the time of the blowing (in the Trumpet) nor ever. Because Allāh – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – created them for staying (forever) and not for ending, nor did He write for them that they should die. So whoever says something else than this: He is a muḥtādī’ (innovator) and mukhālīf (opposer), and he has verily deviated from the correct path.”

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: شفاعتي لأهل الكبائر من أمي.

275. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “My intercession is for the people from my Ummah who committed major sins.”<sup>263</sup>

ثم الإيمان بالملائكة، وأن جبريل أمين الله إلى الرسل، والإيمان بالملائكة واجب مفترض .

276. Then the belief in the angels, and that Jibrīl is the entrusted by Allāh with the messengers.

And the belief in the angels is a given obligation.

وكذلك وجوب الإيمان والتصديق بجميع ما جاءت به الرسل من عند الله، وبجميع ما قال الله -عز وجل-، وهو حق لازم، فلو أن رجلا آمن بجميع ما جاءت به الرسل إلا شيئا واحدا، كان برد ذلك الشيء كافرا عند جميع العلماء .

277. Likewise is the obligation of believing in and affirming everything which the messengers came with from Allāh, and in everything what Allāh - ‘azza wa jalla - said, for it is an obligated truth.

So if a man believes in everything what the messengers came with [from Allāh, and in everything which Jibrīl (‘alayhis-salām) came with from Allāh] except one thing, then by rejecting this (one) thing he is a kāfir for all of the scholars.

<sup>263</sup> Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (4739) and At-Tirmidhī (2437). And it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah, Al-Hākim, As-Sābūnī and Ibn Kathīr.

-عز وجل- بذكره وأخباره أكثر من أن تحصى، فمن أنكر أمر الجن، وكون إبليس والشياطين والمردة وإغوائهم بني آدم -فهو كافر بالله، جاحد بآياته، مكذب بكتابه .

278. Then the belief in, that Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – created the Jinn, and that they are a creation from the creations of Allāh. He created them how He wanted and when He wanted. And among them are believers and disbelievers. This is stated in the Book and the messengers came with this.

And He created Iblīs, and he is the leaders of the army of shayātīn. He misguides the sons of Ādam and whispers in their chests. He afflicts them, beautifies the horrible for them and invites them to opposing their Lord ‘azza wa jalla. He is their enemy. He runs in them like the running of blood.<sup>264</sup> His plot does not harm those who adhere to Allāh.

And the verses in the Book of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – that mentions him and his story are more than can be counted.

So whoever rejects the affair of the Jinn, and the existence of Iblīs and the rebellious shayātīn and their deception of the son of Ādam, then he is a kāfir who rejects His verses and belies His Book.<sup>265</sup>

ثم الإيمان والقبول والتصديق بكل ما روته العلماء، ونقله الثقات وأهل الآثار عن رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم-، ويلقاها بالقبول، ولا ترد بالمعاريض، ولا يقال: لم وكيف، ولا تحمل على المعقول، ولا تضرب لها المقاييس، ولا يعمل لها التفاسير إلا ما فسره رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم-، أو رجل من علماء الأمة، ممن قوله شفاء وحجة: مثل أحاديث الصفات والرؤية، ومثل ما روي:

279. Then the belief in, acceptance and affirmation of everything which the scholars narrated, and the trustworthy from the people

<sup>264</sup> He is referring to the words of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam):

“Verily the Shaytān runs in the human, like the running of blood.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (3281).

Quote from “Ar-Risālah Al-Wādiyah” by Ibn Al-Hanbalī (2/488).

of narration conveyed from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and receiving it with acceptance.

It is not refuted by opposing arguments, and one does not say: “Why?” and “How?”<sup>266</sup>

And it is not interpreted in accordance with what is understood<sup>267</sup>, nor are analogies (or examples) put forth in it.

And interpretations are not made for it, except how the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) interpreted, or a man from the scholars of the Ummah, among those whose words are a cure and an argument.

Such as: The ahādīth about the Attributes and the ruyah (seeing Allāh).<sup>268</sup>

And such as what was narrated:

أن الله - عز وجل - يضع السموات على إصبع، والأرضين على إصبع،

280. “That Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – will put the heavens upon a Finger, and the earths upon a Finger.”<sup>269</sup>

---

<sup>266</sup> Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (14): “And no-one says regarding the Attributes of the Lord: How? And why? Except one who doubts in Allāh.”

And he also said (95): “And know, that the destruction of the Jahmiyyah came from them thinking about the Lord ‘azza wa jalla. So they introduced: Why? And How? And they left the narration and established the qiyās (analogy). And they measured the religion according to their opinion, so they came with the clear kufr, and it was not hidden that it was kufr. And they described the creation as being upon kufr, and they forced the issue upon them until they (also) believed in ta’tīl (invalidation of the Attributes).”

<sup>267</sup> Translator: This means, that if a person cannot understand or accept the apparent meaning of an Attribute of Allāh, then this does not allow him to interpret it to something which is acceptable and understandable to him.

281. "That Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – will put His Foot upon Hellfire, so it will say: ‘Enough, enough.’"<sup>270</sup>

وقلوب العباد بين إصبعين من أصابع الرحمن.

282. And "The hearts of the slaves are between two Fingers from the Fingers of Ar-Rahmān."<sup>271</sup>

وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ -عز وجل- عَلَى الْعَرْشِ، وَلِلْعَرْشِ أَطْيَبُ كَأَطْيَبِ الرَّحْلِ الْجَدِيدِ .

283. And "That Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – is upon the Throne. And the Throne has a creaking like the creaking of a new saddle."<sup>272</sup>

وأن الله -عز وجل- أخذ الذرية من ظهر آدم بيده اليمنى، وكلتا يديه يمين مباركة، فقال: هذه لهذه ولا أبالي .

284. And “That Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – took the offspring from the back of Ādam with His right Hand, and both of His Hands are right and blessed. Then He said: ‘This for that, and I do not care.’”<sup>273</sup>

ولا يقبح الوجه فإن الله خلق آدم على صورته .

285. And “Do not make the face ugly, for verily Allāh created Ādam in His Image.”<sup>274</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: رأيت ربي في صورة كذا.

286. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I saw my Lord in the Image of...” such and such.<sup>275</sup>

---

<sup>273</sup> This hadīth is narrated with many wordings. Among these are: The hadīth of Abū ‘Abdillāh – a man from the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) – that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Verily, Allāh took a handful with His right Hand, and another (handful) with the other Hand. Then He said: ‘This for that (i.e. Paradise) and this for that (i.e. Hellfire). And I do not care.’” Narrated by Ahmad (17593).

And the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) that he said: “Verily, those who are just will be with Allāh upon pulpits of light to the right of Ar-Rahmān ‘azza wa jalla. And both of His Hands are right.” Narrated by Muslim (4748).

<sup>274</sup> Narrated by ‘Abdullāh in “As-Sunnah” (482) with my tahqīq. And it was declared as sahīh by Ahmad and Ishāq.

قد روى هذه الأحاديث الثقات من الصحابة، والسادات من العلماء من بعدهم، مثل: ابن عمر، وعائشة، وأبي هريرة، وابن عباس، وجريير بن عبد الله، وأنس بن مالك، وغيرهم .

The trustworthy from the Sahābah and the leaders from the scholars after them verily narrated these ahādīth. Such as: Ibn ‘Umar, ‘Āishah, Abū Hurayrah, Ibn ‘Abbās, Jarīr ibn ‘Abdillāh, Anas ibn Mālik (radiAllāhu ‘anhum) and others.

وأن الله -تبارك وتعالى- ينزل كل ليلة إلى سماء الدنيا .

287. And “Verily, Allāh – tabāraka wa ta’ālā – descends every night to the lowest heaven.”<sup>276</sup>

لا يقال لهذا كله: كيف ولا لم، بل تسليمها للقدرة وإيمان بالغيب، كلما عجزت العقول عن معرفته، فالعلم به وعين الهداية فيه، الإيمان به والتسليم له، وتصديق رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- فيما قاله هو أصل العلم وعين الهداية، لا تضرب لهذه الأحاديث وما شاكلها المقاييس، ولا تعارض بالأمثال والنظائر .

To all of this it is not said: How? And why? Rather, submission to the Capability (or Power) (of Allāh) and belief in the unseen. Every time the intellects fail in understanding it, then the (required) knowledge in it and the pure guidance in it is: believing in it, submitting to it and affirming the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) in what he said. This is the foundation of knowledge and the pure guidance. No analogies are put forth in these ahādīth and what is similar to it, nor are they opposed with examples and theories.<sup>277</sup>

ثم الإيمان بأن عيسى ابن مريم -عليه السلام- ينزل من السماء إلى الأرض، فيكسر الصليب، ويقتل الخنزير، وتكون الدعوة واحدة .

288. Then the belief in, that 'Īsā ibn Maryam ('alayhi as-salām) will descend from the heaven to the earth. And he will destroy the cross and kill the pig, and the da'wah will be one.<sup>278</sup>

والدجال خارج في آخر هذه الأمة لا محالة، إحدى عينيه كأنها عنبه طافية، يطاء الأرض كلها إلا مكة والمدينة، ويقتله عيسى ابن مريم -عليه السلام- بباب "ألد" الشرقي، بأرض فلسطين، على قدر مسيرة ميل من الرملة .

289. And the Dajjāl will inevitably emerge in the last part of this Ummah. One of his eyes is like a bulging grape. And he will set foot on (all of) earth, except Makkah and Al-Madīnah.<sup>279</sup>

And 'Īsā ibn Maryam ('alayhi as-salām) will kill him at the door of Ludd in the east in the land of Falastīn, a miles distance from Ar-Ramlah.<sup>280</sup>

<sup>278</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhū) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The Hour will not be established until Ibn Maryam will descend among you as a just ruler (or judge). And he will destroy the cross and kill the pig..." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (2476) and Muslim (308).

<sup>279</sup> The ahādīth about are correct and mutawātir in the two "Sahīh" and other places. And some of the people of innovation verily rejected them.

<sup>280</sup> Based upon the hadīth of An-Nuwās ibn Sam'ān (radiAllāhu 'anhū) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said while mentioning 'Īsā ('alayhi as-salām) and the Dajjāl: "Then he will descend at the white minaret in the east of Dimashq, wearing two garments dyed with saffron, while placing his two palms on the wings of two angels. When he lowers his heads drops fall from it, and when he raises it pearls like jewels fall from it. And no kāfir will smell his fragrance, except that he dies. And his breath would reach as far as his eyes can see. Then he will search for him until he finds him at the door of Ludd, and then kill him..." Narrated by Muslim (7483).

290. Then the belief in Malak Al-Mawt (the Angel of Death) [('alayhis-salām) and] that he takes the souls. Then they are returned to the bodies in the graves.

والإيمان بالنفخ في الصور، والصور قرن ينفخ فيه إسرافيل .

291. And the belief in the blowing in the Trumpet. And the Trumpet is a horn that Isrāfil ('alayhis-salām) blows in.<sup>281</sup>

---

<sup>281</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of 'Abdullāh ibn 'Amr (radiAllāhu 'anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) who said: "The Trumpet is a horn which is blown in." Narrated by Ahmad (6507) and At-Tirmidhī (3244) who said: "Hadīth hasan."

292. And Allāh [– ‘azza wa jalla –] spoke to Mūsā directly<sup>282</sup>, and He took Ibrāhīm as a close friend.<sup>283</sup>

<sup>282</sup> Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (73): “And the belief in that Allāh is the One who spoke to Mūsā ibn ‘Imrān of the day of At-Tūr. And Mūsā heard the Words of Allāh with a sound that occurred to his hearing from Him, and not from someone else. So whoever says something else than this, then he has disbelieved in Allāh the Almighty.” And Al-Ājurrī said in “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (3/1109): “So whoever claims that Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – did not speak to Mūsā has rejected the text of the Qurān, and committed kufr to Allāh the All-Mighty. Then if one of them should say: ‘Verily Allāh created some speech in the tree and by that He spoke to Mūsā.’ Then it is said to him: ‘This is kufr’, because he is claiming that the speech is created – far Exalted is Allāh above this – and he is claiming that a created thing is proclaiming the rubūbiyyah (lordship). And this is from the ugliest and filthiest of sayings. And it is also said to him: ‘O you disbeliever, is it allowed for anyone but Allāh to say: (Verily I am Allāh)?’ We seek refuge with Allāh from (believing that) the one who says this is a Muslim. This person is a kāfir. He is asked to repent. Then either he repents and returns from his evil madhhab or else the leader kills him. But if the leader does not kill him nor asks him to repent and it is known from him that this is his madhhab, he is left, he is not spoken to nor greeted, one does not pray behind him, he does not accept his testimony and the Muslim does not marry his daughter to him.”

<sup>283</sup> Al-Bukhārī narrated in “Khalq Af’āl Al-‘Ibād” (3) and Ibn Battah in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (2438) and others, from Habīb ibn Abī Habīb who said: Khālid ibn ‘Abdillāh Al-Qasrī held a sermon in Wāsīt on the day of slaughtering. He said: “O people, return (now) and slaughter (your sacrifices), may Allāh accept it from you. For verily I will slaughter Al-Ja’d ibn Dirham. For verily he claims that Allāh did not take Ibrāhīm as a close friend and that He did not speak to Mūsā directly. Glorified and Exalted is Allāh above what Al-Ja’d ibn Dirham says.” Then he descended and slaughtered him.

وعيسى ابن مريم روح وكلمته، قد أحيا الموتى، وأبرأ الأكمه والأبرص، وخلق من الطين طائرا، كل ذلك بقدره الله - عز وجل - ومشيتته وإرادته .

293. And 'Īsā ibn Maryam is the Spirit of Allāh and His Word.<sup>284</sup> He verily revived the dead, healed the blind and the leper and he created a bird from clay. All of this by the Power of Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – His Will and His Desire.

294. And the belief in, that Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – created Ādam with His Hand, and planted Jannah Al-Firdaws with His Hand.<sup>285</sup>

---

<sup>284</sup> Imām Ahmad said in "Ar-Radd 'alā Az-Zanādiqah wal-Jahmiyyah" (point 32): "Both the Christians and the Jahmiyyah lied against Allāh with regards to 'Īsā. And that is that the Jahmiyyah said: "'Īsā is the rūh (spirit) of Allāh and His Word. Because the Word is created.' And the Christians said: "'Īsā is the rūh of Allāh from the Dhāt (Being) of Allāh and (he is) His Word from the Dhāt of Allāh, just as it is said that this piece of cloth is a part of this garment.' And We say: Verily 'Īsā existed by the Word, and 'Īsā (himself) is not the Word. And as for His words:

﴿ وَرُوحٌ مِنْهُ ﴾

"And a rūh (spirit) from Him." (An-Nisā 4:171)

He says: From His Command the spirit appeared in him. Just as His words:

﴿ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي السَّمَاوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مِنْهُ ﴾

"And He subjected for you everything in the heavens and everything on the earth from Him." (Al-Jāthiyah 45:13)

He says: 'From His Command'. And as for the tafsīr of 'The Spirit of Allāh', then it means that it is a spirit created by Allāh (and existing) by the Word of Allāh. Just like it is said 'The slave of Allāh' and 'The earth of Allāh'."

وما روي: ابن آدم، اذكرني في نفسك، أذكرك في نفسي، واذكرني في ملاء، أذكرك في ملاء، خير من الملاء الذي تذكر فيه .

295. And what was narrated: “Son of Ādam. Remember Me in yourself, then I will remember you in My Nafs (Self). And mention Me in a gathering, then I will mention you in a gathering which is better than the gathering which you mention Me in.”<sup>286</sup>

وما روي: من تقرب إلي شبرا، تقربت إليه ذراعا، ومن تقرب إلي ذراعا، تقربت إليه باعا، ومن جاءني يمشي أتيته هرولة.

296. And what was narrated: “Whoever seeks nearness to Me with a handspan, then I seek nearness to him with an arm’s length. And whoever seeks nearness to Me with an arm’s length, then I seek nearness to him with (the length of) outstretched arms. And whoever comes to Me walking, I come to him running.”<sup>287</sup>

وعجب ربك من شاب ليس له صبوة.

297. And “Your Lord is astonished (or surprised) by a young man who has no inclination towards desires.”<sup>288</sup>

---

<sup>286</sup> Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (7405) and Muslim (6928) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhū). And its wording is: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I am as my slave thinks of Me, and I am with him when he mentions Me. If he mentions Me in himself, then I mention him in My Nafs (Self). And if he mentions Me in a gathering, then I mention him in a gathering better than it. And if he seeks nearness to Me with (the length of) a handspan, then I seek nearness to him with an arm’s length. And if he seeks nearness to Me with an arm’s length, then I seek nearness to him with (the length of) outstretched arms. And if he comes to Me walking, I come to him running.”

وقوله : ضحك ربنا من قنوط عباده وقرب غيره.

وقوله: لن نعدم من رب يضحك خيرا.

298. And his (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) words: “Our Lord laughs at the despair of His slaves although He soon changes it.”

And his saying: “We will not be deprived of good by a Lord who laughs.”<sup>289</sup>

<sup>289</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (16187) and Ibn Mājah (181) from the hadīth of Abū Razīn (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Our Lord – ‘azza wa jalla – laughs at the despair of His slaves, although He will soon change it.” He said: I said: “O Messenger of Allāh, and does the Lord – ‘azza wa jalla – laugh?” He said: “Yes.” I said: “We will not be deprived of good by a Lord who laughs.” And the hadīth is sahīh, just as I have clarified in my commentary upon “Kitāb As-Sunnah” by ‘Abdullāh (433). Ibn Battah said in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (2652): I asked Abū ‘Umar Muhammad ibn ‘Abdīl-Wāhid – the scholar of language – about the words of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “Our Lord laughs at the despair of His slaves although He soon changes it.” So he said: “The hadīth is well-known and narrating it is Sunnah. And opposing it by discrediting it is an innovation. And explaining the laughter is a burden and disbelief. And as for his words: ‘Although He soon changes it’, then (this means) the speed of His Mercy upon them and changing what you are experiencing of harm.”

Al-Qādī Abū Ya’lā said in “Ibtāl At-Tawīlāt” (2/374-375): “Know, that Abū Bakr Al-Khallāl said: Bishr ibn Mūsā Al-Asādī narrated to me and said: I asked Ahmad ibn Hanbal about the dahr (time), but he did no answer me with anything.

And the apparent from this is: that Ahmad hesitated (or stopped) in accepting the apparent meaning of this hadīth, and he abstained from using the name “Ad-Dahr” for Allāh the Glorified.

*Hanbal said: I heard Hārūn Al-Hammāl say to Abū ‘Abdillāh: ‘We were with Sufyān ibn ‘Uyaynah in Makkah, when he narrated to us that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not swear at time.” Then Fath ibn Sahl got up and said: ‘O Abū Muhammad, do you say: O Dhar, provide for me?’ Then I heard Sufyān saying: ‘Take him, he is a jahmī.’ And he fled.’*

*So Ahmad said: ‘The people are rejecting the narrations from the Messenger of Allāh, while we believe in them and we do not reject anything what the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said.’*

And the apparent from this is, that he accepted the apparent of the hadīth. And it is possible that his words: ‘We believe in it’, refers to the information about the Attributes in general, and do not refer to this hadīth specifically.

And verily did our shaykh Abū ‘Abdillāh [meaning: Ibn Hāmid] – rahimahullāh – mention this hadīth in his book. And he said: ‘It is not allowed to call Allāh dahr (time).’

And the issue is as he said. Because in some of the wordings of this hadīth some things were narrated that prevents it from being understood according to its apparent meaning.

*And there is nothing in other narrations regarding the Attributes that prove that they should be changed from their apparent meanings, and thus it is obligatory to understanding them according to their apparent meanings. (But as for this hadīth) then it was narrated regarding it: ‘The son of Ādam insults Me when he swear at the time. And I am the time. The affair is in My Hand; I change the night into day.’

So He clarified that the dahr (time) – which is the night and the day – is one of this creations in His Hand, and then He renews it and wears it out. So it is not possible that it is one of His Names... And Abū ‘Ubayd mentioned something similar to what we have said, when he said: ‘No-one from the people of Islām ought to be ignorant about this aspect. And this is that the people of ta’tīl (invalidation) use this as an argument against the Muslims. Some of them used it as an argument and said: ‘Do you not see that he said: Verily Allāh is the time.’ And the interpretation of this (hadīth) is: that the Arabs used to criticize time and swear at it during catastrophes that befell them, such as death, old =

فكل هذه الأحاديث وما شاكلها، تمر كما جاءت لا تعارض، ولا تضرب لها الأمثال، ولا يوضع فيها القول، فقد رواها العلماء، وتلقاها الأكابر منهم بالقبول، وتكروا المسألة عن تفسيرها، ورأوا أن العلم بما ترك الكلام في معانيها .

So all of these ahādīth – and what is similar to it – are accepted just as they were narrated. They are not opposed, examples are not put forth in them and one does not debate regarding it.

Because the scholars verily narrated it and the great ones of them received it with accept. And they abstained from asking about its age and injury. So they would say: ‘The blows of time have befallen them’, or ‘time exterminated them’ or ‘time came upon them’. So they would make it to be that which did all these things, and thus criticize it for it. So the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) told them not to swear the One who does all these things to you, and the One who afflicts you with these catastrophes. For verily, if you swear at the One who is doing this, then the insult is directed at Allāh – azza wa jalla – since He is the One who is doing this, and not time.’”

<sup>291</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Al-‘Abbās ibn ‘Abdīl-Muttalib (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). And in it is that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do you know how far is between the heaven and the earth?” He said: We said: “Allāh and His Messenger know best.” He said: “Between them is the distance of five hundred years. And between every heaven and the next heaven is a distance of five hundred years. And the thickness of every heaven is the distance of five hundred years. And above the seventh heaven is an ocean; between the lowest of it and the highest of it is the same as between the heaven and the earth...” Until the end of the hadīth. Narrated by Ahmad (1770), Abū Dāwūd (4723), At-Tirmidhī (3320), Ibn Abī ‘Āsim in “As-Sunnah” (589) and Ibn Khuzaymah (144). Al-Jawzaqānī said in “Al-Abātīl” (82): “Hadīth saḥīh.”

<sup>292</sup> Ibn Battah said in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (2613): "And we believe in the ahādīth regarding this, we acknowledge them and we accept them just as they were narrated, without (asking or describing) how, and without any meaning, except according to what He – the Exalted – described Himself with."

What the author means with forbidding speaking about the meanings of the texts of the Attributes is: (speaking about) these newly invented meanings and explanations which were made up by the people of ta'til and tahrif from the Jahmiyyah, Ashā'irah and others.

He does not mean that the texts of the Attributes does not have any meaning which they are explained by, just as the people of tafwid and ignorance claim. So his words here are general and are explained according to what has gone forth from his words regarding the texts of the Attributes. And that are his words (279): "And interpretations are not made for it, except how the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) interpreted, or a man from the scholars of the Ummah, among those whose words are a cure and an argument."

<sup>293</sup> Ibn Battah said in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (30)/Chapter: The clarification of the kufr of a group from the Jahmiyyah who claimed that the Qurān is not in the hearts of men).

And he mentioned what Al-Bukhārī (5032) mentioned from the hadīth of Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "...So be mindful of the Qurān. So be mindful of the Qurān, for it verily escapes more from the hearts of men than camels (running away)."

<sup>294</sup> Ibn Al-Hanbalī mentioned in "Ar-Risālah Al-Wādhah" a hadīth ascribed to the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) who said: "And whoever memorized the Qurān he is called: A carrier of the Book of Allāh."

And I did not find anyone who narrated it. Allāh knows best.

And it was narrated with a sahīh isnād from the words of Abū Umāmah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) by Ibn Abī Shaybah (30702), Ahmad in “Az-Zuhd” (p. 87) and Ad-Dārimī (3362, 3363).

<sup>297</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Malak Al-Mawt came to Mūsā and said to him: ‘Answer your Lord.’” He said: “So Mūsā struck the eye of Malak Al-Mawt and knocked it out.” Until the end of the hadīth. <sup>303</sup> Al-Khallāl narrated in “As-Sunnah” (212) from Hanbal ibn Ishāq who said: I said to Abū ‘Abdillāh Ahmad ibn Hanbal: “The one who claims that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was upon the religion of his people before he was sent?” So he said: “This is an evil statement. There should be warned against the words of the one who says this, and he should not be sat with.” I said to him: “Verily, our neighbor An-Nāqid Abū Al-‘Abbās he says these words?” He said: “May Allāh kill him. And what did he leave (without saying something evil about it) if he claims that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was upon the religion of his people while they were worshipping the statues? Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said when He gave ‘Īsā the glad tidings of him:

And Al-Ājurri said in “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (84/ Chapter: The mention of his sending): “*Know – may Allāh show us and you mercy – that our Prophet Muhammad was always a prophet (even) before Ādam was created. And in the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “One of my miracles (or nobilities) from Allāh is that I was born circumcised and with a cut umbilical cord, and no one has seen my private parts.” Narrated by At-Tabarānī in “Al-Awsat” (6148) and Ibn Al-Jawzī in “Al-‘Ilal Al-Mutanāhiyah” (264) and he declared it as weak. And regarding this issue there are so many ahādīth, that Al-Hākim said in “Al-Mustadrak” (2/602): “And the narrations stating that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was born circumcised and with a cut umbilical cord are mutawātir.” And Adh-Dhahabī followed him up and said: “I don’t know how correct this is. How is it mutawātir?”

Ibn Kathīr said in “Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah” (2/265): “And verily did some of them claim the correctness of what was narrated regarding it from several ways. Until some of them claimed that it is mutawātir. And one can look into all of this.”

Al-Khallāl said in “As-Sunnah” (201): Abū Bakr Al-Marrūdhī informed us and said: Abū ‘Abdillāh Ahmad ibn Hanbal was asked: “Was the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) born circumcised?” He said: “Allāh knows best. I do not know.”

And in “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallāl (217) Al-Athram said: I said to Abū ‘Abdillāh [Ahmad ibn Hanbal]: “The words of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): ‘I verily see you from behind my back.’” He said: “He used to see from his back, just as he would see from his front.” So I said to him: “A person verily said to me: ‘In this, he is just like any other man. He verily used to see them just as the imam can see those to his right and left.’” So he rejected this with a severe rejection.

And the narration of Mujāhid was declared sahīh by the people of knowledge and establishment (of narrations) from both the early generations and the latecomers, and they received it with accept. Adh-Dhahabī said in “Al-‘Arsh” (2/214): “This hadīth is firmly established from Mujāhid.” And he said: “And some of the ascribed it to the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) from the hadīth of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu), but this isnād is not established. But as for (the narration) from Mujāhid, then there is no doubt about its establishment.”

I said: Following up upon the words of the people of knowledge who declared the narration of Mujāhid as correct, accepted it and used it as an evidence, and the criticism of the one who rejected would be very long. But I verily gathered the sayings of those whom I found among those who declared this narration as sahīh and believed in it, from the people of knowledge of the early and later generations. And I singled this out in another work. And their number exceeded hundred. Among them are: Al-Jurayjī (d. 144h), Al-Qāsim ibn Sallām (d. 224h), Bishr Al-Hāfī (d.224), Abū Bakr ‘Abdullāh ibn Muhammad ibn Abī Shaybah (d. 235h), ‘Uthmān ibn Muhammad ibn Abī Shaybah (d. 239), Hārūn ibn Ma‘rūf (d. 231h), Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah (d.238h), Ahmad ibn Hanbal (d.241h), ‘Abdul-Wahhāb Al-Warrāq (d. 251h), Muhammad Ad-Daqīqī (d. 266), Abū Bakr Al-Muqri (d. 267h), Abū Bakr Al-Marrūdhī (d. 275h), Abū Dāwūd As-Sijistānī (d. 275h), Harb Al-Karmānī (d. 280h), Ibrāhīm Al-Harbī (d. 280h), Ibn Abī ‘Āsim (d. 287h), ‘Abdullāh ibn Ahmad ibn Hanbal (d. 290h) and many others.

Translator: The muhaqqiq here brings further evidences and testimonies to the correctness of his belief. So whoever wants more argumentation and more details in this issue can refer back to the Arabic version of this book.

ثم الإيمان والمعرفة بأن خير الخلق وأفضلهم وأعظمهم منزلة عند الله عز وجل - بعد النبيين والمرسلين، وأحقهم بخلافة رسول الله - صلى الله عليه وسلم - أبو بكر الصديق عبد الله بن عثمان، وهو عتيق بن أبي قحافة - رضي الله تعالى عنه -.

315. Then the belief in and knowledge regarding, that the best of the creation and the most virtuous of them and the one with the highest rank with Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - after the prophets and messengers, and the one who is most deserving of being the successor of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) is Abū Bakr As-Siddīq (radiAllāhu 'anhu), 'Abdullāh ibn 'Uthmān, and he is 'Atīq ibn Abī Quhāfah.<sup>311</sup>

And you know that the day the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) died, there was no-one on the face of the earth with the same description as we have just mentioned, other than him rahmatullāhi 'alayhi.

ثم من بعده على هذا الترتيب والصفة أبو حفص عمر بن الخطاب - رضي الله عنه - وهو الفاروق.

Then after him, in this order and description: Abū Hafs 'Umar ibn Al-Khattāb. And he is Al-Fārūq.

<sup>311</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of 'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) that Abū Bakr (radiAllāhu 'anhu) entered upon the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) who then said: "You are the 'Atīq (freed one) of Allāh from Hellfire." So from that day he was called 'Atīq.
Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (3679) and Ibn Hibbān (6864) who declared it as sahih.

ثم من بعدهما على هذا الترتيب والنعته عثمان بن عفان -رضي الله عنه- وهو أبو عبد الله أبو عمر، ذو النورين.

Then after these two, in this order and description: ‘Uthmān ibn ‘Affān (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). And he is Abū ‘Abdillāh, and Abū ‘Amr [and] Dhū An-Nūrayn (the owner of the two lights, meaning: the one who married two daughters of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam)).<sup>312</sup>

Then with this characterization and description after these: Abū Al-Hasan ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). And he is Al-Anza’ (the one with the receding hairline) and Al-Batīn (the one with the big stomach).<sup>313</sup> He is the son-in-law of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and the cousin of the seal of all the prophets. May the peace, mercy and blessings of Allāh be upon all of them.

<sup>312</sup> Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “We used to, in the time of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), not make anyone equal – after the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) – to Abū Bakr, then ‘Umar, then ‘Uthmān. Then we would leave differentiating between them.”

<sup>316</sup> It was narrated by Muslim (3627) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was on the mountain of Hirā. Then it moved. So the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Calm down Hirā. For there are only upon you a messenger, a siddīq or a shahīd.” And upon it was: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), Abū Bakr, ‘Umar, ‘Uthmān, ‘Alī, Talhah, Az-Zubayr and Sa’d ibn Abī Waqqās (radiAllāhu ‘anhum).

<sup>318</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "I was shown Ja'far flying with his two wings in Paradise." Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (3763), Ibn Hibbān (7047) and Al-Hakim (3/209, 212) and he declared it as sahīh, and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

<sup>320</sup> In “Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr” (4/272) Abū Ash-Shaykh narrated from Abū Sakhr Hāmid ibn Ziyād who said: I said to Muhammad ibn Ka’b Al-Quradhī: “Inform me about the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and I verily want (to hear about) the fitan (trials and tribulations).” So he said: “Verily, Allāh has forgiven all of the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and made Paradise obligatory for them in His Book, both those of them who did good and those who made mistakes.” I said to him: “And in which place did Allāh obligate Paradise for them in His Book?” He said: “Have you not read:

﴿وَالسَّابِقُونَ الْأَوَّلُونَ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ وَالْأَنْصَارِ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُمْ بِإِحْسَانٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ﴾

“And the first forerunners (in īmān) among the Muhājirīn and the Ansār and those who followed them in goodness. Allāh is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him, and He has prepared for them gardens beneath which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever. That is the great attainment.”
(At-Tawbah 9:100)

He obligated Paradise and Pleasure for all of the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and He stipulated a condition for the tābi’ūn which He did not stipulate upon them.” I said: “What did He stipulate upon them?” He said: “He stipulated the condition upon them that they must follow them in goodness.”

<sup>321</sup> Imām Ahmad said in “Usūl As-Sunnah” the riwāyah of ‘Abdūs: “Then those who accompanied the Prophet (sallAllāhu alayhi wa sallam) and saw him, and heard from him, and those who saw him with their own eyes and believed in him even for only an hour, are better due to their companionship than the tābi’ūn, even if they performed all the deeds of goodness.”

ثم الترحم على جميع أصحاب رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- صغيرهم وكبيرهم، وأولهم وآخرهم، وذكر محاسنهم، ونشر فضائلهم، والافتداء بهديهم، والافتفاء بآثارهم، وأن الحق فيما قالوه، والصواب فيما فعلوه .

321. Then the tarahhum (asking Allāh for mercy) for all of his companions (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): the young of them and the old of them, and the first of them and the last of them. And mentioning their good traits, spreading (the knowledge about) their merits, following their guidance and following their narrations. And that the truth lies in everything which they said, and the correct lies in what they did.<sup>322</sup>

وقد أجمعت العلماء لا خلاف بينهم أنه:

322. And the scholars have verily agreed without any disagreement among them, that:

<sup>322</sup> ‘Abdullāh ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “O people. Whoever among you follows (anyone), then let him follow those who have already died. For verily, the living is not safe from fitnah. Those are the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). They were the best of this Ummah; those with the most righteous hearts, deepest knowledge, the least burdensome. (They were) a people whom Allāh chose to accompany His Prophet and to establish His religion. So know their merits, follow their narrations and adhere to what you are capable of from their manners and religion. For verily, they were upon the upright guidance.” “Minhaj As-Sunnah” (6/81).

And in “Jāmi’ Bayān Al-‘Im wa Fadlihi” (1423) Al-Awzā’ī narrated from Ibn Al-Musayyib that he was asked about something. So he said: “The companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) disagreed regarding this, and I do not consider myself to have an opinion along with them (i.e. that exceeds what they have said).” Ibn Waddāh said: “This is the truth.” Ibn ‘Abdil-Barr said: “This means that he has no right to come with an opinion in which he disagrees with them.”

And in “Tārikh Dimashq” (35/201) Baqiyyah ibn Al-Walīd said: Al-Awzā’ī said to me: “O Baqiyyah, the knowledge is what came from the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and what did not come from the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), then it is not knowledge.”

And with Al-Lālakāī (317) Imām Ahmad said: “The fundamental principles of Sunnah for us are: Adhering to that which the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) were upon and following them.”

لا يُكْفَر أحد من أهل القبلة بذنوب، ولا نخرجه من الإسلام بمعصية، نرجو للمحسن ونخاف على المسيء. ولا نقول بذلك بقول المعتزلة فإنها تقول: من أتى ذنبا واحد في عمره أو ظلم بحجة في عمره فقد كفر، فمن قال ذلك فقد أعظم الفرية على الله - عز وجل -، وبزأه مما وصف به نفسه من الرأفة والرحمة، والتجاوز والإحسان، والغفران وقبول التوبة. وقد زعم أن الأنبياء من لُدُن آدم كانوا كفارا، قال الله - عز وجل -:

No-one from the people of the qiblah<sup>323</sup> are declared takfir upon due to a sin, and we do not exit him from Islām due to an act of disobedience. We hope for the good-doer and fear for the wrongdoer.

And in this (issue) we do not say the same as the Mu'tazilah. For they verily say: Whoever performs one sin in his lifetime, or he makes (the size of) a seeds injustice in his lifetime, he has committed kufir.

Whoever says this has verily invented a great lie about Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - and freed Him from what He has described Himself with of: mildness, mercy, pardoning, goodness, forgiveness and acceptance of repentance.

And he has verily claimed that the prophets, from Ādam and those besides him, were kuffār.

Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - said:

﴿وَعَصَى آدَمُ رَبَّهُ فَغَوَى﴾

“And Ādam disobeyed his Lord, so he went astray.”

(Tā-Hā 20:121)

<sup>323</sup> Meaning from the people of Tawhīd and prayer. So whoever does not pray, then he is not from the people of the qiblah, just as this has gone forth in number (250).

وقد وصف ذنوب الأنبياء -صلى الله عليهم - في كثير من آيات القرآن، وأخوة يوسف قد ظلموا
 أخاهم وعقوا أباهم، وعصوا مولاهم. وهم على ذلك أختيار أبرار من أهل الجنة، وقد قال الله -عز
 وجل- لنبيه محمد -صلى الله عليه وسلم-:

And He verily described the sins of the prophets (salawātullāhi 'alayhim) many places in the Qurān.

And the brothers of Yūsuf, they verily made injustice to their brother, they were disobedient to their father and they disobeyed their Lord. And with all of this they are good and righteous people, and they are from the people of Paradise.<sup>324</sup>

And Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – verily said to His Prophet Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam):

﴿لِيُغْفِرَ لَكَ اللَّهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِكَ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ﴾

“So Allāh may forgive for you what has gone forth of your sin and what has not come yet.” (Al-Fath 48:2)

وقال الله -عز وجل-:

And Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

---

<sup>324</sup> Imām Ahmad said in his letter regarding the Sunnah which he wrote to Musaddad ibn Musarhad (and it is by way of the author): “As for the accursed Mu'tazilah, then those whom we met from the people of knowledge verily agreed upon that they declare takfīr based upon sins. And whoever among them believes in this, then he has claimed that Ādam was a kāfir, and that the brothers of Yūsuf were kuffār when they lied to their father Ya'qūb. And the Mu'tazilah agreed upon that whoever steals a seed, then he is a kāfir, his wife is separated from him and he should perform Hajj again if he already performed it. And those who believe in this opinion, they are kuffār. They are not married and their testimonies are not accepted.” “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/428) and “Al-Jāmi' fi 'Aqāid Ahlis-Sunnah” (p. 366).

﴿عَفَا اللَّهُ عَنْكَ لِمَ أَذْنَتْ لَهُمْ﴾

“May Allāh forgive you (O Muhammad), why did you allow them?” (At-Tawbah 9:43)<sup>325</sup>

323. And after that:

We refrain from (speaking about) what occurred of disputes between the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). For they verily attended the events with him and they preceded the people in goodness. So Allāh verily forgave them

<sup>325</sup> ‘Abdur-Rahmān ibn Hasan said in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (11/510): “That which they scholars believe in is, that it is possible that a minor sin occurs from them. But they do not continue upon it. And as for the major sins, then these do not occur from them. And everything which the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said – from that which is established from him – then it is the truth. Just as Allāh – the Exalted – said:

﴿وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَىٰ - إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا وَحْيٌ يُوحَىٰ﴾

and commanded you to ask for forgiveness for them and seeking nearness to Him by loving them. And He obligated this upon the tongue of His Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) while He knew what would occur from them [and that] they would fight. And they were verily preferred over all of the people because what they performed by mistake and with intention was removed from them (and) every dispute which occurred among them is forgiven for them.<sup>326</sup>

And one does not look in the books: Siffin, Al-Jamal, Waq‘ah Ad-Dār and the rest of disputes which occurred among them. And do not write it for yourself, nor for someone else. Do not narrate from anyone, do not read it for anyone and do not listen to it from the one narrating it. This is what the leaders of the scholars of the Ummah agreed upon; (they agreed upon) the prohibition of what we have described.

Among them are: Hammād ibn Zayd, Yūnus ibn ‘Ubayd, Sufyān Ath-Thawrī, Sufyān ibn ‘Uyaynah, ‘Abdullāh ibn Idrīs, Malik ibn Anas, Ibn Abī Dhib, Ibn Al-Munkadir, Ibn Al-Mubārak, Shu‘ayb ibn Harb, Abū Ishāq Al-Fazārī, Yūsuf ibn Asbāt, Ahmad ibn Hanbal, Bishr ibn Al-Hārith and ‘Abdul-Wahhāb Al-Warrāq.

All of these verily believed in the prohibition of this, and of looking into it and listening to it. And they warned against the one who sought it and dedicated himself to gathering it.<sup>327</sup>

<sup>326</sup> With Al-Khallāl (750) Bishr ibn Al-Hārith said: “The mistakes of the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) have been removed from them.”

<sup>327</sup> Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqīdah in which he conveyed the ijmā‘ of the people of knowledge (75): “So whoever curses the Companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) or just one of them, or insults them, or speaks out about their mistakes, or slanders any of them with either big or small, insignificant or important, with which he wants to pave the way for them defamation of any of them, he is an opposing, wicked rāfidī innovator. Allāh does not accept neither his obligatory or voluntarily acts of worship. Rather, loving them is Sunnah, invoking for them is seeking nearness (to Allāh), following them is a mean (by which nearness to Allāh is achieved) and adhering to their narrations is a virtue.”

And many things – with different words but same meaning of disliking this – were narrated from them regarding the one who does any of these things, and the disavowal of the one who narrates this and listens to it.<sup>328</sup>

ثم بعد ذلك يشهد لعائشة بنت أبي بكر الصديق -رضي الله عنها- أنها الصديقة المبرزة من السماء وعلى لسان جبريل -عليه السلام- إخبارا عن الله -عز وجل- مَثَلًا في كتابه، مثبتا في صدور الأمة ومصاحفها إلى يوم القيامة. وأنها زوجة رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- مبرأة طاهرة خيرة فاضلة، وأنها زوجته وصاحبته في الجنة، وهي أم المؤمنين في الدنيا والآخرة. فمن شك في ذلك أو طعن فيه أو توقف عنه، فقد كذب بكتاب الله، وشك فيما جاء به النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وزعم أنه من عند غير الله -عز وجل-، قال الله -عز وجل-:

324. Then after this:

That he testifies for ‘Āishah bint Abī Bakr As-Siddīq – may Allāh be pleased with him and her – that she is truthful, pure and declared innocent from the heaven upon the tongue of Jibrīl (‘alayhis-salām) with an information from Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – which is recited in His Book and established in the hearts of the Ummah and its Masāhif until the Day of Resurrection. (And he testifies) that she is the wife of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam); declared innocent, pure, a good-doer, virtuous, and that she is his wife and female companion in Paradise. And she is the Mother of the believers, in both dunyā and ākhirah.

So whoever doubts this, discredits it or hesitates regarding it, then he has rejected the Book of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – and doubted in what the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) came <sup>328</sup> See: “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallāl (43/The mention of Siffīn and Al-Jamal and mentioning those who attended these and those who did not attend), and (48/Being severe against those who write the ahādīth in which there is something against the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and “Ash-Sharī‘ah” (255/Chapter: The mention of abstaining from what occurred of disputes between the companions of the Messenger of Allāh rahmatullāhi ‘alayhim) and “As-Sunnah” by Al-Barbahārī (123).

with, and he has claimed that it is from someone else than Allāh ‘azza wa jalla. Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿يَعِظُكُمُ اللَّهُ أَنْ تَعُودُوا لِمِثْلِهِ أَبَدًا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ﴾

“Allāh warns you against returning to something like this ever again, if you (really) are believers.” (An-Nūr 24:17)

فمن أنكر هذا فقد برئ من الإيمان .

So whoever rejects this, then he has disassociated himself from īmān.<sup>329</sup>

ويجب جميع أصحاب الرسول - صلى الله عليه وسلم - على مراتبهم ومنزلهم، أولا فأولا، من أهل بدر ثم الحديبية وبيعة الرضوان وأحد، وهؤلاء هم أهل الفضائل الشريفة والمنازل المنيفة الذين سبقت لهم السوايق -رحمهم الله أجمعين- .

325. And he must love of all of the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) according to their level and status. The first (and best) comes first: From the people of Badr, Al-Hudaybiyah, Bay’ah Ar-Ridwān and Uhud.

For these are the people of honorable merits and high status; those who preceded in everything there is to precede in. May the Pleasure of Allāh be upon all of them.

Mālik said: “So whoever accuses her, he has verily opposed the Qurān, and whoever opposes the Qurān he is killed.” He narrated it in “Al-Muhallā” (11/415) with its chain of narration. And he said: “The saying of Mālik here is correct, and this is complete apostasy and a rejection of Allāh – the Exalted – in His guarantee of her innocence.”

و تترحم على أبي عبد الرحمن معاوية بن أبي سفيان -رضي الله عنه- أخي أم حبيبة -رضي الله عنها- زوجة رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- خال المؤمنين أجمعين، وكاتب الوحي. وتذكر فضائله، وتروي ما فيه عن رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم-.

326. And you ask (Allāh) for mercy upon Abū ‘Abdir-Rahmān Mu‘āwiyah ibn Abī Sufyān, the brother of Umm Habībah the wife of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). The uncle of the believers<sup>330</sup> altogether, and the writer of the revelation.

And you mention his merits and narrate what was narrated regarding him from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).

فقد قال ابن عمر: كنا مع رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- فقال: يدخل عليكم من هذا الفج رجل من أهل الجنة، فدخل معاوية رحمه الله.

327. For verily did Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) say: We were with the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) when he said: “A man from the people of Paradise will enter upon you from this gate (or gap or road).” Then Mu‘āwiyah – rahimahullāh – entered.<sup>331</sup>

<sup>330</sup> In “As-Sunnah” by Al-Khallāl (640) Abū Tālib asked Imām Ahmad: “Should I say that Mu‘āwiyah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) is the uncle of the believers? And Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) is the uncle of the believers?” He said: “Yes, Mu‘āwiyah is the brother of Umm Habībah bint Abī Sufyān, the wife of the Prophet and the relative of both of them. And Ibn ‘Umar is the brother of Hafṣah the wife of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and the relative of both of them.” I said: “Should I say: Mu‘āwiyah the uncle of the believers?” He said: “Yes.”

<sup>331</sup> Narrated by Ibn ‘Adī in “Al-Kāmil” (2/330), Al-Ājurrī (2140) and Al-Lālakāī (2779). He said in “Al-‘Ilal Al-Mutanāhiyah” (449-451): “It is not correct from any of it ways.”

So know that this is his place and his status.<sup>332</sup>

ثم تحب في الله من أطاعه، وإن كان بعيدا منك، وخالف مرادك في الدنيا، وتبغض في الله من عصاه،

328. Then you love those who obey Allāh for the sake of Allāh, even if he is far away from you and he opposes your goals in dunyā.

And you hate – for the sake of Allāh – those who disobey Allāh and who support His enemies, even if he is close to you and he agrees with your desires in dunyā. And based upon this you attach (yourself to some people) and you cut off (others).

<sup>332</sup> The people of Sunnah and others payed attention to mentioning the merits of Mu'āwiyah (radiAllāhu 'anhū). So they narrated what was narrated about him and they wrote many independent books about him. All of this as a refutation of the Rāfidah and Khawārij, from those who slandered this great companion, had enmity towards him and used him as a mean to slander the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum).

'Abdullah ibn Al-Mubāarak said: "Mu'āwiyah for us is a test. So whoever we see looking down upon Mu'āwiyah, then we accuse him regarding the people; I mean the companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam)." "Tārīkh Dimashq (59/209). And see: "As-Sunnah" by Al-Khallāl (42/The mention of Abū 'Abdir-Rahmān Mu'āwiyah, his Khilāfah and Allāh Pleasure with him) and Al-Lālakāī (7/319). And see my tahqīq of "Ash-Sharī'ah" (Chapter/243) for there is further clarification.

ولا تجالس أصحاب الخصومات؛ فإنهم يخوضون في آيات الله،

330. And do not sit with the people of disputes, for they verily engage in idle talk regarding the verses of Allāh.<sup>334</sup>

<sup>333</sup> The people of Sunnah agreed upon the criticism of the raī (opinion) and its people, and the disavowal (and rejection) of them.

‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “Be aware against the people of opinion. For verily, the people of raī (opinion) are the enemies of the Sunan (pl. Sunnah). They were not able to memorize the ahādīth, and memorizing (and understanding) them also slipped away from them. So they spoke with opinion (and not evidences), and they went astray and misled others.” It has gone forth in number (54).

And in “Dhamm Al-Kalām” (275) from Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “Be aware of the opinion. For verily Allāh rejected the opinion for the angels. He said:

﴿إِنِّي أَعْلَمُ مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ﴾

“I verily know what you do not know.” (Al-Baqarah 2:30)

And He said to His Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam):

﴿وَأَن أَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ﴾

“And that you judge between them with what Allāh has revealed.”

(Al-Māidah 5:49)

And He did not say: (Judge between them) with your opinion.”

And Imām Malik – rahimahullāh – said: “You will almost never find anyone who looks into the opinion, except that he has corruption in his heart.”

And Imām Malik used to criticize the opinion and say: “The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) died and this affair has been completed and perfected. So we should follow the narrations of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and not follow the opinion. Because when the opinion is followed, then another man comes who has a stronger opinion than you and then you follow him. So every time another man comes (with a stronger opinion than yours) then you follow him.”

See: “Al-Ma’rifah wat-Tārīkh” (2/789) and “Tārīkh Baghdād” (15/545).

And see the words of the Salaf regarding the criticism of the opinion in what has gone forth in (54, 74, 75, 76, and 325).

<sup>334</sup> Narrations warning against the people of disputes have gone forth in number (69, 70, 124, 131, and 132).

فإن أول ما يدخل على السني من النقص في دينه إذا خاصم المبتدع:

331. And be aware of discussing and disputing in the religion. For this verily brings about corruption, and it brings its companion – even if he was a Sunnī – into innovation.

Because the first (aspects of) deficiency that enters upon the Sunnī in his religion when he disputes with the innovator is:

مجالسته للمبتدع ومناظرته إياه.

a. Sitting with the innovator and debating with him.

ثم لا يأمن أن يدخل عليه من دقيق الكلام، وخبث القول ما يفتنه

b. And then you cannot be sure from him introducing some deep (and complicated) words and dirty opinions upon him, which will be an affliction for him.

c. Or it is not an affliction for him, so he will have a need for burdening himself with something from his own (words and) opinion – that has no origin in the interpretation, nor an explanation in the revelation, or a narration from the information from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) – with which he will refute his (i.e. the innovators) opinion.<sup>335</sup>

<sup>335</sup> Sālih ibn Imām Ahmad said in his “Masāil” (588): A man wrote to my father asking about debating the people of kalām and sitting with them. So he read up his answer for me: “May Allāh make your ending good and repel from you everything disliked and unwanted. That which we used to hear and we met those whom we met from the people of knowledge upon is, that they used to hate the kalām and engaging in it with the people of deviation. The affair verily lies in submitting and stopping at what is in the Book of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – and not exceeding this.

And the people continue to hate every innovator who wrote a book, or sitting with an innovator in order to inform him about some of what has become unclear for him in his religion. So safety – in shā Allāh – lies in abstaining from sitting with them and engaging in talks with them about the innovation and misguidance. So let a man fear Allāh, and let him do what will end up benefitting him tomorrow of good deeds he sends forth for himself. And he should not be from those who introduce a new affair, and then when he says it publicly he needs an argument for it. So he makes himself do the impossible in it and he seeks an argument for what he has said (no matter if it is) in truth or falsehood. In order to beautify his innovation and what he has made up, and even worse than this is, if he has written it down in a book which then was learned from him. So he wants to beautify this with the truth and falsehood, even if it becomes clear to him that the truth lies in something other than it. We ask Allāh for success for both us and you. And may peace be upon you.” [Al-Jāmi’ fi ‘Aqāid wa Rasāil Ahlis-Sunnah wal-Athar (420)]

Translator: The muhaqqiq here conveys long words from Ibn Battah – rahimahullāh – in which he explains the details of debating the people of innovation; when it is allowed and for whom. These words – among other sayings from the scholars in this issue – have been translated in the book “An admonition to the God-fearing” by Abū Al-Muhammad (Chapter: The judgment of debating with the people of innovation). So see it over there.

<sup>336</sup> In “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/542) that Abū As-Saqr Al-Warrāq asked Imam Ahmad about the hadīth of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) when he mentioned the fitan, and then said: “The best of people will be a believer who secluded himself to a mountain path from the mountain paths.” “Is there any blame upon a man if he goes to them mountain with his family and children along with a few sheep of his, and then travels from water source to water source, while he performs the prayer, pays his zakāh, secludes himself from the people and worships Allāh until death comes to him while he is in this state? Is this better for you, or that he lives in one of the cities while what you already know has occurred among the people, and with the safety that lies in seclusion as you (also) know.” So he said: “If there is fitnah, then there is no harm in a man secluding himself wherever he wants. But if there is no fitnah, then the cities are better.”

<sup>337</sup> Imām Ahmad said in “Usūl As-Sunnah” the riwāyah of ‘Abdūs: “And whoever rebels against a leader among the leaders of the Muslim, while the people have united behind him and they have acknowledged the Khilāfah for him – no matter in what way, either being pleased with him or by force – then this rebel has divided the unity of the Muslims, and he has opposed the narrations from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu alayhi wa sallam). So if the one who rebels against him (i.e. the leader) dies, then he dies the death of jāhiliyyah. And it is not allowed for anyone among the people to fight against the leader, nor to rebel against him. So whoever does this, then he is an innovator who is not upon the Sunnah and the (straight) path.” Narrated by Al-Khallāl (317).

Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (30): “And it is not allowed to fight against the ruler, nor to rebel against him, even if he is an oppressor. And this is based upon the words of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) to Abū Dharr Al-Ghifārī: “Have patience, even if he (i.e. the ruler) is an Ethiopian slave.” And his words to the Ansār: “Have patience, until you meet me at the basin.” And in the Sunnah there is no fighting against the ruler. For verily, there lies destruction of the dunyā and religion in it.”

And in “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (1/387) Hanbal said: The scholars of Baghdād gathered at Abū ‘Abdillāh during the leadership of Al-Wāthiq. And they consulted him regarding leaving being pleased with his leadership and rule. So he said to them: “It is upon you to reject in your hearts. And do not withdraw your hands from obedience, and do not divide the unity of the Muslim. And do not spill your own blood and the blood of the Muslims.” And he mentioned the hadith of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “If he hits you, then have patience.” He commanded (us) to be patient.

Whoever repeats them then he is an innovator and has left the āthār (narrations), he is opposing the Sunnah, and he will not have any of the benefit of the Jumu'ah; if he does not consider the prayer (valid) behind the leaders, both the righteous of them and the sinners. So the Sunnah is: That he prays two rak'ah with them, and he believes that they are completely valid and there should not be any doubt in his heart regarding this."

And Al-Barbahārī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (140): "And if you see a man being consistent in (performing) the obligatory acts of worship in the jamā'ah with the ruler and others than him, then know that he is a follower of Sunnah, in shā Allāh ta'ālā. And if you see a man being careless with the obligatory acts of worship in the jamā'ah, even if he is with the ruler, then know that he is a follower of desires."

I said: And a man should attend the Jumu'ah and the (prayer in) jamā'ah. And if his imām is a jahmī, then he should perform it with him, and then repeat it.

In "As-Sunnah" by 'Abdullāh (4) Ahmad said: "Whoever has this opinion, then Al-Jumu'ah is not prayed behind him nor other (prayers). Except that we do not leave coming to the prayer. So if a man prays, then he repeats his prayer. This means: (prays) behind the one who says: The Qurān is created."

And Al-Barbahārī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (126): "And if your imām on the day of Jumu'ah is a jahmī and he is a man of authority (or the ruler), then pray behind him, and repeat your prayer."

And the difference between them is that the kharāj is placed upon a piece of land, but as for the 'ushr then it is upon wealth from trade. And the kharāj and the 'ushr remains along with Islām and kufir, different from the jizyah, because it verily is annulled after (the acceptance of) Islām. Artaah ibn Al-Mundhir said: “If the people of opinion would overcome us, they would almost exit us from all of the obligatory acts of worship. And this is because they said: There is no jihād with an oppressing leader, nor Jumu’ah prayer and no zakāh. There only remain that they say: There is no Hajj and no fasting in the month of Ramadān with them.” “Al-Hujjah fi Bayān Al-Mahajjah” by Ibn Tāhir (2/581).

And in “As-Sunnah” by Harb (266) Abū Ishāq said: I asked Hishām about going to battle with these leaders? And I mentioned to him what was said of negative things about going to battle with them. So he said: Al-Hasan and Ibn Sīrīn used to say: “For you are the reward of it, the money from it, the honor of it, and the virtue of it and for them are their sins.” He said: And Al-Hasan used to say: *“It has reached me that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) used to say: “Allāh will verily aid this religion with a people who have no share (in the next life).””* And Al-Hasan used to say: *“Four things from the affairs of Islām are for the ruler (or leader). But if he is commanded to (perform) an act of disobedience, then he is not obliged to listen nor to obey.”

Avoiding everyone who believes in any of what we have mentioned (of innovations), boycotting him, hating him, boycotting the one who allies with him, supports him, defends him and accompanies him, even if the one who does this openly shows (and utters) the Sunnah.<sup>346</sup>

<sup>346</sup> Ibn Battah narrated in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (435) from Mubashshir Al-Hablī who said: It was said to Al-Awzā’ī: “Verily, a man says: ‘I sit with the people of Sunnah and I sit with the people of innovation.’” So Al-Awzā’ī – rahimahullāh – said: “That is a man who wants to make falsehood equal to the truth.”

Ibn Battah said: “Al-Awzā’ī has spoken the truth. I say: This man verily does not know the truth from falsehood, nor kufr from īmān. And regarding such as person the Qurān was revealed and the Sunnah from the Mustafā (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) came. Allāh – the Exalted – said:

﴿وَإِذَا لَقُوا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا قَالُوا آمَنَّا وَإِذَا خَلَوْا إِلَىٰ شَيَاطِينِهِمْ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا مَعَكُمْ إِنَّمَا نَحْنُ مُسْتَهْزِئُونَ﴾

“And if they meet those who believe they say: ‘We believe.’ And when they are alone with their shayātīn they say: ‘We are verily with you.’”

(Al-Baqarah 2:14).”

And Ibn Battah also narrated (426) from Yahyā Al-Qattān who said: When Sufyān Ath-Thawrī arrived in Basrah he looked into the affair of Ar-Rabī’ (i.e. ibn Subayh) and his status with the people. (So) he asked: “What is his madhhab?”

They said: “His madhhab is nothing but the Sunnah.” He said: “Who are his advisors?” They said: “The people of Qadar.” He said: “He is a qadari.”

So Ibn Battah said: “May Allāh have mercy upon Sufyān Ath-Thawrī. He verily uttered himself based upon wisdom and he spoke the truth. And he spoke based upon knowledge so he was in accordance with the Book and the Sunnah, what wisdom necessitates, what is achieved through vision and what the people of insight and clarity knows. Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿لَا يَأْتِيكُمْ خَبَلًا وَدُوًّا مَا عَنَيْتُمْ قَدْ بَدَتِ الْبَغْضَاءُ مِنْ أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَمَا تُخْفِي صُدُورُهُمْ أَكْبَرُ﴾

“They will not miss a chance to harm you. They wish for what causes you suffering (and distress). The hatred has already appeared from their mouths, and what their chests hide is even bigger.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:118)”

Al-Ājurī said in “Ash-Sharī’ah” (255/Chapter: The mention of forsaking the people of innovation and desires): “Everyone who adheres to what we have written in this book of ours – and that is the book Ash-Sharī’ah – should boycott all of the people of =

This person should not be spoken to, not greeted, he should not be sat with or prayed behind, he should not be married nor given to in marriage by those who know him, he should not be taken as a partner, worked with, debated with or disputed with. Rather he (i.e. the Sunnī) should humiliate him by degrading him. And if you meet him on the street on one path, then if you are capable you take another (path)."*

And see: Al-Lālakāī (4/364/Mentioning what was narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam), the Sahābah and the tābi'ūn regarding avoiding the people of Qadar and the rest of the people of desires).

Al-Awzā'ī said: "It has reached us that from the Sunnah which the people of Hijaz, Basrah and Shām agreed upon is, that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) lifts his hand towards his two shoulder when he says the takbīr and when he bows. Except the people of Kūfah." It was said to him: "What if he does not perform some of this?" He said: "He is subtracting from his prayer." "Al-Ahkām Al-Kabīr" by Ibn Kathīr (3/281)

And in "As-Sunnah" by 'Abdullāh ibn Ahmad (503) Wakī' said: Abū Hanīfah said to Ibn Al-Mubāarak said: "You raise your hands in every takbīrah, as if you want to fly." So Ibn Al-Mubāarak said to him: "If you were going to fly from the first one, then I would verily fly from the remaining ones." Wakī' said: "The argument of Ibn Al-Mubāarak was good."

And in "Ra'f Al-Yadayn fī As-Salāh" by Ibn Al-Qayyim (p. 276): Al-Khallāl said in "Kitāb Al-'Ilm": Ahmad was asked about a man who leads the people in prayer and he opposes the ahādīth of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) in his prayer. Such as in lifting the two hands. He said: "Inform him and teach him." It was said: "What if I inform him and he does not stop?" He said: "If you informed him from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and he does not accept, then abandon him." And it was said to Ahmad: "We have some people who commands us to lifting our two hands in the prayer, and some people who prohibit us from doing so." So he said: "Only an innovator would prohibit you. The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) did this, and Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) used to throw rocks at the one who did not lift (his hands)."

And this is an increase in good deeds.<sup>348</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : يعطى بكل إشارة حسنة.

340. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “For every movement he is given a good deed.”<sup>349</sup>

And from the Sunnah is:

341. Wiping over the khuffayn (two socks) for the one who ahdatha (empties bowel, urinates or passes wind), if he wore his socks while he was completely clean (i.e. free from minor and major impurity).

---

<sup>348</sup> Imām Ahmad mentioned this in his ‘aqīdah which he wrote to Musaddad ibn Musarhad, and it is narrated by way of Ibn Battah. See: “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/431) and “Al-Jāmi’ fi ‘Aqāid wa Rasāil Ahlis-Sunnah wal-Athar” (p. 359).

And in “Juz Raf’ Al-Yadayn” (41): Ibn Sīrīn said about lifting the two hands in the prayer: “It is from the completion of the prayer.”

And in the same book (39) Sa’id ibn Jubayr said: “It is something by which you beautify the prayer.”

And in “Raf’ Al-Yadayn fi As-Salāh” by Ibn Al-Qayyim (p. 134): Ash-Shāfi’ī was asked about the meaning of lifting the two hands in the prayer? So he said: “It is veneration of the affair of Allāh, a beautification of the prayer and following the Sunnah.”

<sup>349</sup> I did not find it as ascribed to the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam). Rather, it is from the ‘Utbah ibn ‘Āmir Al-Juhānī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “With every movement a man makes with his hand in the prayer then a good deed is written for every finger.” Narrated by Sālih ibn Ahmad in “Al-Masāil” (1575) and At-Tabarānī in “Al-Kabīr” (17/297). Al-Haythamī said in “Majma’ Az-Zawāid” (2/103): “At-Tabarānī narrated it and its isnād is hasan.”

If he is a traveler: Three days and nights. And if he is settled: One day and night.

This is what the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) legislated and what his companions did.

And the Sunnah of the early Muslims has gone forth upon this, and the scholars of the religion remained upon (and adhered to) it.

No-one reject this or negates it, except an innovator from the people who opposes the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), hates his Sunnah and repels his words.<sup>350</sup> ومن السنة: تعجيل الإفطار، وتأخير السحور.

And from the Sunnah is:

342. Hastening to break the fast and delaying the suhūr (the meal before dawn).

---

<sup>350</sup> The ahādīth about wiping over the sock are mutawātir. The people of correct (narration) and Sunan narrated them. See: “Sahīh Al-Bukhārī” (Chapter: Wiping over the two socks) and (Chapter: If he enters his two feet while they are clean). And as for the time limit of the wiping, then it was narrated by Muslim (560) from ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) made it to be three days and nights for the traveler and one day and night for the settled.”

The Khawārij and the Rāfidah rejected this firmly established Sunnah from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and due to this many from the people of Sunnah included wiping over the socks in the issues of Sunnah and belief.

Among those who mentioned it in their ‘aqīdah is: Sufyān Ath-Thawrī. This was narrated by Al-Lalakai (314) with a sahīh isnād.

And Ahmad in his ‘aqīdah which he wrote to Musaddad ibn Musarhad. “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/432). Both are included in “Al-Jāmi’ fi ‘Aqāid wa Rasāil Ahlis-Sunnah wal-Athar” (p. 107 and 359).

And in “Al-Masāil war-Rasāil” (2/421): Al-Marrūdhī said: I heard Abū ‘Abdillāh when it was said to him: “A people who do not believe in the wiping (i.e. over the two socks).” So he said: “Those are Khawārij, a people from the Ibādiyyah.”

And what testifies to it is, what was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1856) and Muslim (2522) from Sahl ibn Sa’d (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) who said: “The people will remain in a good state as long as they hasten to break the fast.”

وقال سليمان بن داود الأودي: كنت أصلي مع علي بن أبي طالب المغرب، وأنا لا أدري أغربت الشمس أم لا ؟

346. And Sulaymān ibn Dāwūd Al-Awdī said: "I used to pray with 'Alī ibn Abī Tālib (radiAllāhu 'anhu) and I would not know whether the sun had set or not."<sup>354</sup>

ومن السنة لمن أراد طلاق زوجته: ألا يطلقها إلا تطليقة واحدة إذا طهرت من الحيض، ولم يصبها في ذلك الطهر، ثم يتركها حتى تنقضي عدتها. فإن طلقها ثلاثا في لفظ واحد، أو في طهر واحد أصابها فيه، أو وهي حائض، فقد طلقها طلاق البدعة. وهي حرام عليه، لا تحل له أبدا حتى تنكح زوجها غيره، فيموت عنها أو يطلقها، وقد أصابها ودخل بها .

347. And from the Sunnah for the one who wants to divorce his wife is, that he should not divorce her with more than one divorce when she becomes pure from menstruation, and he did not have intercourse with her in this (period of) purity. And then he leaves her until her 'iddah has been completed.<sup>355</sup>

---

<sup>354</sup> In the "Musannaf" of Ibn Abi Shaybah (3344): "'Alī used to pray the maghrib (prayer) when the sun (and not its rays and light) had set."

And see: "Al-Musanna" (2/226/Those who used to believe that the maghrib (prayer) should be hastened).

<sup>355</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) that he divorced his wife while she was menstruating. So 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) asked the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) about this, so he said: "Order him to return her. Then he can divorce her while she is pure or pregnant."

Narrated by Muslim (3650) and At-Tirmidhī (1176) who said: "And the deeds in accordance with to this for the people of knowledge from the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and others than them; that the Sunnah divorce is that he divorces her while she is pure and without (having had) any intercourse. And some of them said: If he divorces her three times while she is pure, then this is also according to the Sunnah. And this is the opinion of Ash-Shāfi'ī and Ahmad ibn Hanbal. And some of them said: Three (divorces) is not according to the Sunnah, except if he divorces her (three times) one after the other. And this is the opinion of Sufyān Ath-Thawrī and Ishāq. And they said about divorcing the pregnant woman: He can divorce her whenever he wants. And this is the opinion of Ash-Shāfi'ī, Ahmad and Ishāq."

But if he divorces her three times in one word (or sentence) in a (period of) purity in which he had intercourse with her, or [and] she is menstruating, then he has divorced her with an divorce of bid'ah (innovation).<sup>356</sup>

<sup>356</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: I divorced my wife while she was menstruating. Then 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) mentioned this to the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam). So the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) became angry and said: "Order him to return her, until she has another period in the future other than this period in which he divorced her. Then if he wants to divorce her, then he can divorce her while she is pure from her period before he touches her. And this is the divorce for the 'iddah which Allāh has commanded." Narrated by Muslim (5251).

Al-Baghawī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (9/203): "In it there is an evidence for that the divorce during the period is an innovation. And likewise (the divorce during) the purity in which he had intercourse with her. Because the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: 'And if he wants to, then he should divorce her before he touches her.'"

I said: The people of knowledge disagreed regarding the gathering of three divorces, whether it is from the divorce of innovation or Sunnah. See: "Al-Umm" (6/352) and "Al-Mughnī" (10/330).

Translator: The above statement of the muhaqqiq is referring to whether or not the one who divorces his wife three times at once has performed a divorce of innovation or his divorce is according to the Sunnah. As for if it occurs and renders the women prohibited for him until she marries another man, then this has been mentioned in the following words.

And (in this case) she is forbidden from him, and she will never be allowed for him (to marry) until she marries another man than him<sup>357</sup> and he dies from her,

<sup>357</sup> Because he divorced her with three divorces, and the divorce verily occurs by this and it is considered as three (divorces). And this is the opinion of the Sahābah, tābi'ūn and those after them from the people of knowledge. And this is what Amīr Al-Muminīn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) gathered the people upon, and no-one opposed this.

Abū Dāwūd narrated in his "Sunan" (2197) from Mujāhid who said: I was with Ibn 'Abbās when a man came and said: "I verily divorced my wife three times." He said: So he remained quiet until I thought the man would repeat (his words) to him. Then he said: "One of you goes and does something stupid, and then he says: O Ibn 'Abbās, O Ibn 'Abbās. And Allāh verily said:

﴿ وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا ﴾

"And whoever fears Allāh, then Allāh will make a way out for him."

(At-Talāq 65:2)

But you verily did not fear Allāh. So I cannot find a way out for you. You disobeyed your Lord, and your wife became impermissible for you. And Allāh verily said:

﴿ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعَدَّتِهِنَّ ﴾

"O Prophet, when you divorce the women, then divorce them at their 'iddah

(prescribed periods)." (At-Talāq 65:1)."

And he declared it as sahīh in "Al-Fath" (9/362).

And there are many ahādīth and narrations regarding the issue of carrying out three divorces (at once) and it being considered valid.

See them in: "Al-Muwatta'" (2/59), "Al-Mudawwanah" (2/419), "Al-Umm" by Ash-Shāfi'ī. And Imām Malik and Imām Ash-Shāfi'ī used these as argumentation for the occurrence of the three divorces, and they did not mention any disagreement in this issue.

Ibn Rajab said in "Jāmi' Al-'Ulūm wal-Hikam" (2/125): "Under all circumstances, that what 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) gathered the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum) upon, so they agreed upon it in his time, then there is no doubt that this is the truth, even if those who disagreed with him after this disagreed with him... such as what the people are gathered upon regarding the three divorces, and the prohibition of mut'ah (temporary marriage) with the women... and similar to this."

or he divorces her after having had intercourse with her and entered her.<sup>358</sup>

<sup>358</sup> Al-Baghawī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (9/204): “And in his command of taking her back, there is an evidence for that the divorce occurred even if it was (a divorce of) innovation. And if it had not been as such, then there would be no need for him to take her back. Yūnus ibn Jubayr said about this hadīth: I said to Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Is this considered a divorce?’ He said: ‘What else?! Do you think that if he is incapable and stupid?’ And this means: Do you think that if he is incapable and stupid that his stupidity makes the divorce invalid for him, or that his incapability annuls it? And this is from the aspect of a deleted answer which is proven by the content.”

And in “Jāmi’ Al-Ulūm wal-Hikam” (1/190): Abū ‘Ubayd said: “That it occurs is what the scholars from all of the countries agree upon: Those from Hijāz, Tahāmah, Yaman, Shām, ‘Irāq and Misr. And Ibn Al-Mundhir narrated this from everyone whose words he memorized from the people of knowledge, except some people from the people of innovation who are not taken into consideration.”

I said: And from those who mentioned this issue in his risālah regarding Sunnah and belief is Imām Ahmad – rahimahullāh – in his letter regarding the Sunnah to Musaddad. He said: “And if he divorces her three times with one word, then he has verily acted with ignorance and his wife has become impermissible to him. And she will never be allowed for him (in marriage) until she marries another man than him.”

See: “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/431) and “Al-Jāmi’ fi ‘Aqāid wa Rasāil Ahlis-Sunnah” (p. 380).

And from the Sunnah is:

348. Making four takbīr in the janā'iz (funeral prayers).<sup>359</sup>

---

<sup>359</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Today a righteous slave of Allāh died, Asmahah, so say four takbīr upon him (when you pray his funeral prayer)." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1334) (Chapter: The takbīr at the janāzah are four) and Muslim (951). Al-Barbahārī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (59): "And the takbīr in the funeral prayers are four. And this is the opinion of Mālik ibn Anas, Sufyān Ath-Thawrī, Al-Hasan ibn Sālīh, Ahmad and the scholars. And this is what the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said."

Ibn 'Abdil-Barr said in "At-Tamhid" (6/334): "The Salaf disagreed regarding the number takbīr in the janāzah (funeral prayer). Then they agreed upon four takbīrāt. And whatever disagrees with this is weak and resembles innovation and something newly invented... And from Ibrāhīm who said: 'The companions of Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) gathered in the house of Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) and then they agreed upon that the takbīr are four...' And the takbīr in the funeral prayers are four. This is opinion of the majority of the scholars, except Ibn Abī Laylā alone. For he verily said: 'Five.' And I do not know anyone who said this before him, except Zayd ibn Arqam – and there was difference of opinion whether he said this or not – Huda'yfah and Abū Dharr. And in the isnād from these two there are people who are not used as evidence. Ibrāhīm An-Nakha'ī said: 'The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) was taken (i.e. died) and the people disagreed. Some of them said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said takbīr four times, and some of them said five times. And another one would say seven times. Then when 'Umar was (the Khalīfah) he gathered the Sahābah and said to them: 'Find something which you can agree upon.' And then they agreed upon four takbīrāt."

فإن كبر إمامك أكثر فمن السنة أيضا أن تتبعه، بعد أن ترى أنت أنها أربع، فقد قال ابن مسعود:
كبر ما كبر إمامك .

349. But if your imām says takbīr more times (than that), then it is also from the Sunnah that you follow him even if you believe it is four. For verily, Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Make the amount of takbīr that your imām makes."<sup>360</sup>

He said in "Majma' Az-Zawā'id" (3/35): "At-Tabarānī narrated it in "Al-Awsat, and in it is 'Atā ibn As-Sāib, and there is some talk regarding him. And he is good in hadīth." Imām Ahmad said in his letter to Musaddad: "The takbīr in the funeral prayer are four. But if he makes five takbīr, then make takbīr with him. Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: 'Make the amount of takbīr that your imām makes.' Ahmad said: Ash-Shāfi'ī disagreed with me, and said: 'If he exceeds four takbīrāt then he should repeat the prayer.' And he used as an argument against me, that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prayed upon An-Najāshī, and he made four takbīrāt upon him."

Al-Qādī Ibn Abī Ya'lā mentioned in "Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah" (3/162) the disagreement regarding following the imam in the excess of five takbīrāt. He said: "And in the other version, and this is the correct one: He follows the imām until seven. This was chosen by Abū Bakr, Ibn Battah and Abū Hafs Al-'Ukbarī... Based upon what was narrated from Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: 'We did not memorize the (amount of) takbīr from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam). Because he verily made four, five and seven takbīrāt. So make takbīr as your imām makes takbīr.'" "

And from the Sunnah is:

350. That you do not say out loud (when saying):

﴿ بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ﴾

“In the Name of Allāh, the Beneficent, the Merciful.”<sup>361</sup>

ولا تقنت في الفجر، إلا أن يدهم المسلمين أمر من عدوهم، فيقنت الإمام فتتبعه .

351. And do not make the invocation of qunūt in the fajr [prayer], except if the Muslims are surprised by something from their enemies. Then the imām makes the invocation of qunūt, and you follow him.<sup>362</sup>

---

<sup>361</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “I prayed behind the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), Abū Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān. And they would begin (reciting out loud) with: “Al-Hamdu Lillāhi Rabbil-‘Ālamīn” And they would not mention the Bismillah... in the beginning of the recitation, nor at the end of it.”

Narrated by Muslim (822).

Ad-Dāraqutnī said when he was asked about the ahādīth (mentioning) reciting it loud, so he said: “There is nothing from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) regarding it which is sahīh.” “Nasb Ar-Rāyah” (1/358).

And Ahmad said in one version regarding it: “I dislike (or hate) to say it out loud.” “Al-Intisār” (2/239).

<sup>362</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth of Umm Salamah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) in which the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited from the qunūt in the fajr prayer. It was narrated by Ibn Mājah (1242) and Ad-Dāraqutnī in “As-Sunan” (2/38). And it was declared as weak by Ad-Dāraqutnī and Al-Būsīrī.

The issue of performing qunūt in the fajr prayer is an issue of great disagreement between the Salaf and the Khalaf, and independent books where written regarding this issue. Among those who wrote books about this is Ibn Mandah, Al-Hākīm, Al-Khatīb Al-Baghdādī and others.

352. And the witr (prayer) is one detached (and independent) rak'ah from what comes before it of the prayer.<sup>363</sup>

والقنوت فيها بعد الركوع .

353. And the (invocation of) qunūt in it is after the rukū' (bowing).<sup>364</sup>

---

<sup>363</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) in which the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The witr is one rak'ah in the last part of the night." Narrated by Muslim (1706).

And in the "Masāil" of 'Abdullāh (238) Ahmad said: "It was narrated from four of the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam), from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) that he prayed the witr as one rak'ah: Ibn 'Abbās, 'Aishah, Ibn 'Umar and Zayd ibn Khālid (radiAllāhu 'anhum)."

And the followers of opinion disagreed in this issue.

And Al-Marwazī said in "Al-Witr" (p. 296): "An-Nu'mān (i.e Abū Hanīfah) claimed: that the witr is three raka'āt. And that it is allowed to increase it to more than this, nor to decrease in it. So whoever prayed witr as (only) one, then his witr is invalid, and the obligatory upon him is to repeat the witr, and pray the witr as three (raka'āt) and not to make the taslīm until the end of them. And if he made taslīm after two rak'ah, then his witr is invalid... And this opinion of his is in opposition with the firmly established narrations from the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and his companions. And it is in opposition with what the people of knowledge agreed upon. And it verily came due to his little knowledge about the narrations, and his small amount of sitting with the scholars."

See: Ibn Abī Shaybah (13/165/Kitāb Ar-Radd 'alā Abī Hanīfah) and "Al-Mughnī" (2/578).

<sup>364</sup> 'Abdullāh ibn Ahmad said in his "Masāil" (323): My father said: "I choose the qunūt after the bowing, because everything which is established from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) regarding the qunūt, it is verily regarding the fajr when he raised his head from the bowing... And the qunūt of the witr I also choose after the rukū' (bowing)." My father said: "And it was verily narrated from 'Alī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) that he performed the qunūt in witr after the rukū', and there is nothing sahīh from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) regarding the qunūt in witr, neither before nor after (bowing)."

And in "Tanqīh Tahqīq Ahādīth At-Ta'līq" (1/533) Ahmad said: "The qunūt in the fajr is after the rukū', and in the witr he should choose after the rukū'. And whoever performs the qunūt before the rukū', then there is no harm in that based on that the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum) would do so and their disagreement (in the issue)."

And from the Sunnah is:

354. Making the iqāmah single (i.e. that the iqāmah is uttered as the words of the adhān but only one time, except the tahlīl in the beginning which is said two times).<sup>365</sup>

ومن السنة: أن ترقع ركعتين إذا دخلت المسجد، قبل أن تجلس، إن كنت على وضوء، وإن كان يوم الجمعة والإمام يخطب .

And from the Sunnah is:

355. That you pray to rak'ah when you enter the masjid before you sit down, if you are upon ablution. And this is even if it is the day of Jumu'ah and the imām is delivering a sermon.<sup>366</sup>

---

<sup>365</sup> In opposition to the people of opinion who believe that making it single is abrogated.

Al-Bukhārī said: "Chapter: The iqāmah is one, except his words: 'Qad qāmat as-salah.'" And he mentioned his chain of narration from Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "Bilal was ordered to make the adhān double and the iqāmah single."

<sup>366</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "If one of you comes of the day of Jumu'ah and the imām is delivering a sermon, then let him pray two rak'ah he should make them short." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (889) and Muslim (1979).

I said: The followers of opinion disagreed in this.

Al-Baghawī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (4/266): "In it there is an evidence for that whoever enters the masjid while the imām is delivering the sermon, he should not sit until he prays two rak'ah. And this is the opinion of many from the people of knowledge... Some of them said: He should sit down and not pray. And this is the opinion of Sufyān Ath-Thawrī and the followers of opinion."

ومن السنة: الإنصات للخطبة والاستماع إليها .

And from the Sunnah is:

356. Paying attention to the khutbah (sermon) and listening to it.<sup>367</sup>

والإقبال بوجهك على الخطيب إن كنت بحيث تعينه، أو لا تعينه فالإنصات،

357. And turning your face towards the khatīb (speaker) if you are in a place where you can see him or if you cannot see him. (In both cases) one must pay attention.<sup>368</sup>

<sup>367</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever performs ablution and then comes to the Jumu’ah and listens and pays attention, then what is between him and the Jumu’ah will be forgiven for him, plus three more days...” Narrated by Muslim (1943).

<sup>368</sup> Based upon the words of Ibn Mas‘ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “When the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) ascended the pulpit we would turn our faces towards him.”

This was narrated by At-Tirmidhī (509) and he declared it as weak. And he said: “There is nothing in this issue which is sahīh from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).” And he said: “Acting upon this with the people of knowledge is from the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and others. They considered it preferable to face the imām when he is speaking.”

وقد قال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : من قال مه، والإمام يخطب، فقد لغا ومن لغا فلا جمعة له.

358. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) verily said: “Whoever says: ‘Mah’ while the imām is speaking, he is guilty of idle talk. And whoever engages in idle talk, he has no Jumu’ah.”<sup>369</sup>

Ibn Rajab said in “Fath Al-Bārī” (8/281): “And it was narrated in many different ahādīth – some of which are mursal, and some of them are connected in their chains of narration, and there is weakness in them (all) – : ‘That whoever engages in idle talk, he has no Jumu’ah.’ And that this is his share of it. And the intended is: That he will lose the reward of the Jumu’ah. ‘Atā and Ibn Wahb – the companion of Mālik – both explained it like this. And Ishāq said: ‘It is feared that he will lose the reward.’”

And Al-Bukhārī (934) and Muslim (1918) narrated from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “If you say: ‘Pay attention’ to your companion on the day of Jumu’ah while the imām is speaking, then you are guilty of lagwḥ (vain, false, evil and forbidden talk).”

<sup>370</sup> Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (5345) and Ahmad (2033) from the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). He said in “Bulūgh Al-Marām” (454): “There is no harm in its isnād.”

ومن السنة: أن تسلم على من دخلت عليه، في مسجد أو غيره، وتسلم إذا خرجت.

And from the Sunnah is:

Allāh – azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ مِنْ رِزْقٍ فَجَعَلْتُمْ مِنْهُ حَرَامًا وَحَلَالًا قُلْ اللَّهُ أَدْنَىٰ لَكُمْ أَمْ عَلَى اللَّهِ تَفْتَرُونَ ﴾

Because the first is not worthier than the second.” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (5108) and At-Tirmidhī (2706) who said: “Hadīth hasan.”

And the people of knowledge disagreed regarding the one entering the masjid; should he begin by greeting those in the masjid or should he begin by (praying) tahiyyatul-masjid before greeting? See: “Zād Al-Ma’ād” (2/413).

For Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

ثم قال -عز وجل- :

Then He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿ فَمَنْ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴾

“So whoever invents lies about Allāh after this, then those are the unjust ones.” (Ālu ‘Imrān 3:94)

ثم إن الروافض تشبهت باليهود في تحريم ما أحل الله، وردوا على الله -عز وجل- قوله، وافتروا عليه البهتان، وحرمو الجِرِّيَّ - الجِرِّيَّ: على وزن الذمي نوع من السمك- وحرمو الجِرِّيَّ من السمك، ولحم الجوزور.

364. Then the Rawāfid verily imitated the Jews in forbidding what Allāh has allowed, and they repelled the Word of Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – and they invented falsehood about Him, and they forbade the catfish and the meat of slaughtering camels.<sup>373</sup>

وقد قال رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : المحرم ما أحل الله كالمحلل ما حرم الله.

<sup>373</sup> From ‘Ikrimah who said: I asked Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) about the catfish? So he said: “There is no harm in it. The Jews forbid it, and we eat it.” Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (24956). He said in “Al-Fath” (9/615): “This (narration) is in accordance with the conditions of saḥīḥ.”

Al-Haythamī said in “Majma’ Az-Zawāid” (1/176): “And (regarding) its isnād, then I did not see any mention of most of them.”

And it was narrated by Al-Bukhārī in “At-Tārīkh Al-Kabīr” (6/34) and Al-Qadā’ī in “Musnad Ash-Shihāb” (980) from the hadīth of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).

Abū Hātim said about this hadīth: “Hadīth munkar.” “Al-‘Ilal” (1439).

And it was narrated by Ma’mar (20573/Al-Musannaf) and At-Tabarī in “Tahdhīb Al-Āthār” Musnad ‘Umar (282) from the words of Ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).

It was declared as saḥīḥ by Ibn Tāhir in “As-Sammā’” (p. 52) and Al-Haythamī in “Al-Majma’” (1/177).

And perhaps most of them – among those who forbid this and criticize the one who eats it – they commit zinā, drink alcohol and unjustly take the wealth of the people.

And from the people are those who look lightly upon their forbiddance of these foods and considers this as something small (and unimportant) from their deeds.

This, for the scholars, is from the major [and great] sins and dreadful immoralities. Due to (what lies in it of) contesting with Allāh, repelling His Words regarding the forbiddance of what He allowed, and narrowing what He made wide, and withholding what He has set free. He verily counted His favors upon us and He numbered for us (some of) His gifts in His Words:

﴿ وَهُوَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ الْبَحْرَ لِتَأْكُلُوا مِنْهُ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا ﴾

“He is the One who subjected the sea, in order for you to eat (fresh and) tender meat from it.” (An-Nahl 16:14)

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- في البحر: هو الطهور ماؤه، الحل ميبته.

377. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said about the sea: “Its water is pure, and its dead is allowed.”<sup>375</sup>

وقد علم الله أن الجِرِّيَّ في البحر، وكيف لا يعلمه وهو خلقه؟! وعلم رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- أن الجِرِّيَّ في البحر، أَفْتَرَاهُمَا أَعْيَاهُمَا أَنْ يَسْتَنْبِيَا لِتَحْرِيمِ الْجِرِّيِّ؟ ولقد جعل نحر الجزور من أعظم ما تُقْرَب به إليه، وابتغى به الفوز لديه، فقد قال -عز وجل- :

And Allāh verily knew that the catfish is in the sea, and how would He not know when He created it! And the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) knew that the catfish is in the sea.

<sup>375</sup> Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (83) and At-Tirmidhī (69) who said: “Hasan sahih.” And Ibn Khuzaymah (111) also declared it as sahih.

So do you consider them (i.e. Allāh and His Messenger) incapable of making (and mentioning) an exception regarding the catfish?!

He verily made the slaughtering of camel from the greatest of ways to seek nearness to Him, and by it the victory from Him is sought. He – azza wa jalla – said:

﴿وَالْبُدْنَ جَعَلْنَا لَكُم مِّنْ شَعَائِرِ اللَّهِ لَكُمْ فِيهَا حَبِيرٌ﴾

“And We have made the budn (cows or camels driven to be offered as sacrifices by the pilgrims in Makkah) for you to be from the signs of Allāh. There is (much) good for you in them.”
(Al-Hajj 22:36)

وجعل جزاء من انتهك حجَّه بأعظم المحارم، وهو الوطء، أن ينحر البدن.

And He made the penalty for the one who breaches his Hajj with the greatest of the forbidden things (when in ihram) – and that is intercourse – that he must slaughter a budn (camel or cow).<sup>376</sup>

وقال إسرائيل بن أبي إسحاق: حملت جريا إلى منزل يزيد بن علي - رضي الله عنه - ثم لقيته من الغد، فقال لي: لقد أعجبني ذلك السمك، ولقد بلغني أن قوما يحرّمونه، ويدعون تحريمه علينا، ألا فمن قال ذلك أو فعله، فعليه لعنة الله ولعنة اللاعنين.

367. And Isrāil ibn Abī Ishāq said: I brought a catfish to the house of Zayd ibn ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) and then I met him the next day. So he said to me: “I verily like that fish. And it has verily reached me that some people forbid it, and they claim that it is forbidden for us. Verily, وقال أبو أسامة: خرج علينا الأعمش ذات يوم فقال: أكلت اليوم طعاما طيبا، عرف الشيطان طبيته فحرمه على التَّوَكِّي، قال: قلت: ما هو يا أبا محمد؟ قال: أكلت قريض جري.

369. And Abū Usāmah said: Al-A'mash came out to us one day and said: "Today I ate some very tasteful food, (and) the Shaytān knows how tasty it is, so he forbade for the stupid people." He said: We said: "And what is that, O Abū Muhammad?" He said: "I ate a plate of catfish."

<sup>382</sup> Based upon the hadīth of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "There is no marriage, except with a walī and two just witnesses." Narrated by Ad-Dāraquṭnī (3521), At-Tabarānī in "Al-Mu'jam Al-Kabīr" (18/142) and Al-Bayhaqī in "As-Sunan" (7/125). In its chain of narration is 'Abdullāh ibn Mahraz and he is matrūk (left in hadīth).

And based upon the hadīth of Abū Mūsā (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "There is no marriage, except with a walī." Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (2085) and At-Tirmidhī (1101) who said: "In this issue there are (ahādīth) from 'Āishah, Ibn 'Abbās, Abū Hurayrah, 'Imrān ibn Husayn and Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhum)." He said: "And the deeds in this issue for the people of knowledge from the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam), are according to the hadīth of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): 'There is no marriage, except with a walī.'"

I said: This hadīth was declared sahīh by Ibn Al-Mundhir, Al-Hākīm, Ibn Hibbān and others. And Imām Ahmad declared it weak due to its idtirāb (confusion, uncertainty) and said: "But it is narrated from 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) with a sahīh isnād and from Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu) that marriage is not allowed without a walī." He said: "So I believe in this." "Masāil Harb" (2120).

And this is in opposition to the followers of opinion. Because they do not stipulate as a condition that there is walī in the marriage. So it is for the women to marry off herself!

Ibn Al-Mundhir said in "Al-Awsat" (8/267): "What An-Nu'mān said is in opposition with the Sunnah, and it exceeds what the majority of people of knowledge say."

<sup>387</sup> Ibn Al-Qayyim said in “Zād Al-Ma’ād” (1/195): “And it was not memorized from him that used to say anything other than mentioning the Name of Allāh when performing his ablution. And every hadīth regarding the remembrances said in the ablution that are ascribed to him are lies and fabricated. The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) did not say any of it, nor did he teach it to his Ummah. And nothing is established from him, except mentioning the Name of Allāh in the beginning by his words: I bear witness that no-one is worthy of worship besides Allāh alone who has no partner. And I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and messenger.’ (And): ‘O Allāh, make me to be from those who repent, and make be to be from those who purify themselves’, at the end of it.”

<sup>388</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) who said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) used to like to begin with the right when putting on his sandals and shoes, in his purification and in all of his affairs.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (168) and Muslim (537, 538).

وكذلك الأكل باليمين والشرب كذلك، وتركهما بالشمال.

382. And likewise the food [with the right hand]. And also drinking. And leaving doing any of these two with the left hand.<sup>389</sup>

والاستنجاء بالشمال، وتركه باليمين.

383. And performing the istinjā (i.e. cleaning one's self after emptying the bowels) with the left hand, and not doing it with the right hand.<sup>390</sup>

---

وإدخاله رجله اليسرى عند دخول الخلاء، وقوله - بعد ذكر اسم الله -: اللهم إني أعوذ بك من الخبث والخبائث.

384. And that he enters his left foot (first) when entering the toilet. And that he, after mentioning the Name of Allāh, says: “O Allāh, I verily seek refuge with you from the khubuth and khabāith (male and female shayātīn).”<sup>391</sup> وإخراج الرجل اليمنى إذا خرج، وقوله: الحمد لله الذي أذهب عني الأذى وعافاني.

385. And exiting the right foot first when you go out, and saying: “All praise is due to Allāh who removed the harm from me and made me healthy.”<sup>392</sup>

---

<sup>391</sup> As for mentioning the name of Allāh before entering the toilet, then there is the hadīth of ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “A veil between the eyes of the Jinn and the private parts of the son of Ādam is, that when one of you enters the toilet then he say: ‘In the name of Allāh.’” Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (606) and Ibn Mājah (297). And the hadīth was declared as weak by At-Tirmidhī, Ad-Dāraqtunī in “Al-‘Ilal” (12/101) and Al-Bayhaqī in “Da’awāt Al-Kabīr” (53).

As for his words: “O Allāh, I verily seek refuge...” Then this was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (142) from the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).

As for entering the left foot first when entering the toilet, then I did not find any narration regarding it. Rather, the people of knowledge preferred it from the aspect of honoring the right. And Allāh knows best.

<sup>392</sup> Narrated by Ibn Mājah (301) from the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). It was declared weak by Al-Būsīrī in “Misbāh Az-Zujājah” (122). And Ibn As-Sunnī narrated it in “‘Amal Al-Yawm wal-Laylah” (23) from the hadīth of Abū Dharr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). Ad-Dāraqtunī declared it as weak in “Al-‘Ilal” (1096) but declared it sahīh from the words of Abū Dharr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) himself.

And Ibn Abī Shaybah (10-13) narrated it from the words of Abū Dharr, Abū Ad-Dardā and Hudhayfah (radiAllāhu ‘anhum).

And it is firmly established with Abū Dāwūd (30) from ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anha) his words (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) when exiting: “Gufrānaka (Your forgiveness).”

واستعمال العشر التي قيل إنها من الفطرة، وهي سنة أبينا إبراهيم، وهي خمس في الرأس، وخمس في البدن، فأما اللواتي في الرأس: فالمضمضة والاستنشاق والسواك وقص الشارب والفرق، وأما اللواتي في البدن: فالاستنجاء والختان وحلق العانة وتقليم الأظافر وتنف العطفين.

386. And observing the ten regarding which it is said that they are from the fitrah. And they are the Sunnah of our father Ibrāhīm (‘alayhis-salām). And they are five on the head and five on the body.

As for those that are on the head, then they are: The madmadah (gargling), istinshāq (nose rinsing), siwāk, cutting the mustache and (cutting) the difference between two rows of hair.

And as for those that are on the body, then they are: The istinjā (cleaning one’s self after emptying the bowels), circumcision, shaving the pubic region, trimming the nails and plucking the armpits.<sup>393</sup>

<sup>393</sup> ‘Abdur-Razzāq narrated in his “Tafsīr” (1/57) and said: Ma’mar narrated to us, from Ibn Tāwūs, from his father, from Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) regarding His Words:

﴿وَإِذِ ابْتَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ رَبُّهُ بِكَلِمَاتٍ فَأَتَمَّهُنَّ﴾

(Al-Baqarah 2:124)

He said: “Allāh tested him with purity; five on the head and five on the body. On the head: Siwāk, istinshāq, madmadah, trimming the mustache and the difference in the hair. And five on the body: Trimming the nails, shaving the pubic region, circumcision, istinjā when emptying the bowels and urinating, and plucking the armpits.” And its isnād is sahih.

Al-Baghawī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (1/398): “The majority of the people of knowledge explained the fitrah in this hadīth as being the Sunnah. And its interpretation is: that these traits are from the Sunan of the prophets (salawātullāhi ‘alayhim) whom we are commanded to take as examples.”

ومن السنة: تقديم الرجل اليمنى عند دخول المسجد، وتأخيرها إذا خرج، وقوله عند الدخول: اللهم صل على محمد النبي وسلم، واغفر لي ذنوبي، وافتح لي أبواب رحمتك. وإذا خرج مثل ذلك إلا أن يقول: وافتح لي أبواب فضلك.

And from the Sunnah is:

387. A man putting his right foot first when entering the masjid, and putting it last when he exits.<sup>394</sup>

And him saying when he enters: “O Allāh, send Your peace and blessing upon Muhammad the Prophet, and forgive me my sins, and open for me the doors to Your mercy.”

And when he exit (he says) the same as this, except that he (in the end) says: “And open for me the doors to Your bounty.”<sup>395</sup>

ومن السنة: الوقار في المسجد ، والسكينة عند المشي إلى الصلاة.

And from the Sunnah is:

388. Showing composure in the masjid, and having calmness when walking to the prayer.<sup>396</sup>

---

<sup>394</sup> Based upon the word of Anas ibn Malik (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “From the Sunnah is that when you enter the masjid, then you begin with your right foot. And when you exit you begin with your left foot.”

Narrated by Al-Hākim (1/218) who said: “This hadīth is saḥīh according to the conditions of Muslim.”

<sup>395</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (26419), At-Tirmidhī (314), Ibn Mājah (771) and Ibn Khuzaymah in his “Tawhīd” (425). And At-Tirmidhī said: “The hadīth of Fātimah is a hasan hadīth, but its isnād is not connected.”

And what testifies to it is, what Muslim (1599) narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) that he said: “When one of you enters the masjid, then let him say: O Allāh, open for me the doors to Your mercy. And when he exits, then let him say: O Allāh, I verily ask You from Your bounty.”

<sup>396</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Qatādah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When you come to the prayer, then it is upon you to be calm.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (635) and Muslim (1304).

وَأَلَّا يَفْرُقَ الرَّجُلُ أَصَابِعَهُ إِذَا أَرَادَ الصَّلَاةَ.

389. And that a man does not snap his fingers when he wants to pray (i.e. during the prayer).<sup>397</sup>

وَلَا يَشْبِكُ يَدَيْهِ فِيهَا.

390. And he should not intertwine his fingers during it.<sup>398</sup>

وَيَتْرِكُ الْعَبْثَ فِيهَا، وَالِاتِّفَاتِ،

391. And leaving aimless movement and turning during it.<sup>399</sup>

---

<sup>397</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not snap your fingers while you are in the prayer.” Narrated by Ibn Mājah (965) and it was declared as weak by Ibn Rajab in “Al-Fath” (3/426).

But the prohibition was established from Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) as narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (2/344) from Shu‘bah the mawlā of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: I prayed next to Ibn ‘Abbās and I snapped my fingers. Then when the prayer was over he said: “You have no mother! Do you snap your fingers while you are in the prayer?!” And its isnād is hasan, as it says in “Al-Irwā’” (2/99).

<sup>398</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ka’b ibn ‘Ujrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When one of you performs ablution and performs it excellently, and then goes out for the prayer, then he should not intertwine his two hands, for he is verily in the prayer.” Narrated by Ahmad (18103), and it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (441) and Ibn Hibbān (2036).

And based upon the hadīth of Abū Sa’id (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When one of you prays, then he should verily not intertwine his fingers. For verily, intertwining is from the Shaytān. And verily, any one of you continues to be in the prayer as long as he remains in the masjid, until he exits from it.” Narrated by Ahmad (11512) with a good isnād.

<sup>399</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) who said: I asked the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) about turning in the prayer? So he said: “This is something that the Shaytān steals from the prayer of the slave.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (751, 3291).

392. And not playing with a ring or the beard.<sup>400</sup>

ودوام الخشوع، والنظر إلى موضع السجود.

393. And a continuous khusū' (submissiveness)<sup>401</sup>, and looking at the place of sujūd (prostration).<sup>402</sup>

---

<sup>400</sup> In the "Masāil" of Imām Ahmad the riwāyah of his son Sālih (741) (The prohibition of playing with the beard in the prayer) he mentioned, with his chain of narration, from Sa'īd ibn Jubayr who said: Sa'īd (ibn Al-Musayyib) looked at a man who was standing in the prayer. He said: And he was playing with his beard. So Sa'īd said: "If his heart had been humble (and submissive), then his limbs would have been humble as well."

And Muhammad ibn Nasr narrated a similar narration in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (150) from the words of Hudhayfah (radi Allāhu 'anhu).

<sup>401</sup> Muhammad ibn Nasr said in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (p. 119): "...The people of knowledge agree upon that if the limb of his limbs is occupied with a deed other than the deeds of the prayer, or a thought, and his heart is occupied with looking into something else than the prayer, then he is deficient in the reward compared to the one who does not do that, and he is leaving something from the completion and perfection of the prayer."

<sup>402</sup> From Muhammad ibn Sīrīn who said: "They used to turn in their prayer until it was revealed:

﴿ قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ، الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ خَاشِعُونَ ﴾

"The believers will verily be successful. Those who have khusū' (submissiveness) in their prayer." (Al-Muminūn 23:1-2)

Then they lowered their gazes, and they would look at the place where they made prostration."

Narrated by At-Tabarī in "At-Tafsīr" (18/2), Muhammad ibn Nasr in "Ta'dhīm Qadr As-Salāh" (136), Ibn Al-Mundhir in "Al-Awsat" (3/460) and Al-Bayhaqī in "Al-Kubrā" (2/283).

ووضع اليمين على الشمال تحت السرة، كفعل علي بن أبي طالب -رضي الله عنه- وأمره بذلك.

394. And placing the right hand upon the left hand below the navel, just as 'Alī ibn Abī Tālib (radiAllāhu 'anhu) did and commanded.<sup>403</sup>

والجهر بـ "آمين" عند قول الإمام: "ولا الضالين"، ومد الصوت بها.

395. And saying 'āmīn' out loud when the imām says:

﴿وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ﴾

"Nor those who went astray." (Al-Fātihah 1:7)

And prolonging the voice in it.<sup>404</sup>

<sup>403</sup> He is referring to the words of 'Alī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "From the Sunnah is placing one palm over the other in the prayer below the navel." Narrated by 'Abdullāh in "Zawā'id Al-Musnad" (875) and Abū Dāwūd (756). And it was declared as weak by Al-Bayhaqī and Ibn Al-Qattān.

At-Tirmidhī said while speaking about the disagreement of the Sahābah and tābi'ūn: "And some of them believed that they should be place above the navel, while others among them believed that they should be places below the navel. And all of this is wide (in spectrum) for them."

﴿غَيْرِ الْمَغْضُوبِ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا الضَّالِّينَ﴾

"Not those upon whom (Your) anger is, nor those who went astray."
(Al-Fātihah 1:7)

Then he said: "Āmīn." And he prolonged his voice in it. Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (248) and he said: "Hadīth hasan, and many from the people of knowledge say this."

See: "Sahīh Al-Bukhārī" (Chapter: The imām saying the āmīn loud) and (Chapter: The one led in prayer saying the āmīn loud).

Al-Baghawī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (3/63): "And its (i.e. āmīn) meaning is: O Allāh, hear and answer."

وكثر ذكر الله - عز وجل - وذكر العلم في المسجد، وترك الخوض والفضول وحديث الدنيا فيه، فإن ذلك مكروه، وقد رويت فيه أحاديث غليظة صعبة، وطرق جياد صحاح ورجال ثقات منها:

396. And remembering (or mentioning) Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – much and mentioning the knowledge in the masjid. And leaving idle talk, curiosity and speaking about dunyā in it. For verily, this is makrūh (hated or disliked).

Verily, some severe and harsh ahādīth – with good and correct chains of narration and trustworthy narrators – were narrated regarding this. From this is:

ما رواه عبد الله بن مسعود عن النبي - صلى الله عليه وسلم - أنه قال: يكون في آخر الزمان قوم يجلسون في المساجد، أمامهم الدنيا، لا تجالسوهم فليس لله فيهم حاجة.

397. What 'Abdullāh ibn Mas'ud (radiAllāhu 'anhu) narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) that he said: "In the end times there will be a people who will sit in the masājid. Their imām (leader) is dunyā. Do not sit with them, because Allāh has no need for them."<sup>405</sup>

ومنها ما روى عبد الله بن عمرو أنه قال: لا تقوم الساعة حتى يجلس الناس في المساجد، ليس فيهم مؤمن، حديثهم الدنيا.

398. And from it is what 'Abdullāh ibn 'Amr narrated that he said: "The Hour will not be established until the people will sit in the masājid.

And it was narrated by Al-Hākīm in "Al-Mustadrak" (4/323) from the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhu) and he declared it as sahīh, and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

There will be no believer among them, and their conversation is about dunyā."<sup>406</sup>

ومنها ما قاله الحسن: "سيأتي على الناس زمان يجلسون في المساجد حلقا حلقا، حديثهم الدنيا، لا تجالسوهم فإن الله - عز وجل - قد تركهم من بين يديه"، فهذا كله من حديث الدنيا وأهلها في المساجد.

399. And from it is what Al-Hasan: "There will come a time upon the people in which they will sit in the masājid, gathering after gathering. Their conversation is about dunyā. Do not sit with them, for Allāh - 'azza wa jalla - has verily left them from His Hand."<sup>407</sup>

So all of this is about speaking about dunyā and the people who do this in the masājid.<sup>408</sup>

400. Selling, buying, discussing and disputing<sup>409</sup>,

<sup>406</sup> Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah in "Al-Īmān" (101), Al-Hākim (4/442) and Al-Khallāl in "As-Sunnah" (1308). And its isnād is sahīh.

<sup>408</sup> See: "Al-War" by Ahmad (p. 47) (Chapter: The veneration of the masājid and what is disliked of the deeds of dunyā in it).

<sup>410</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “Whoever hears a man inquiring about a lost item in the masjid, then let him say: ‘May Allāh not return it to you. For verily the masājid were not built for that.’” Narrated by Muslim (1197).

<sup>411</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited the recitation of poetry in the masjid...” And the hadīth has gone forth in the prohibition of selling and buying in the masjid.

Ibn Khuzaymah said in his “Sahīh”: “Chapter: The mention of the narration which proves that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) verily prohibited the recitation of some poetry in the masājid, but not all of it. Because the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) allowed for Hassan ibn Thābit to ridicule the mushrikūn and he invoked for him to be helped by the Holy Spirit (Jibrīl) as long as he was answering to the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).”

<sup>412</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Alī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “When my Ummah has five characteristics, then the catastrophe will befall them...” And he mentioned some of them: “And raising the voices in the masājid.” Until the end of the hadīth. Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2210) who declared it as weak.

See: “Sahīh Al-Bukhārī” (Chapter: Raising the voice in the masjid) and its explanation by Ibn Rajab (3/395), Ibn Abī Shaybah (3/437), ‘Abdur-Razzāq (1/437/The word and raising the voice) and Ibn Hibbān (4/529/Mentioning the reprimanding for raising the voice in the masājid due some reasons from the temporary dunyā).

<sup>413</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Amr ibn Shu‘ayb who said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited to unsheathe the sword in the masjid.” Narrated by ‘Abdur-Razzāq as it says in “Bayān Wahm wal-Īhām” (2/229) and it is a mursal hadīth.

See: Ibn Abī Shaybah (3/466/Regarding unsheathing the sword in the masjid) and ‘Abdur-Razzāq (1/443/Chapter: The weapon which is brought into the masjid).

the entering of young boys<sup>414</sup>, women<sup>415</sup>, crazy people and the one who is in junub (a state of ritual impurity)<sup>416</sup>, making use of the masjid (for something which it is not intended for), using it as a place of production and trade, similar to a shop:

<sup>414</sup> The hadīth about prohibiting young boys to enter the masājīd is weak, and its takhrīj will come.

And in “Qiyām Al-Layl” (p. 243) Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah said: “If a boy has not yet reached seven years and he is prohibited from entering the masjid, then there is no harm in that. As for the first row, then they are prohibited from that. And it is not allowed to expel a boy who has reached seven years from the masjid, when the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) have ordered him to pray (in the hadīth). As for keeping the young boys away from the masājīd when there is no prayer, then this is a legislated Sunnah, whether they have reaches the age of seven or more or less, due to what is feared of their noise and play. But if they come to attend the prayer, then they are not prohibited.”

<sup>415</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth that prohibits women from going out to the masājīd in a gathering of men. Ibn Hajr said in “At-Talkhīs Al-Habīr” (644): “It has no origin.”

And it is verily established from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) that he prohibited those who prevent them from going to the masājīd, as it says in the hadīth of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not prevent (or prohibit) the female slaves of Allāh from the masājīd of Allāh.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5238) and Muslim (921).

﴿ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَقْرَبُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنْتُمْ سُكَارَى حَتَّى تَعْلَمُوا مَا تَقُولُونَ وَلَا جُنُبًا إِلَّا عَابِرِي سَبِيلٍ حَتَّى تَغْتَسِلُوا ﴾

“O you who believe, do not approach the prayer while you are drunk, until you know what you are saying. And not when you are in a state of junub (major impurity), except for the traveler, until you wash your whole body.”

(An-Nisā 4:43)

And the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Turn the direction of these house from the masjid. For I verily do not allow the masjid for a menstruating woman nor someone in junub.”

Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (232) and Ibn Khuzaymah (1327) who declared it sahīh.

And Imām Ahmad and other permitted for the one in junub to stay in the masjid if he performs ablution. “Masāil Al-Kawzaj” (86). And he used the words of ‘Atā Al-Khurasānī as an argument: “I saw men from the Sahābah (radiAllāhu ‘anhum) who would sit in the masjid while they were in a state of junub, if they performed the ablution for the prayer.” As-Zarkashī said in “I’lām As-Sājid” (p. 315): “It was narrated by Ahmad and its isnād is hasan according to the conditions of Muslim.”

All of this is makrūh (disliked or hated), and the one who does this has disobeyed the prohibition of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and his severity against the one who does this.<sup>417</sup>

ومما نهي عنه الرسول -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وغلظ على فاعله:

And from that which he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited and was harsh against the one who did it is:

أن يياشر الرجل الرجل في ثوب واحد ليس بينهما غيره.

401. That a man comes close to (or embraces) another man who is only wearing one garment, and there is nothing else between them.<sup>418</sup>

ولعن أيضا المتجردين في إزار.

402. And he also cursed a man who is naked under his waist garment.<sup>419</sup>

---

<sup>417</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of Wāthilah ibn Al-Ashqa' (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Keep away from your masājid your young boys, your crazy people, your evil people, your selling, your disputes, your raised voices, the establishment of your punishments and the unsheathing of your swords. And place places of purification at its doors and perfume them on the days of Jumu'ah." Narrated by Ibn Mājah (799).

Ibn Rajab said in "Al-Fath" (2/558): "Its isnād is weak."

ونهى عن المكامعة: وهو أن يتعري الرجلان في ثوب واحد.

403. And he prohibited the mukāma'ah: And that is that two men who are only wearing one garment lays down together.<sup>420</sup>

ونهى أن يتعري الرجل في بيت أو غيره.

404. And he prohibited that a man should take off his clothes in a house, and (also) others.<sup>421</sup>

أو ينظر إلى عورة أحد غيره.

405. Or that he looks at someone else's 'awrah.<sup>422</sup>

وأن يحدث الرجل بما يخلو به مع امرأته.

406. And that a man speaks of what he does when he is alone with his wife.<sup>423</sup>

---

<sup>420</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Rayhānah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "That he hated ten characteristics – and he mentioned some of it - ... and that man lays down with another man, and that a woman lays down with another woman, while there is not garment between them." Narrated by Ahmad (17209), Abū Dāwūd (4051) and Ad-Dārimī (2690).

<sup>421</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Bahz, from his father, from his grandfather in which he said: I said: "What if any of us are alone (can we then take of our clothes)?" He said: "Allāh – tabāraka wa ta'ālā – is more deserving that you are shy from Him." Narrated by Ahmad (20034) and At-Tirmidhī (2729) who said: "Hadīth hasan" And Al-Bukhārī mentioned in his commentary in "Sahīh Al-Bukhārī".

<sup>422</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "A man cannot look at the 'awrah of another man..." Narrated by Muslim (694).

<sup>423</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Sa'īd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Verily, from the worst of people in status with Allāh on the Day of Judgment is a man who approaches his wife and she approaches him, and then he reveals her secrets." Narrated by Muslim (3532).

وأن يخذف الرجل بالحجر، ويرمي بالمدر في الأمصار.

407. And that a man throws pebbles with the tips of his fingers, and throws pieces of dry clay (or dirt) in the cities.<sup>424</sup>

ونهى عن اليمين الكاذبة.

408. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited from swearing while lying.<sup>425</sup>

وأن تباع الثمرة حتى تزهو.

409. And to sell the fruits (i.e. dates)<sup>426</sup> before they flourish, and that is: that they become yellow and red.

---

<sup>424</sup> Based upon the hadīth of 'Abdullāh ibn Mughaffal (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited throwing pebbles. And he said: "It does not kill a pray, it does not wound the enemy and it does not gauge out the eye and break the tooth." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5479) and Muslim (5091)

<sup>425</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "A lying oath may help you sell goods, but it takes away (blessing) in the profit." Narrated by Ahmad (7208). And the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The major sins are: Associating partners with Allāh, false oaths..." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (6871).

<sup>426</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "That the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited selling the fruits of palm trees until they flourish." It was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (2083) who said: "This means: until they become red."

At-Tirmidhī (3/529) said: "And acting upon this for the people of knowledge from the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) and others than them is, that they disliked selling the fruits before they appeared to be good (and useful). And this is the opinion of Ash-Shāfi'ī, Ahmad and Ishāq."

410. And selling a dog, monkey and pig.<sup>427</sup>

ولعب النرد والشطرنج.

411. And playing backgammon and chess.<sup>428</sup>

---

<sup>427</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Mas'ūd Al-Ansārī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "That the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited the price of a dog." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5428).

And the prohibition of selling a pig is based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that he heard the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) say of the day of victory in Makkah: "Verily, Allāh and His Messenger have prohibited selling alcohol, self-dead animals, the pig and statues..." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (4226).

And as for selling a monkey, then Ibn 'Abdil-Barr said in "At-Tamhīd" (1/157): "I do not know any disagreement between the scholars of the Muslims (regarding the fact) that a monkey is not eaten and it is not allowed to sell it. Because it is from that which there is no benefit in."

<sup>428</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Mūsā (radiAllāhu 'anhu). The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Whoever plays backgammon, he has verily disobeyed of Allāh and His Messenger." Narrated by Ahmad (19521) and Abū Dāwūd (4938). And what testifies to it is, what Muslim (5958) narrated from Buraydah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Whoever plays backgammon, then it is as if he dipped his hand in the flesh of a pig and its blood."

As for the prohibition of playing chess, then no hadīth from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) regarding it has been established. But the prohibition of it was established from the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum).

I said: And from that is when Ibn 'Umar was asked about chess, so he said: "It is worse than backgammon." Narrated by Al-Ājurī in "An-Nahī 'an An-Nard wash-Shatranj" (29) with my tahqīq, and its isnād is sahih.

And Harb said in his "Masā'il" (2/968): It was said to Ahmad: "Do you see any harm in playing chess?" He said: "All of harm." It was said: "The people of the thughūr play it during wars." He said: "It is sinning."

وأن يخلو الرجل بامرأة غير ذات محرم.

412. And that a man is alone with a women who is not a mahram.<sup>429</sup>

وأن يقول الرجل : لا نزال بخير ما بقيت لنا.

413. And that a man says: “We will remain in a good state, as long as you are among us.”<sup>430</sup>

وما شاء الله وشئت

414. And (that a man says): “Whatever Allāh and you want.”<sup>431</sup>

وأن يحلف الرجل بغير الله.

415. And that a man swears (or makes an oath) by others than Allāh.<sup>432</sup>

---

Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5233).

<sup>430</sup> In “Zawāid Az-Zuhd” by Ibn Al-Mubārak (54): Sufyān narrated to us, from Abū Al-Wāzī’ Al-Hindī who said: I heard Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) when a man said to him: “The people will remain in a good state as long as you live.” So he got angry and said: “I am assuming that you are from ‘Irāq. And do you know what the son of your mother will close his door for?!’” And its isnād is hasan.

And in “Tārīkh Ar-Raqqah” (39): Abū Malīh said: A man said to Maymūn ibn Mihrān: “O Abū Ayyūb, the people will remain in a good state as long as Allāh lets you live.” So Maymūn said to him: “Go to what you need to do, O man. For the people will remain in a good state as long as they fear their Lord.”

<sup>431</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that a man said: “O Messenger of Allāh, whatever Allāh and you want.” So the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Have you made me an equal to Allāh?! Rather, it is what Allāh alone wants.” Narrated by Ahmad (2521).

<sup>432</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: I heard the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) say: “Whoever swears by others than Allāh, has committed kufr – or committed shirk.” Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (1535) and he said: “Hadīth hasan.”

416. And that he sharpens the blade while the sheep is looking.<sup>433</sup>

وأن يستعمل الأجير حتى يعلم كم أجرته.

417. And that he hires a worker before he knows what his salary is.<sup>434</sup>

وعن النجش: وهو أن يزيد الرجل في السلعة وليست من حاجته.

418. And the najash. And that is that a man increases (the price of) an item while he has no need for that.<sup>435</sup>

---

<sup>433</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): That the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said regarding the one who sharpens his blade in front of his slaughter animal: “Do you want to kill it several times?! Why do you not sharpen your blade before you lay it down.” Narrated by Al-Hākim (4/231) and he declared it as sahīh and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

<sup>434</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “That the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited hiring a worker before his salary is known to you.” Narrated by Ahmad (11656) and Abū Dāwūd in “Al-Marāsīl” (181).

Al-Haythamī said in “Majma’ Az-Zawāid” (4/97): “Ahmad narrated it, and An-Nasāī narrated it as mawqūf (i.e. ascribed to Abū Sa‘īd). And the narrators of Ahmad are narrators of sahīh, except that Ibrāhīm An-Nakha‘ī did not hear from Abū Sa‘īd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) according to what I think.”

And An-Nasāī (3857) narrated it as mawqūf. Abū Zur‘ah Ar-Rāzī said: “The correct is the mawqūf from Abū Sa‘īd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).” “Al-‘Ilal” by Ibn Abī Hātim (1118).

<sup>435</sup> Based upon the words of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited the najash.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (2142).

وعن أكل لحوم الجلالة وألبانها وبيضها من الإبل والبقر والغنم والدجاج،

419. And eating the meat of the jalālah (an animal that feeds on filth), its milk and its eggs, from camels, cows, sheep and chickens.<sup>436</sup>

وقيل: تحبس الإبل أربعين يوماً، والبقر ثلاثين يوماً، والغنم سبعة أيام، والدجاج ثلاثة أيام.

420. And it is said: The camel is detained for forty days, the cow for thirty days, the sheep for seven days and the chicken for three days.<sup>437</sup>

ونهى عن بيع الغرر.

421. And selling the gharar (something unknown in substance, price or expiration).<sup>438</sup>

<sup>436</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited the jalālah, riding it and eating its meat.” Narrated by Ahmad (7039) and it is a sahīh hadīth.

<sup>437</sup> Ibrāhīm Al-Harbī (d. 285h) said in “Gharīb Al-Hadīth” (1/115): “And he verily prohibited its milk because the one who drinks it will find the taste of what it has eaten. And likewise with its meat. And he prohibited from riding it because it sweats and then the smell of it is found in its sweat. And the rider cannot be free from this befalling him or that he smell the smell. But if he can protect himself from this, then it is allowed to ride it, but not allowed to drink its milk nor to eat its meat, except if he makes something with it which will remove it.”

See: “Gharīb Al-Hadīth” (1/115), ‘Abdur-Razzāq (4/521), “Al-Mughnī” (13/348) and “Sharh As-Sunnah” (252).

<sup>438</sup> Based upon the words of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited... selling the gharar.” Narrated by Muslim (3800).

423. And striking the face of an animal, and (hot-) branding it.<sup>440</sup>

وأن ييصق في وجه إنسان.

424. And that you spit in the face of a person.<sup>441</sup>

---

<sup>439</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Prohibited is selling with the condition of a pre-taken loan, stipulating two conditions in a sale, the profit from something which is not in your possession and selling something you do not have.” Narrated by Ahmad (6671) and At-Tirmidhī (1234) who said: “Hadīth hasan sahih.”

Imām Ahmad said: “Two conditions in a sale” “(This means:) I am selling you this slave-boy on the conditions that when I have sold him to you I have more right to him (than you) and that he serves me for one year (after the sale).” “Masāil Al-Kawsaj (1783)

<sup>441</sup> Perhaps he is referring to the general command of honoring the face and the prohibition of making it ugly.

Muhammad ibn Nasr narrated in “Ta’dhīm Qadr As-Salāh” (121) with a hasan isnād from Abū Sa’īd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Would any of you like to meet someone who then would spit in his face? Verily, any of you when he gets up to pray he is standing before his Lord, and the angel is to his right. So he should not spit in front of him, nor to his right.”

And it was established from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) that he said when mentioning the Dajjāl: “... And he is verily one-eyed. And verily, your Lord – ‘azza wa jalla – is not one-eyed. And whoever meets him, then let him spit in his face.”

<sup>442</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When a man calls his wife to his bed and she refuses to come, then the angels curse her until morning.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5193).

<sup>443</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The signs of the hypocrite are three: When he speaks he lies, when he promises he breaks (the promise) and when he is entrusted with something he betrays.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (33) and Muslim (107).

﴿وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَنْفَقُوا لَمْ يُسْرِفُوا وَلَمْ يَقْتُرُوا وَكَانَ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ قَوَامًا﴾

“And those who when they spend are not excessive nor are they stingy, and (instead) are moderate between this.” (Al-Furqān 25:67)

At-Tabarī said in “At-Tafsīr” (19/38): “And the correct opinion in this is the opinion of the one who says: The excessiveness in spending which Allāh meant in this place is, what exceeds the limit of what Allāh has allowed for His slaves and what is above it. And the stinginess is what is insufficient in what Allāh has commanded (of spending). And the qawām (moderate) is in between this.”

<sup>445</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever takes the dunyā as his focus (or worry), then Allāh will disperse his affairs and place his poverty between his eyes. And nothing of dunyā will reach him, except what was written for him.” Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2465) and Ibn Mājah (4105). And he said in “Misbāh Az-Zujājah” (4/212): “This isnād is saḥīh and its narrators are trustworthy.”

<sup>446</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever believes in Allāh and the Last Day, then he should not let his wife enter the public bath.” Narrated by Ahmad (14651), At-Tirmidhī (2801), Abū Ya’lā in his “Musnad” (1925) and Al-Hākim (4/288) who declared it as saḥīh and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

443. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Does the one who raises his head before the imām not fear that Allāh will turn his head into the head of a donkey?”<sup>461</sup>

---

<sup>458</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas ibn Malik (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Be moderate in the prostration, and none of you should flatten (or stretch out) his arms like the flattening of a dog.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (822) and Muslim (1037).

<sup>459</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “My close friend prohibited me from three things... and squatting like the squatting of a monkey.” It has gone forth in number (437).

<sup>460</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The imām was made to be followed, so do not differ from him...” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (722) and Muslim (851). And the hadīth of Anas ibn Mālik (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “O people, I am verily your imām, so do not precede me in bowing and prostrating...” Narrated by Ahmad (11997) and Muslim (892).

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: من رفع أو وضع قبل إمامه فلا صلاة له.

444. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever raises [his head] or lowers [it] before his imām, he has no prayer.”<sup>462</sup>

ونهى عن الاختصار في الصلاة.

445. And he prohibited ikhtisār (i.e. placing one’s hands on the waist) during the prayer.<sup>463</sup>

ونهى أن يغسل باطن قدمه بباطن كفه اليمنى مرة بعد مرة.

446. And he prohibited washing the bottom of his foot with the palm of his right hand again and again.<sup>464</sup>

---

<sup>462</sup> Ibn Hajr mentioned it in “Al-Matālib Al-‘Āliyah” (415) and Al-Būsīrī said in “Al-Ittihāf Al-Mahrah” (1064): “This isnād is weak due to the weakness of Muhammad ibn Jābir.”

And it was narrated as mawqūf (from the words of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu)) by Malik in “Al-Muwatta” (245), ‘Abdur-Razzāq (3753) and Ibn Abī Shaybah (7216). And most of the memorizers are upon that it is mawqūf, such as Al-‘Uqaylī, Ad-Dāraquṭnī (1380), Ibn ‘Abdil-Barr in “At-Tamhīd” (13/59) and others.

And it was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1219) and his wording is: “He prohibited the khasr in the prayer.”

And Muslim (545) and his wording is: “That he prohibited that a man places his hands on his waist while praying.”

<sup>464</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When one of you performs ablution, then he should not wash his feet with his right hand.” Narrated by Ibn ‘Adī in “Al-Kāmil” (3/254). And this is a fabricated hadīth as it is stated in “Bayān Al-Wahm wal-Īhām” (900) by Ibn Al-Qattān.

447. And [he prohibited] yawning<sup>465</sup> and nafkh (i.e. exiting air from the mouth along with a sound that resembles speech, with two letters).<sup>466</sup>

وتقليب الحصى فيها،

448. And turning pebbles during it (i.e. the prayer).<sup>467</sup>

---

<sup>465</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Yawning in the prayer is from the Shaytān, so if one of you yawns then let him withhold it as much as he can." Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (370) and he said: "Hadīth hasan sahih."

He said: "And verily did a group of the people of knowledge dislike yawning in the prayer. Ibrāhīm said: 'I verily repel the yawning with clearing my throat.'"

I said: The foundation of the hadīth is in the two "Sahīh" without the mention of the prayer.

<sup>466</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Mūsā (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Four things are from harshness..."

And from it he mentioned: "And nafkh in the prayer." Narrated by Al-Bayhaqī (2/285), and Al-Bukhārī said: "This hadīth is rejected, they are mixing up in it."

And the disliking of nafkh is established from Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu).

Al-Kawsaj said in his "Masā'il" (159): I said to Ahmad ibn Hanbal: "*The nafkh in the prayer?*" He said: "Yes, by Allāh. I verily dislike (or hate) it very much. Except that I do not say that he should cut off the prayer, because it is not speech." Ishāq said: "The same as he said."

<sup>467</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Dharr (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "When one of you gets up to pray, then the mercy verily lies in him facing the correct direction. So he should not touch any pebbles." Narrated by Ahmad (21330), Abū Dāwūd (945) and At-Tirmidhī (379) who said: "Hadīth hasan." And Ibn Khuzaymah (913) declared it as sahih.

Al-Baghawī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah" (3/159): "And this hadīth is hasan. And the majority of people of knowledge disliked touching pebbles during the prayer. And there verily came an exception in doing this one time, when smoothening the place of prostration."

I said: He is referring to the hadīth of Mu'ayqib (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) mentioned touching in the masjid – meaning: pebbles while praying – and he said: "If you must do so, then only one time." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1207) and Muslim (1156).

وأن يمسح جبهته من التراب قبل أن يسلم.

449. And that he wipes his forehead clean of dust before he says the salām.<sup>468</sup>

وأن يرفع بصره إلى السماء في الصلاة.

450. And that he raises his sight to the heaven during the prayer.<sup>469</sup>

وأن يغمض عينيه في السجود.

451. And that he closes his eyes during prostration.<sup>470</sup>

---

<sup>468</sup> It was narrated from Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “It is verily from harshness that a man wipes his forehead often before he finishes the prayer.” Narrated by Ibn Mājah (964). And it was declared as weak by Al-Būsīrī, Al-Haythamī and Ibn Rajab. And this information was verily correctly narrated from the words of Ibn Mas’ūd (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) as Ibn Rajab said in “Al-Fath” (7/359).

And Ibn Rajab said in “Al-Fath” (7/357): “They agreed upon that not doing it in the prayer is best, because it resembles moving aimlessly.”

<sup>469</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “What is wrong with some people who raises their sights to the heaven during their prayer.” And his words became harsher until he said: “They will verily stop doing this, or their sights will verily be taken away.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (750) and Muslim (429).

<sup>470</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Do not close your eyes when prostrating, for this is verily from the deeds of the Jews.” Narrated by Ad-Daylamī in “Al-Firdaws” (7317). And this is a fabricated hadīth. In its isnād is Abū Bakr An-Naqqāsh who is accused of lying. “Al-Mughnī min Ad-Du’afā” (5428). And in the “Musannaḥ” of ‘Abdur-Razzāq (3329) Mujāhid said: “It is disliked for a man to close his eyes in the prayer, just as the Jews close (their eyes).”

Harb Al-Karmānī said in his “Masāil” (1/446): I heard Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah say: “Do not close your eyes while you pray, for it is disliked. Because the Jews do that.”

Ibn Al-Mundhir said in “Al-Awsat” (3/462): “And some of them disliked closing the eyes during the prayer. And from those who disliked that are: Mujāhid, Ahmad and Ishāq. And Al-Awzā’ī said: “That is not from the guidance of the prayer.””

452. And that he recites (Qurān) in the bowing [and prostration].<sup>471</sup>

ويكف شعرا أو ثوبا.

453. Or to hold back hair or a garment (when prostrating).<sup>472</sup>

وعن السدل.

454. And the sadal (i.e. leaving his garment hanging down without joining its two edges between his hand).<sup>473</sup>

واشتمال الصماء.

455. And ishtimāl as-sammā (i.e. that he wraps himself only with one garment without wearing anything else. Then he raises it from one side and puts it on his knees so his private parts become visible).<sup>474</sup>

---

<sup>471</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “...And I was verily prohibited from reciting the Qurān when bowing or prostrating.” Narrated by Muslim (1007).

<sup>472</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “I was commanded to perform prostration on seven (body parts), and not to hold back any hair or a garment.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (816) and Muslim (1031).

<sup>473</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “That the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited sadal in the prayer.” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (643) and At-Tirmidhī (379). It was declared as ṣaḥīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (772) and Ibn Hibbān (2289).

At-Tirmidhī said: “The people of knowledge verily disagreed regarding the sadal in the prayer, and some of them disliked the sadal in the prayer. And they said: ‘The Jews do like that.’ And some of them said: ‘Verily sadal is disliked if he is only wearing one garment. But if he leaves his garment hanging over a shirt, then there is no harm in this. And this is the opinion of Ahmad. And Ibn Al-Mubārak disliked the sadal in the prayer.’”

وَأَنْ يَصَلِيَ مَحْلُولَ الْإِزَارِ، إِذَا لَمْ يَكُنْ عَلَى قَمِيصِهِ رِدَاءَ وَمِنْ تَحْتِهِ إِزَارًا.

456. And that a man prays with unfastened buttons if he does not have a robe over his shirt and a waist garment under it.<sup>475</sup>

وَأَنْ يَصَلِيَ فِي قَمِيصٍ رَقِيقٍ لَيْسَ تَحْتَهُ غَيْرُهُ.

457. And that he prays in a thin shirt with nothing underneath it.<sup>476</sup>

<sup>475</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Salamah ibn Al-Akwa' (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: I said: "O Messenger of Allāh, I am verily a man who hunts. So can I pray in one garment?" He said: "Yes, but fasten it even with a thorn." Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (632). And it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (777), Ibn Hibbān (2294) and Al-Hākim (1/249).

I said: But if he is wearing more than one garment so that none of his 'awrah will become apparent, then he can pray with unfastened buttons, just as this was established from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam). Because Ibn Khuzaymah verily narrated in his "Sahīh" (779) from Zayd ibn Aslam who said: I saw Ibn 'Umar praying with unfastened button, so I asked him about this, so he said: "I saw the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) doing it."

<sup>476</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to say: "Pray in a single shirt if it is not thin and see-through. And fasten it."

Narrated by Ibn 'Adī in "Al-Kāmil (2/446) and it is weak. In its isnād is Harām ibn 'Uthmān. Ahmad said: "The people left his hadīth."

As-Shāfi'ī said: "Narrating from Harām is harām (forbidden)." "Al-Mīzān" (1/468)

And Ash-Shāfi'ī said in "Al-Umm" (1/90): "If he prays in a shirt which is see-through, then his prayer is invalid."

And Al-Kawsaj (284) asked Imām Ahmad: "A man prays in a shirt and he is not wearing anything else?" He said: "If it is a thick shirt and it is not see-through so his 'awrah is seen." Ishāq said: "The same as he said."

وأن يتخطى الناس في الصلاة.

458. And that he passes over people in the prayer.<sup>477</sup>

وأن يقوم الرجل في الصف الثاني وله في الصف الأول فرجة.

459. And that a man stands in the second row while there is a gap for him in the first row.<sup>478</sup>

وأن يعتمد الرجل على الحائط في الصلاة.

460. And that a man leans against the wall during the prayer.<sup>479</sup>

---

<sup>477</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn Busr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: A man came (late) on the day of Jumu‘ah, and he was stepping over the necks of people (to reach the front rows) while the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) was delivering a sermon. So the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Sit down. For you have verily harmed (people) and you are late.” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (1118) and others. And it is a sahīh hadīth.

And it is not hidden that a man is in the prayer while he is waiting to perform the prayer, just as the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said. And Allāh knows best.

<sup>478</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Establish the rows, for you are verily standing in the rows of the angels. And stand shoulder to shoulder and close the gaps... And whoever connects a row then Allāh – tabāraka wa ta‘ālā – will connect him. And whoever cuts off a row, then Allāh will cut him off.” Narrated by Ahmad (5724) and Abū Dāwūd (666). And it is a sahīh hadīth.

<sup>479</sup> I did not find a hadīth regarding this issue, but there are many narrations from the Salaf regarding the prohibition for the one who prays to lean against the wall during his prayer, except due to a deficiency.

See: The “Musannaf” of Ibn Abī Shaybah (2/501/A man who leans against the wall while he is praying) and the “Musannaf” of ‘Abdur-Razzāq (1/277). And in “Al-War’” (315) Al-Marrūdī said: I asked ‘Abdul-Wahhāb about a man who is praying and then becomes exhausted and then leans against the wall. So he said: “He should not do that. He should not lean against the wall.” I said: “What should he do?” He said: “He should sit down for a while and then get up.”

وأن يصلي الرجل على حائط في الصلاة.

461. [And that man prays upon a wall in the prayer].

وأن يصلي الرجل في الحمام، ومعاطن الإبل، وقارعة الطريق، والمقبرة، والمجزرة، والمزبلة، وفوق ظهر بيت الله الحرام.

462. And that a man prays in a bathroom (i.e. places of washing and bathing), the dwelling places of camels, qāri'ah at-tariq (i.e. places on the road which are traversed on, such as: markets, streets and passages for travel), graveyards, places of slaughtering, landfills and upon the roof of the Holy House of Allāh.<sup>480</sup>

---

<sup>480</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited praying in seven places: Landfills, places of slaughtering, graveyards, roadbeds, bathroom, dwelling places of camels and above the House of Allāh." Narrated by Ay-Tirmidhī (346) and Ibn Mājah (746).

And it was declared as weak by At-Tirmidhī, Al-Būsīrī, Al-Bayhaqī and others. But it was correctly narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) that he prohibited performing the prayer in certain places. And from those are graveyards and bathroom. Based upon his (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) words: "All of the earth is a masjid (place for making sujūd), except the graveyard and the bathroom." Narrated by Ahmad (11784) and At-Tirmidhī (317). It was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (791) Ibn Hibbān (2321) and Al-Hākim (920).

And the prohibition of praying in the dwelling places of camels is also correct. He (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "You can pray in the dwelling places of sheep, but do not pray in the dwelling places of camels." Narrated by Ahmad (10611), and it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (795) and Ibn Hibbān (1384).

And the prohibition of prayer in qāri'ah at-tariq then what testifies to it is what Ibn Mājah (328) narrated from the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "That the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited praying in qāri'ah at-tariq..." Until the end of the hadīth. He said in "Misbāh Az-Zujājah" (134): "Its isnād is weak due to the weakness of Lahī'ah and his shaykh, but the text has many correct witnesses (i.e. other ahādīth that testify to its meaning)."

وَأَنْ يَنْصَرِفَ الرَّجُلُ مِنَ الصَّلَاةِ وَهُوَ شَاكٍ فِيهَا.

463. And that a man exits the prayer while he is doubting it (i.e. that some of it is missing).<sup>481</sup>

ولعن -صلى الله عليه وسلم- الواشمة والمستوشمة: وهي التي تضرب الخضرة وتضرب لها، والواصلة والمستوصلة: وهي التي تشد القرامل وتشدُّ لها، والنامصة والمتنمصة: وهي التي تنتف الشعر وتنتف لها، والواشرة والموتشرة: وهي التي تفلج الأسنان وتفلج لها.

464. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) cursed the wāshimah and the mutawashshimah. And they are the tattooer, and the one who gets the tattoo done.

And the wāsilah and the mastūsilah. And they are the one who attaches hair extensions, and the one who has it attached.

And the nāmisah and the mutanammissah. And they are the one who plucks the hair, and the one who has it plucked.

And the wāshirah and the mutashirah. And they are the one who cleaves the teeth (and sharpen them) and the one who has them cleaved.<sup>482</sup>

<sup>481</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) in which the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "There is no ighrār (insufficiency) in the prayer." Narrated by Ahmad (9937). Ahmad said: I asked Abū 'Amr Ash-Shaybānī about this hadīth, so he said: "There is verily no insufficiency in the prayer. And this meaning of insufficiency is: that he does no exit the prayer while he thinks that some of it is missing until he is upon certainty that it is completed."

<sup>482</sup> The hadīth was narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5947) and Muslim (5622) and their wording is: "Cursed are the wāsilah, the mastūsilah, the wāshimah and the mastūshimah." And in another wording: "Cursed are the wāshimāt, the mutanammissāt and the cleaver of teeth for beautification who change the creation of Allāh." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (4886) and Muslim (5624).

And in the "Musnad" of Ahmad (3945) from the hadīth of Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "I heard the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibiting the one plucking (facial hair), the cleaver of teeth, the one who attaches hair and the one who tattoos (or dyes)."

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : أيما امرأة وضعت ثوبها في غير بيت زوجها فقد هتكت سترها المستور بينها وبين ربها.

465. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Any women who takes off her clothes in another (home) than the home of her husband, she has verily removed her hidden veil between her and her Lord.”<sup>483</sup>

* وما أدب به أمته -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وندبهم فيه إلى معالي الأخلاق ومكارم الأفعال.

* And from that with which he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) disciplined his Ummah, and he assigned to them of high level manners and honorable deeds is:

وأن يأكل من ذروة القصعة، وقال: وإن البركة تنزل في وسطها.

467. And that he eats from the center of the dish (of food). And he said: “Verily the blessing descends upon the center of it.”<sup>485</sup>

---

<sup>483</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (24140), Abū Dāwūd (4010) and At-Tirmidhī (2803) from the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā). At-Tirmidhī said: “This is a hasan hadīth.” And Al-Hākim declared it as sahīh and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

<sup>484</sup> Based upon the hadīth ‘Umar ibn Abī Salamah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: I was a young boy in the room of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and my hand would be reckless on the plate. So the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said to me: “... and eat from what is in front of you.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5376) and Muslim (5317).

<sup>485</sup> Narrated by Ahmad (2439) and At-Tirmidhī (1805) from the hadīth of Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: He (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Eat the dish from its sides and do not eat from its middle. For verily, the blessing descends upon its center.” At-Tirmidhī said: “Hadīth hasan sahīh.”

وأمر بغسل اليد قبل الطعام وبعده وقال : إنه ينفي الفقر.

468. And he commanded to wash the hands before (eating) the food and after it.<sup>486</sup> And he said: "It verily wards off poverty."<sup>487</sup>

وقال أيضا: أيما قوم أدمنوا الوضوء قبل الطعام وبعده إلا أذهب الله بذلك عنهم الفقر.

469. And he also said: "Any people who are devoted to (performing) ablution before the food and after it, then Allāh will remove poverty from them."<sup>488</sup>

---

<sup>486</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth of Salman (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The blessing of the food (lies in performing) ablution before it and after it." Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (3761) and At-Tirmidhī (1846). And it was declared as weak by Ahmad, Abū Dāwūd and At-Tirmidhī.

And the issue of washing the hands before (eating) food and after it, is an issue of disagreement among the people of knowledge.

Ibn Al-Qayyim said in "Tahdhīb As-Sunan" (10/234): "And in this issue there are two opinions among the people of knowledge. One of them is that it is preferred to wash the hands before the food. And the second is, that it is not preferred. And they are both in the madhhab of Ahmad and others than him. And the correct is that it is not preferred."

And in "Al-Jāmi'" by Ibn 'Abdil-Hakam (7) Ibn Wahb said: I heard Mālik when he was asked about washing the hands before the food? So he said: "I verily dislike that." So it was said to him: "Do you consider this to be from the deeds of the foreigners?" So he said: "Yes."

<sup>487</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth of Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The ablution before the food and after it wards off poverty, and it is from the Sunan of the messengers." Narrated by At-Tabarānī in "Al-Awsat" (7166). Al-Haythamī said in "Majma' Az-Zawā'id" (5/24): "In it is Nahshal ibn Sa'īd, and he is left (in hadīth)." And see the one after it. And in "Sharh As-Sunnah" by Al-Baghawī (1/350): "Al-Hasan said: 'The ablution before the food wards off poverty, and after it wards of insanity. And what is intended with it is: washing the hands.' Qatādah said: 'Whoever washes his hands has verily performed ablution (in this context).'"

<sup>488</sup> I did not find it with this wording. But Ibn Mājah (3260) narrated from the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) who said: "Whoever loves that Allāh increases the goodness in his home, then let him perform ablution when his dinner comes (to him) and when it is lifted." Abū Zur'ah said: "This hadīth is rejected." "Ilal Al-Hadīth" by Ibn Abī Hātim.

وأمر أن يأكل الرجل مما ينتثر تحت الخوان، وقال : من أكل ذلك نفي عنه الفقر وعن ولده الحمق.

470. And he commanded that a man eat from what (fell down and became) scattered below the table. And he said: “Whoever eats this, then poverty is warded off from him and stupidity (is warded off) from his child.”<sup>489</sup>

ونهى أن ينام الرجل وهو أغمر اليد.

471. And he prohibited that a man sleeps while he has grease (from meat) on his hand.<sup>490</sup>

وأن يطعم وينام وهو جنب.

472. And that he eats or sleeps while he is junub (i.e. in a state of major impurity).<sup>491</sup>

<sup>489</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth: “Whoever eats what falls from the table then poverty is warded off from him and stupidity is warded off from his child.” Narrated by Al-Khatīb in “Tārīkh Baghdad” (4/91) and Ibn Al-Jawzī in “Al-‘Ilal Al-Mutanāhiyah” (1111). And it is a fabricated hadīth.

<sup>490</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam): “Whoever sleeps and he has grease on his hand which has not washed off, and then something (bad) befalls him, then he should verily blame no-one but himself.” Narrated by Ahmad (7569) and Abū Dāwūd (3854). Al-Baghawī declared it as hasan in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (11/317) and Ibn Hibbān (1354) declared it as sahīh. And he said in “Al-Fath” (9/579): “It is sahīh according to the conditions of Muslim.”

And his words: “And he has grease on his hand.” This means: The dirtiness of meat and its smell. See: “Tāj Al-‘Arūs” (13/258).

<sup>491</sup> I did not find any hadīth that is clear in the prohibition of eating and drinking for the one who is junub before he washes.

And in the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu ‘anhu): “That the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) allowed for the one in junub who wants to eat, drink or sleep (to do so) if he performed the ablution of the prayer.” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (225), At-Tirmidhī (613) who said: “Hasan sahīh.” And see the one after it.

وكان يحب لمن أراد أن ينام أو يأكل وهو جنب أن يتوضأ وضوءه للصلاة .

473. And he used to like for the one who wants to sleep or eat while he is junub, that he performs the ablution of the prayer.<sup>492</sup>

ونحى - صلى الله عليه وسلم - عن القران بين التمرتين ؛ وذلك لما يدخل على فاعل ذلك من سوء المأكلة .

474. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited comparing two dates<sup>493</sup>, and this is due to what enters upon the one who does this of being a bad eating companion (due to stinginess and greed).

وأن ينظر الرجل إلى لقمة مؤاكله .

475. And that a man looks at the bite (or morsel) of the one he is eating with.<sup>494</sup>

---

<sup>492</sup> From 'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) who said: "When the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) was junub and he wanted to eat or sleep, he would perform the ablution of the prayer." Narrated by Muslim (626).

And from Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhumā) that 'Umar said: "O Messenger of Allāh, should any of us sleep while being junub?" He said: "Yes, if he performs ablution." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (289) and Muslim (628).

<sup>493</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited that a man compares two dates before he gives permission to his companions (to start eating)." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (2489) and Muslim (5104).

<sup>494</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū 'Umar the mawlā of 'Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The sight of any of you should verily not follow the bite of his brother." Narrated by Abū Nu'aym in "Ma'rifah As-Sahābah" (6906) and its isnād is weak. In its isnād is Yahyā ibn Muslim. Abū Hātim said: "An old unknown man."

وكان -صلى الله عليه وسلم- يجب أن يغطي الثريد، وقال : إن البركة تنزل فيه .

476. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to like covering the tharīd (i.e. a type of food). And he said: "Verily, the blessing descends upon it."<sup>495</sup>

ونهى عن أكله حارا .

477. And he prohibited eating (the food) while it is warm.<sup>496</sup>

ونهى -صلى الله عليه وسلم- عن الشرب من فم السقاء ؛ وذلك لأن الشارب من فيه لا يعلم ما داخله، وقيل: إن رجلا شرب من سقاء صطيحة وكان فيها حية، فلم يعلم بما حتى دخلت حلقة، وقيل أيضا: إن الشرب من فم السقاء يغير ريحه .

478. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited drinking from the opening of the bottle (i.e. where the water comes out)<sup>497</sup>, and

<sup>495</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Wāthilah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) grabbed the highest point of the tharīd, then he said: "Eat in the Name of Allāh from its sides and leave its top. For verily, the blessing comes to it from above it." Narrated by Ibn Mājah (3276) and it is a sahīh hadīth.

<sup>496</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Mu'āwiyah ibn Khadij: "That the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited the hot food until it cools off." Narrated by Al-Bayhaqī in "Shu'ab Al-Īmān" (5911) and he said: "This is munqati'."

And Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Food should not be eaten until its steam disappears." Narrated by Al-Bayhaqī in "Al-Kubrā" (7/280) and it is sahīh.

And it was established from Asmā bint Abī Bakr (radiAllāhu 'anhumā) that when some tharīd was brought to her, she would order for it to be covered until the activity of its steam would disappear. And she would say: I verily heard the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "That is greater for (achieving) blessing." Narrated by Ahmad (26958), and it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Hibbān (5107) and Al-Hākim (4/118), and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

<sup>497</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited drinking from the opening of the bottle (or container)." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5628).

that is because the one who drinks from its opening he does not know what is inside it.

And it was said: “Verily a man drank from a flat container and there was a snake in it, and he did not know of it until it entered his throat.”

And it was also said: “Verily drinking from the opening of the bottle (or container) changes its smell.”<sup>498</sup>

ومن نهيہ -صلى الله عليه وسلم- أن يُعَرَّسَ الناس على قارعة الطريق؛ وإنما ذلك لأن قارعة الطريق مدرجة الناس والهوام والجن؛ ولأن ذلك يضيق على المأزّة، ثم إن النائم لا يدري ما يطرقه فيه،

479. And from what he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited is that a man during travel, stops in the qāri’ah at-tarīq<sup>499</sup> (i.e. places on the road which are traversed on, such as: markets, streets and passages for travel) last part of the night to rest and then takes off (once more). And this is because the qāri’ah at-tarīq is the place of passing of people, vermins and jinn. And because this annoys those who are passing by. And also that the sleeping person does not know what will come by at night there.

480. And he prohibited that a man empties his bowels in the middle of the road.

---

<sup>498</sup> Narrated by Ad-Daylamī in “Al-Firdaws” (7369) from the hadīth of ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anhā) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) who said: “Do not drink from the opening of the bottle, for it will verily give it a bad smell.” And this is a weak hadīth. In its isnād is Muhammad ibn ‘Abdah.

Ibn ‘Adī said in “Al-Kāmil” (6/301): “The weakness in his hadīth is obvious.”

<sup>499</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhū) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “... And if you take a rest, then avoid the paths. For it is verily the paths of the animals, and the dwelling place of vermin at night.” Narrated by Muslim (4999).

وقال: اتقوا الملاعن، قالوا: وما الملاعن؟ قال: التغوط على الطرقات.

And he said: “Avoid the things that cause a people to swear at a person.”

They said: “And what are the things that cause people to swear at a person?”

He said: “Emptying the bowels on the roads.”<sup>500</sup>

ويقال: إن الأقدار والعذرة إذا كثرت على الطرقات احتبس القطر .

And it is said: “Verily when feces and filth become abundant on the roads, then the rain is withheld.”

ونهى أن يتغوط الرجل تحت شجرة مثمرة، وذلك أن ثمرة ربما سقطت على العذرة أو بقربها فتعافها النفس فضاعت .

481. And he prohibited that a man should empty his bowels under a tree that carries fruit.<sup>501</sup> This is because the fruit perhaps will fall on or close to the filth, and then no-one will touch it and it is wasted.

482. And he prohibited that a man has intercourse under a tree that carries fruit.<sup>502</sup>

---

<sup>500</sup> Narrated by Muslim (539) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said that the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Avoid the two things that causes a person to be cursed (and sworn at).” They said: “And what are the two things that causes a person to be cursed, O Messenger of Allāh?” He said: “The one who empties his bowels on the road of the people or in their shadow.”

<sup>502</sup> I did not find any hadīth regarding the prohibition of this.

483. And that two people emptying their bowels speak with each other, and that a man speaks while he is on the toilet.<sup>503</sup>

أَوْ يَتَكَلَّمَ وَهُوَ بِجَمَاعٍ، أَوْ يَنْظُرُ إِلَى فَرْجِ امْرَأَتِهِ عِنْدَ الْجَمَاعِ، أَوْ تَنْظُرُ هِيَ إِلَى مِثْلِ ذَلِكَ مِنْهُ،

484. Or that he speaks while he is having intercourse, or that he looks at the genitals of his wife during intercourse or that she looks at the same as that from him.<sup>504</sup>

<sup>503</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Saʿīd (radiAllāhu ʿanhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ʿalayhi wa sallam) said: “Two men should not go to empty their bowels and reveal their ʿawrah and speaking (while doing so), for Allāh verily hates this.” Narrated by Ahmad (11310), Abū Dāwūd (15) and Ibn Mājah (366). And Abū Dāwūd in “As-Sunan” and Ad-Dāraqutnī in “Al-ʿIlal” both described it with some deficiency (in the isnād).

<sup>504</sup> He is perhaps referring to the hadīth: “When one of you has intercourse with his wife or his slave-girl, then he should not look at her genitals. For this verily brings about blindness.” And this hadīth is weak and not established.

And it is in opposition to what was established by Ibn Hibbān in his “Sahīh” (5577) that Sulaymān ibn Mūsā asked ʿAtā about a man who looks at the genitals of his wife? So he said: “I asked ʿĀishah about this so she said: ‘Me and my beloved used to wash from the same bowl (of water), and our hands would mix up in it.’ And she pointed to a bowl in the house the size of six aqṣāt (i.e. a measuring unit).”

And in the “Masāil” of Harb (1/215) Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah said: “And in the words of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ʿalayhi wa sallam) to Muʿāwiyah ibn Haydah (radiAllāhu ʿanhu): ‘Preserve your ʿawrah, except from your wife or what our right hand possesses (of slave-girls).’ There is an evidence for the permissibility which we have described.”

And in “Al-Jāmiʿ” by Ibn Abī Zayd (211) it was said to Mālik: “Can a man have intercourse with his wife without there is any veil between them?” He said: “Yes.” It was said: “They verily consider it to be disliked?” He said: “Cross out what they narrate. The Prophet (sallAllāhu ʿalayhi wa sallam) and ʿĀishah (radiAllāhu ʿanhā) used to wash together naked, and it is more befitting to be naked during intercourse.” He said: “And there is no harm in looking at the genitals during intercourse.”

485. Or that they both wipe (or clean) each other with the same piece of cloth.<sup>505</sup>

ومن نهيهِ -صلى الله عليه وسلم- أن يقوم الرجل للرجل إلا إلى أبيه، أو للرجل العالم، أو إلى الإمام العادل،

486. And from his (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibition is, that a man stands up for another man (when he enters or arrives), except for his father, a scholar or a just leader.<sup>506</sup>

---

But this is in opposition to what was narrated from the Mother of the believers 'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) that she said: "The intelligent woman should take a piece of cloth, and then when her husband has intercourse with her she gives it to him and he wipes himself with it and then she wipes herself." Narrated by Al-Bayhaqī in "Al-Kubrā" (2411). And it was narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) as well, but it is not sahīh. Abū Hātim said: "It is verily matwūf from 'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā)." "Al-'Ilal" (1245).

<sup>506</sup> From Anas (radiAllāhu 'anhū) who said: "There was no person more beloved to them, than the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam)." He said: "And when they saw him they would not stand up due to knowing how he disliked that." Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2978) who said: "Hasan sahīh gharīb."

And in "Al-Ādāb Ash-Shar'iyyah" (1/409) Hanbal said: I said to Ahmad: "Do you believe that a man should stand up for another man when he sees him?" He said: "No-one should stand up for anyone. Except a child for his father or his mother. But as for others than the parents, then no. The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited this. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: 'Do not get up until you see me.' And this is for the prayer, due to the sanctity of the prayer. When the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) stood up, they (also) stood up for the prayer. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: 'Whoever loves to be received by men who are standing up, then let him take his seat in Hellfire.'"

And ibn "Al-Jāmi'" by Ibn 'Abdil-Hakam (147) Ibn Wahb said: Mālik was asked about a man who stands up for a man who has fiqh and merits and lets him sit in his place? He said: "This is from what is disliked. But there is no harm in making space for him."

ونحى أن يحب الرجل أن يُقام إليه .

487. And he prohibited that a man loves for people to stand up for him.

وقال : من أحب أن يتمثل له الناس قياماً فليتبوأ مقعده من النار .

And he said: “Whoever loves to be received by men who are standing up, then let him take his seat in Hellfire.”<sup>507</sup>

وقال : من قام ليقوم الناس لقيامه لم ينظر الله إليه

488. And he said: “Whoever stands up in order for people to stand up due to him standing up, then Allāh will not look at him.”<sup>508</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: من عظم صاحب دنيا فكأما عظم الأصنام .

489. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever honors a possessor of dunyā (due to his dunyā), then it is as if he has respected the idols.”<sup>509</sup>

---

<sup>507</sup> Narrated by (16830), Al-Bukhārī in “Al-Adab” (977) and At-Tirmidhī (2755) who said: “Hadīth hasan.” And it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Al-Qayyim in “Tahdhīb As-Sunan” (14/127) and Al-Mundhirī in “At-Targhīb” (2717).

In “Al-Mawdū‘āt” (3/181) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever honors a possessor of dunyā and praises him due to longing for dunyā, then Allāh will make him displeased with him, and he will be in the lowest pit (of Hellfire) with Qārūn...” And this hadīth is fabricated.

490. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever respect a possessor of dunyā (due to his dunyā), then he has verily invented an innovation.”<sup>510</sup>

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: من دخل على صاحب دنيا فتصاضاً له ذهب ثلثا دينه.

491. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever enters upon a possessor of dunyā and humbles himself for him, then a third of his religion disappears.”<sup>511</sup>

ومن آدابه -صلى الله عليه وسلم-:

And from his (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) manners:

تحية أن ينفخ الرجل في طعامه أو شرايه.

492. His prohibition of a man blowing on his food or drink.<sup>512</sup>

---

In “Az-Zuhd Al-Kabīr” by Al-Bayhaqī (18) Abū Bakr ibn ‘Ayyāsh said: “Whoever honors a possessor of dunyā (due to his dunyā), he has verily invented an innovation in Islām.”

<sup>511</sup> It is fabricated. And with At-Tabarānī in “As-Saghīr” (726) from the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever humbles himself for a rich person in order to attain some of what he owns, he has displeased Allāh ‘azza wa jalla.” He said in “Majma’ Az-Zawāid” (10/248): “In it is Wahb ibn Rāshid Al-Basrī, the companion of Thabit, and he is left.”

<sup>512</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Qatādah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “When any of you drinks, then he should not breathe into the vessel (or cup or bottle)...” Until the end of the hadīth. Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (153).

And from Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited blowing on foods and drinks.” Narrated by Ahmad (2817) and its isnād is sahih.

وقال -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: من سقطت اللقمة من يده فليأخذها وليأكلها أو ليطعمها غيره، ولا يتركها للشيطان.

493. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “The one who drops a bite (of food) from his hand, he should take and eat or feed it to someone else, and not leave it for the Shaytān.”<sup>513</sup>

وكان -صلى الله عليه وسلم- يأكل التمر ويطنوا، ومعنى ذلك أن يتناول التمر بباطن يده، ويأخذ النواة بظاهر أصابعه.

494. And he (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to eat dates and throw (the stone).<sup>514</sup>

And the meaning of this is: That he would eat the date with the palm of his hand, and take the seed with the tips of his fingers.

فهذه الآداب وما أشبهها مما يطول بذكرها الكتاب من آدابه وأمره ونهيه ، واجب على الخليفة استعمالها، والبحث عنها، والاتباع له فيها، والمصير إلى طاعته، والأخذ بسنته. لأن العقول تدل عليها، ونفس العاقل تنازع إليها، وفي ذلك كله أدب ونظافة ووقاية من المكاره .

So these manners – and what is similar to it from that which will make the book long by mentioning – are from his manners, his command and his prohibition.

<sup>513</sup> Narrated by Muslim (5349) from the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) and its wording is: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: “If the bite of any of you falls down, then let him take and remove the dirt which is on it and then eat it. And he should not leave it for the Shaytān.”

<sup>514</sup> He is referring to the hadīth of 'Abdullah ibn Busr (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: “The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) visited my father.” He said: “So we offered him some food and gruel made of dates and cheddar cheese. So he ate from it. Then dates were brought to him, and he would eat them and throw the stones between his two fingers, and gather between his index and middle finger.” Shu'bah said: This is what I think about it, in shā Allāh. So he threw the stones with his two fingers. “Then a drink was brought to him and he drank, and then the one sitting to his right took it (after him).” Narrated by Muslim (5378).

And it is an obligation upon the creation to exercise these, seeking them, following him in them, striving in obeying him and adhering to his Sunnah. Because the intellects prove this and the intelligent soul hasten towards it.

And in all of this there is (excellent) manners, cleanliness and a protection from the disliked.

وقد دثرنا من ذلك ما حضرنا، وما قرب من ذكره مما لا غنى بالناس من علمه، ولا بد لهم من استعماله،
ومما تكثر الحاجة إليه، ولا يعذر من جهله وقصر في طلبه .

And we have verily mentioned what was present and near for us to mention of this (i.e. we have not mentioned all there is in these issues) from the type of knowledge which the people cannot be without, that they must apply and that there is a great need for. And the one who is ignorant in this is not excused, and he is neglectful in his search (for knowledge).

The fourth part: The warning against innovation

ونحن الآن ذاكرون بعقب هذا ما ابتدعه الناس وأحدثوه مما لا أصل له في كتاب الله، ولا جاء في أثر، وإن كان الفاعل له غير مبين للدين، ولا خارجا عن جملة المسلمين، فإنه قد أتى بإحداثه ما لم يأذن الله فيه هذا فيه. فمن ذلك ما حرمه رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- وغلظ فيه،

And we will now mention after this:

What the people innovated and made up among that which has no foundation in the Book of Allāh, nor was any narration narrated regarding it. And even if the one who does these things is not separated from the religion and excluded from the Muslims, then he has still performed something major by innovating what Allāh has not allowed.<sup>515</sup>

From that which the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited and was severe (and strict) in is:

النياحة، والاستماع إليها، وقال: إنها من عمل الجاهلية.

<sup>517</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Mālik Al-Ash'arī (radīAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Four things in my Ummah is from the affairs of the jāhiliyyah that they have not left...and the niyāhah." Narrated by Muslim (2116).

وقال : كسب النائحة من السحت .

496. And he said: "The wages of the wailer is from the suht (illegal possessions)."<sup>518</sup>

ولعن النائحة في موضع آخر .

497. And he cursed the wailer in another place.<sup>519</sup>

وقال ابن عمر: النياحة حرام واستماعها بدعة.

498. And Ibn 'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Wailing is forbidden, and listening to it is an innovation."

وقد قال إبراهيم : كسب الغناء و النياحة من السحت .

499. And Ibrāhīm verily said: "The profit from singing and wailing is from the illegal possessions."

---

<sup>518</sup> It was mentioned in "Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr" (3/82) from the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "From the illegal possessions is: The profit from cupping... and the wages of the wailer." And he referred it to Al-Khatīb in his "Tārīkh."

And in "As-Sunan Al-Kubrā" (6/12) from Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "Illegal possessions: ... the wages of the wailer and the wages of the singer." Al-Bayhaqī said: "This is munqati' between Habīb ibn Sālih and Ibn 'Abbās. And it is mawqūf." Ibn Al-Mundhir said in "Al-Ijmā'" (557): "And they agreed upon invalidating the wages of the wailer and the singer."

<sup>519</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) cursed the wailer and the one listening." Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (3130). Al-Mundhirī said: "It its isnād is Muhammad ibn Al-Hasan ibn 'Atiyyah Al-'Awfī, from his father, from his grandfather. And they are weak all three of them."

And in the "Musanna'" of Ibn Abī Shaybah (3/390) Ash-Sha'bī said: "The wailer and the women smelling of musk (outside) are cursed."

وأُتيَ عمر ابن الخطاب -رضي الله عنه- بنائحة فتتعتعت فبدا شعرها، فقبل له : يا أمير المؤمنين إنه قد بدا شعرها، فقال : أبعدها الله، إنما لا حرمة لها، قيل ولم ؟ قال : لأنها تأمر بالجزع، وقد نهي الله -عز وجل- عنه، وتنهى عن الصبر، وقد أمر الله -عز وجل- به، وتأخذ الدراهم على دمعته، وتبكي بشجو غيرها، وتحزن الحي وتؤذي الميت .

500. And a wailer was brought to ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu ‘anhu). Then she moved forcefully so her hair became apparent. So it was said to him: “O Amīr Al-Muminīn. Verily, her hair has become apparent!”

So he said: “May Allāh distance her. She verily has no hurmah (protection or inviolability).”

It was said: “Why not?”

Hes said: “Because she commands (the people) to grief, while Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – verily prohibited it. And she forbids (the people from) patience, while Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – verily commanded it. And she takes darāhim for her tears, while she is crying due to the distress of someone else. And she makes the living sad and harms the dead.”<sup>520</sup>

<sup>520</sup> And in the “Musannaf” of ‘Abdur-Razzāq (6682) from Ibrāhīm ibn Muhammad, from ‘Abdul-Karīm who said: Nasr ibn ‘Āsim narrated to me that ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) heard some wailing in Madīnah one night. So he went to it and entered (the house). So the women (therein) dispersed. Then he found the wailer and started beating her with the whip so her khimār fell off. So they said: “Her hair, O Amīr Al-Muminīn!” So he said: “Yes. But she has no hurmah.”

وقال ابن عون : أتيت الكوفة فرأيت رجالا يندبون على الطريق، فسألت عن ذلك، فقبل يندبون الحسين -رضي الله عنه-، فأتيت إبراهيم فأخبرته بذلك فقال : لا يزال أهل الكوفة في إحداث البدع في كل عام حتى يصير الحق فيهم بدعة .

501. And Ibn ‘Awn said: I came to Kūfah, and I saw some men mourning on the road. So I asked about this. So it was said: “They are mourning for Al-Husayn (radiAllāhu ‘anhu).”

So I came to Ibrāhīm and informed him about this, so he said: “Those from the people of Kufah will continue to make up (new) innovations every year, until the truth for them will become an innovation.”

ومن البدع: استعمال القينات، واستماع الغناء،

And from the innovation is:

502. Using qaynāt (singers from female slaves) and listening to singing.<sup>521</sup>

---

<sup>521</sup> Based upon the hadīth of ‘Imrān ibn Husayn (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “In this Ummah there will be khasf (people being swallowed by the earth), maskh (people being changed into other creations) and qadfh (people who are destroyed with rocks).” It was said: “And when will this be, O Messenger of Allāh?” He said: “When the qaynāt and musical instruments appear, and intoxicants are made permissible.” Narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2359) and he said: “Hadīth gharīb.”

And the hadīth has witnesses by which it becomes stronger. See: Ibn Mājah (4059-4062), ‘Abd ibn Humayd (452) and the “Sahīh” of Ibn Hibbān (6758).

503. And Ibn Mas'ūd (radiAllāhu 'anhu) said: "Singing (or songs) causes hypocrisy to grow in the heart, just like water causes plants to grow."<sup>522</sup>

ومن البدع: النجوم، والنظر بما والاعتصام، بل هو طرف من الشرك وادعاء لعلم الغيب، وكل ذلك منهى عنه مثل النجوم والعيافة والتكهن والزجر والتطير.

And from the innovation is:

504. The stars; looking into them [and resorting] to them.<sup>523</sup>

Rather, this is an aspect of shirk and claiming knowledge of the unseen.

---

<sup>522</sup> Narrated by Ibn Battah in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (948), Ibn Abī Dunyā in "Dhamm Al-Malāhī" (30, 31, 34) and Al-Khallāl in "As-Sunnah" (1630-1635). And it was declared sahīh by Al-Bayhaqī in "As-Shu'ab" (4745).

And in the "Masā'il" of 'Abdullāh (1370) he said: I asked my father about singing (or songs)? So he said: "It causes hypocrisy to grow in the heart. I dislike it."

<sup>523</sup> That which is forbidden from the knowledge regarding the stars is the knowledge of horoscopes. And that is using the state of the stars and planets as evidence for some occurrences on earth.

Ibn Battah said in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (1377): "The issue of the stars are (divided into) two aspects: ...One of them is obligatory to know and act upon. As for what is obligatory to know and act upon then it learning from the stars how to find the way in the darkness of the sea and the land, and know the qiblah by it and the prayer and the ways. And the Book mentioned this knowledge regarding the stars and it was in the Sunnah.

And as for what is not allowed to look into and believing it, and it is obligatory from us to stay away from, from the knowledge of the stars, then it is that he does not decide to do something based upon the stars, and he does not decree in his affairs based upon it. Just as what the ignorant claim of knowledge of the unseen by the knowledge of the stars (i.e. horoscopes). And there is no power or might besides Allāh."

And Al-Barbahārī said in "Sharh As-Sunnah": "And only look a little into the knowledge of the stars from what can help you in (knowing) the times of the prayers, and pay no attention to what is besides this. Because it verily invites to zandaqah."

And all of this is prohibited. Such as the stars, foreseeing, soothsaying, believing in evil omens and being pessimistic based on something which is seen or heard.<sup>524</sup>

وقد قال -صلى الله عليه وسلم- : من أتى كاهنا أو عرافا فصدقه فقد كفر بما أنزل على قلب محمد -صلى الله عليه وسلم-.

505. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) verily said: “Whoever goes to a soothsayer or a fortune-teller and believes in him, then he has rejected what Allāh has revealed upon the heart of Muhammad (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).”<sup>525</sup>

وقال صلى الله عليه وسلم: من اقتبس شعبة من النجوم فقد اقتبس شعبة من الشرك ومن زاد

506. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever learns a part of the knowledge of the stars, he has verily learned a part of shirk. And whoever increases (in this) increases (in that).”<sup>526</sup>

وقال علي ابن أبي طالب-رضي الله عنه- : أحذركم علم النجوم إلا ما يهتدى به في ظلمات البر والبحر، فإن المنجم كالساحر، والساحر كالكاهن، والكاهن كافر والكافر في النار.

507. And ‘Alī ibn Abī Tālib (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: “I warn you against the (knowledge of) the stars. Except from what used to find the way in the darkness of the sea and land. For verily the munajjim (i.e. one

<sup>524</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Qubaysah ibn Al-Mukhāriq (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Foretelling, (believing in) bad omens and tarq (i.e. a kind of soothsaying) is from the Jibt (i.e. the Shaytān, idols, false gods).” Narrated by Ahmad (20604), Abū Dāwūd (3907), Ibn Khuzaymah (3119) and Ibn Hibbān (6131).

speaking based upon the stars) is like the magician. And the magician is a soothsayer. And the soothsayer is a kāfir. And the kāfir is in Hellfire."<sup>527</sup>

ومن البدع: أن يخضب الرجل لحيته ورأسه بالسواد،

And from the innovation is:

508. That a man dyes his beard and (hair on the) head black.<sup>528</sup>

أو يأخذ من عارضيه،

509. Or that cuts from the width (of his beard).<sup>529</sup>

---

<sup>527</sup> It was narrated by Al-Hārith in his "Musnad" just as it says in "Baghyah Al-Bāhith" (564) in a longer version than this.

And in the "Musannaf" of Ibn Abī Shaybah (26041) from 'Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "Learn from these stars how you find your way in the darkness of the sea and land. And then stop."

And in "Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā" (2115) and "Ash-Sharī'ah" (2215) from Maymūn ibn Mihrān who said: I said to Ibn 'Abbās (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "Advise me." He said: "I warn you against the (knowledge of) the stars. For it verily leads to soothsaying."

<sup>528</sup> From Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: Abū Quhāfah was brought on the day of the conquest of Makkah, and his hair and beard white as a thaghāmah (i.e. a tree that has white leaves and fruits). So the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Change this with something, and avoid black." Narrated by Muslim (5560).

Al-Kawsaj said in his "Masā'il" (3496) to Ahmad: "Is dying ones hair with black disliked?" He said: "Yes, by Allāh, it is makrūh (disliked)."

<sup>529</sup> Because this negates what was established from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) of the command of leaving the beard and prohibiting cutting from it, just as this will come.

As for what was narrated by At-Tirmidhī (2762) from the hadīth of 'Abdullāh ibn 'Amr (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "That the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to cut from the width and length of his beard." Then this is not sahīh. It was declared as weak by Al-Bukhārī, At-Tirmidhī, Al-'Uqaylī and others.

And the author – rahimahullāh – did include in innovation to cut some of the length (of the beard) due to what was established from some of the Sahābah (radiAllāhu 'anhum) regarding taking what exceeds and is longer than a handful. And from this is: What Al-Bukhārī narrated in his "Sahīh" (5892) from Ibn =

510. Or that he lets his moustache grow long.<sup>530</sup>

---

'Umar (radiAllāhu 'anhu): "That when used to perform the Hajj and 'Umrah he would grab his beard with his hand and then cut what exceeded it."

And what Abū Dāwūd narrated in his "Sunan" (4201) from Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "We used to leave the beard except in a Hajj or 'Umrah."

And in the wording with Ibn Abī Shaybah (25998) he said: "We do not take from its length, except in a Hajj or 'Umrah."

And he narrated (25993) from 'Atā ibn Abī Rabāh who said: "They used to love (or prefer) leaving the beard, except in a Hajj or 'Umrah."

And among those who allowed to take (i.e. cut) from the length of the beard in the Hajj and 'Umrah are:

Imam Māik – rahimahullāh – in "Al-Muwatta" (Chapter about shortening), Imām Ash-Shāfi'ī – rahimahullāh – in "Al-Umm" (What a person must do after As-Safā wal-Marwah) and Imām Ahmad – rahimahullāh – as it says in "At-Tarajjul" by Al-Khallāl. And in it is: I asked Ahmad about a man who takes from the two widths (of his beard)? He said: "He can take from his beard what exceeds a handful." I said: "What about the hadīth of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): 'Trim the moustaches and leave the beards.?' " He said: "He can take from its length and what is below his throat." And I saw Abū 'Abdillāh take (i.e. cut) from its length and what was below his throat.

And in the "Masāil" of Harb Al-Karmānī (1/219) he said: Ahmad was asked about taking from the beard? He said: "Ibn 'Umar used to cut what exceed a handful." And it was as if he believed in (doing) that. It was said to him: "What about the leaving (of the beard) which was narrated from the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam)?" He said: "This for him was leaving."

And in this issue there are many narrations with Ibn Abī Shaybah in "Al-Musanna" (Chapter: What they said about taking from the beard) and in the "Masāil" of Harb (Part about purification) and (Chapter: Leaving the beards), so look over there.

<sup>530</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Zayd ibn Arqam (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Whoever does not trim his moustache he is not from us." Narated by At-Tirmidhī (2161) and he said: "Hasan sahīh." See: "At-Tarajjul" by Al-Khallāl (The Sunnah is trimming the moustache).

وقد قيل أول من خضب بالسواد فرعون.

511. And it was verily said: “The first one to dye his hair (or beard) black was Fir’awn.”<sup>531</sup>

وقيل إنه خضاب أهل النار.

512. And it was said: “It is verily the dying of the people of Hellfire.”

وأمر -صلى الله عليه وسلم- بإعفاء اللحية وإحفاء الشوارب.

513. And he (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) commanded leaving the beards (to grow) and trimming the moustaches.<sup>532</sup>

ومن البدع: أن يتزفر الرجل أو يخصّب يده بالخناء.

And from the innovation is:

514. That a man is perfumed with saffron, or that his hand is dyed with hennā.<sup>533</sup>

---

And Ibn Abī Shaybah (25413) and Abū ‘Arūbah in “Al-Awāil” narrated a something similar from Mujāhid.

<sup>533</sup> From Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: “The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) prohibited that a man should perfume himself with saffron.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5846) and Muslim (5558).

I said: As for his prohibition of a man dying his hand with hennā, then this is because it is from the deeds of women.

Al-Bayhaqī narrated in “As-Sunan Al-Kubrā” (7/311) from ‘Āishah (radiAllāhu ‘anha) who said: “The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) used to dislike to see a women who did not have any trace of hennā or dying on her hand.”

See: “Sunan Abī Dāwūd” (Chapter regarding the dye of women), ‘Abdur-Razzāq (1/318), “Sharh As-Sunnah” (12/78) and “Al-War” by Al-Marrūdhī (Chapter: The dye of women and what is disliked therein).

ومن البدع: أن يسبل الرجل إزاره، وهو السراويل علي عقبه.

And from the innovation is:

515. And that a man lets his izār – and that is his trousers – hang down over his heels.<sup>534</sup>

وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لا ينظر الله -عز وجل- إلى المسبل إزاره من الخيلاء.

516. And the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – will not look at the one who lets his izār (trousers or waist garment) hang down due to khuyalā (pride, arrogance).”<sup>535</sup>

ومن البدع: النظر في كتب العزائم والعمل بما وادعاء كلام الجن واستقدامهم وقتل بعضهم .

And from the innovation is:

517. Looking into the books of the ‘azāim (i.e. those who read ruqyah by way of innovation and shirk), acting upon it, claiming to speak with the Jinn, using them and killing some of them.<sup>536</sup>

<sup>534</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whatever is below the heels from the izār, then it is in Hellfire.” Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (5787) (Chapter: The one who drags his izār due to other (reasons) than khuyalā).

At-Tabarī said: “The information came with the word ‘izār’ because most of the people in his time used to wear waist garments and robes. But when the people started wearing shirts and looser outer garments, then the judgment of this became the (same as) the judgment of waist garments in the prohibition.” Quoted from “Al-Fath” (1/262).

<sup>536</sup> In “Badā’ Al-Fawāid” (4/1399) from the “Masāil” of Al-Burzātī with the handwriting of the Qādī who picked it from the handwriting of Ibn Battah... He said: And I asked him (i.e. Imām Ahmad): “About a man who claims to cure the crazy person from epilepsy by spells and exorcists, and he claims that he addresses the Jinn and speaks with them, and that there among them are those speak with him. So do you believe that the crazy person is handed over to him in order for him to cure him?” He said: “I don’t know what (any of) this is!! I have never heard about any of this, and I do not like for anyone to do this. And leaving it is more beloved to me.”

ومن البدع: تعليق التمامم والتعاويد من غير حاجةٍ أو علةٍ تحدث بصاحبها .

And from the innovation is:

518. And hanging up amulets and ta'āwīdh (i.e. other things that people believe protects from evil) without any need for this or an illness that befalls the person it (i.e. the amulet) is attached to.<sup>537</sup>

<sup>537</sup> Hanging up amulets and other objects of protection in which there is written some Words of Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – and the Sunnah of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) is an issue of disagreement among the Salaf. Verily did a group of the Salaf allow hanging up an amulet in which some of the Qurān is written and other shar'ī ta'āwīdh with the condition that they are hung up (or attached) after the catastrophe has befallen and occurred, and not before it with the intent for it to repel any illness and 'ayn (evil eye).

'Āishah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) said: "The tamīmah (amulet) is not what is hung up after the catastrophe. Rather, the tamīmah is what is hung up before the catastrophe in order to repel the decrees (of Allāh)." This was narrated Harb Al-Karmānī in "As-Sunnah" (559) and Al-Hākim (4/242) who declared it as sahīh and Adh-Dhahabī agreed with him.

And among those who allowed these amulets (only containing the Qurān and Sunnah) from the Salaf are: 'Abdullāh ibn 'Amr (radiAllāhu 'anhu), Sa'īd ibn Al-Musayyib, Yahyā ibn Sa'īd, Sa'īd ibn Jubayr, Mujāhid, Ad-Dahhāk, Mālik, Ahmad in one narration and Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah rahimahumullāh.

And another group from the Salaf prohibited it:

Harb Al-Karmānī said in "As-Sunnah" (558): I said to Ahmad ibn Hanbal: "Hanging up an amulet in which there is Qurān and other than it (i.e. the Sunnah)?" He said: "Ibn Mas'ūd used to dislike this with a severe disliking."

Al-Kawsaj said to Ahmad: "Should any of the Qurān be hung up?" He said: "All hanging up is makrūh (disliked)."

Ibrāhīm An-Nakha'ī said: "They – meaning the companions of 'Abdullāh ibn Mas'ud (radiAllāhu 'anhu) – used to hate the amulets with the Qurān and other than the Qurān." Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (23814).

I said: And most of the people of the Sunnah from the later generations believe in the prohibition of hanging up (or attaching) amulets. And this is due to several reasons:

1. The general prohibition which was narrated regarding using amulets.
2. Cutting of the path that leads to shirk (i.e. the major shirk of believing that the amulet itself harms and benefits besides Allāh and also filling the amulets with words of shirk). Because verily, allowing the shar'ī amulets (i.e. containing Qurān and Sunnah) opens the door for using amulets of shirk under the pretext that = they are shar'ī amulets. And by this they are not rejected due to great similarity between them.

3. Because there is (i.e. could occur situations which are) a belittlement of the Qurān in it, by entering it into toilets. Just like Ibrāhīm An-Nakha'ī would hate the ma'ādhalah for young boys (i.e. a piece of paper in which some of the Qurān is written and then attached to the shoulder of the boy). And he said: "They verily enter the toilet with this." Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (23823).

See: The "Musannaf" of Ibn Abī Shaybah (8/13/Regarding hanging up amulets and (words of) ruqyah) and (8/31/Those who allowed hanging up ta'āwidh) and the addendum of "As-Sunnah" by Harb (Chapter: What was narrated regarding amulets and ruqyah with the Qurān).

<sup>538</sup> Based upon the words of Umm 'Atiyyah (radiAllāhu 'anhā) who said: "We were prohibited from attending the funerals, but we were not compelled (not to do so)."

Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1219) and Muslim (2122).

<sup>539</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Ibn Mas'ud (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "The one who slaps the cheeks, rips the clothes and calls by the call of jahiliyyah is not from us." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1294) and Muslim (198).

وقال أنس بن مالك: وعظنا رسول الله -صلى الله عليه وسلم- موعظة وجلت منها القلوب وذرفت منها العيون فصرخ صارخ من جانب المسجد، فقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: من هذا الذي يلبس علينا ديننا؟ إن كان صادقاً فقد شهر نفسه، وإن كان كاذباً فمحقه الله.

522. And Anas ibn Malik (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) held a sermon for us that filled the hearts with fear and filled the eyes with tears. Then someone at the side of the masjid screamed.

So the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Who is this person who is making our religion unclear for us?! If he is truthful then he has verily made himself known, and if he is a liar then Allāh will destroy him.”<sup>540</sup> وقال الفضيل بن عياض: وعظ موسى بن عمران - عليه السلام - قومه فشق رجل ثوبه، فأوحى الله -تبارك وتعالى- إلى موسى - عليه السلام -: قل له إن كان صادقاً فليشق لي عن قلبه .

523. And Al-Fudayl ibn ‘Iyyād said: Mūsā ibn ‘Imrān (‘alayhis-salām) admonished his people. Then a man tore his garment. So Allāh - tabāraka wa ta’ālā - revealed to Mūsā (‘alayhis-salām): “Say to him: If he is truthful then let him tear his heart open for Me.”<sup>541</sup>

<sup>541</sup> A similar narrated from Abū ‘Imrān Al-Jawnī was narrated by Ahmad in “Az-Zuhd” (p. 87) and Abū Nu‘aym in “Al-Hilyah (2/315).

وقال ابن المبارك : هؤلاء الذين يصعقون عند استماع الذكر تُقعدهم على الجدران العالية، وتقرأ عليهم وتنظر هل يتردون.

524. And Ibn Al-Mubārak said: “Those who faint when they hear the dhikr (i.e. the Qurān), we will place them upon a high wall and then recite upon them. And then we will see if they will come back to consciousness.”<sup>542</sup>

---

<sup>542</sup> The author narrated something similar in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (2736) from Ibn Sīrīn who was asked about the one who listens to the Qurān and then faints? So he said: “The arrangement between us is, that he sits upon a wall and the Qurān is recited to from its beginning to its end. Then if he falls down, then he is as he claims (i.e. that he faints).”

And he also mentioned (153) that Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) was asked about some people who faint when they hear the Qurān. He said: “Those are Khawārij.” And Sa’id ibn Mansūr narrated in his “Sunan” (95) from ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Urwah ibn Az-Zubayr who said: I said to my grandmother Asmā: “How would the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) do when they recited the Qurān?” She said: “They were as Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – described them; their eyes would be filled with tears and their skins would tremble.” I said: “There are some people here who faints when they hear it.” So she said: “I seek refuge with Allāh from the Shaytan.”

And Abū ‘Ubayd narrated in “Fadāil Al-Qurān” (2/15/Chapter: The reciter who faints when he recites the Qurān and those who disliked this and criticized it) with his isnād from Abū Hāzīm who said: Ibn ‘Abbās (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) passed by a man from the people of ‘Irāq who had fell down and there were people around him. So he said: “What is this?” So they said: “When the Qurān is recited for him or he hears Allāh being mentioned, then he falls down out of fear for Allāh.” So Ibn ‘Umar said: “By Allāh, we verily fear Allāh but we do not fall.”

And from ‘Ikrimah who said: Asmā was asked: “Did any of the Salaf faint due to fear?” So she said: “No, but they used to cry.”

وصنف من الناس يظهرون التقشف اتخذوا الاستماع إلى القصائد والاجتماع على ذلك سنة لهم؛ ليلهوا بذلك أنفسهم ويطربوا قلوبهم، وفيهم من يرقص ويصفق بيديه ويحرق ثيابه، ويقولون في قيلهم : قال الله -عز وجل-، وقالت الحوراء، وقال الولي شيئاً لم يقل الله ولا جاء في أثر ولا سنة، ولم تقله حوراء، ولا قاله ولي، وهذا مبتدع كذب وزور.

525. And a group of people show austerity, and they took listening to poetry and meeting with this purpose as a sunnah for them. In order for them to entertain themselves [and their hearings] by this and to please their hearts. And among them are those who dance, clap with their hands and rip their clothes. And among what they say is: “Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – said” and “Al-Hawrā (the nymph) said” and “Al-Walī (the saint) said.”

Things that Allāh did not say, that did not come in any narration, nor in any Sunnah, and no nymph said it nor did any saint.

And this is innovation, lie, falsehood [and slandering].

526. And another group show asceticism and worship, and they forbid the earnings and livelihood. And they believe in insisting when asking and begging. And they claim to long for and love (Allāh) by invalidating fear and hope.

And all of this is innovation. And the one who claims this is detestable and hated for the people of knowledge and insight. Because Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – verily allowed earnings, producing and trading in the judgment of the Book and the Sunnah until the Hour will be established. And He prohibited asking and begging when one has no need for it.<sup>543</sup>

وأجمعت العلماء لا خلاف بينهم أن الله - عز وجل - قد افترض على الخلق الخوف والرجاء، وأنه دعا عباده إليه بالرغبة والرغبة.

527. And the scholars verily agreed upon, without any disagreement among them:

<sup>543</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “Whoever asks the people for their wealth in order to increase his own, he is verily asking for live coals. So he can either ask for less or ask for more.” Narrated by Muslim (2363).

And the hadīth of ‘Abdullāh ibn ‘Amr (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The sadaqah is not allowed for a rich person, nor a person with a strong capable body.” Narrated by Ahmad (6530) and At-Tirmidhī (652) who said: “Hadīth hasan.”

Harb Al-Karmānī said in his ‘aqīdah in “As-Sunnah” (85): “And whoever forbids the earnings, the trades and seeking wealth from its (allowed) ways, he is mistaken and opposing. Rather the earnings from its ways are allowed. Because Allāh, His Messenger (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and the scholars of the Ummah have verily allowed it.”

That Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – has obligated fear and hope upon the creation, and that He invites His slaves towards Him by (their) longing and fear.<sup>544</sup>

ومن البدع المحدثه التي ليس لها أصل في كتاب ولا سنة تشبهوا فيها بأفعال الجاهلية:

And from the newly invented innovations that have no foundation in the Book and the Sunnah (and deeds) in which they imitated the deeds of the jāhiliyyah are:

واجتماعهم، والتحالف بينهم على التعاضد والتناصر، وهذا مبتدع مكروه، وكانت الجاهلية تفعله، فأذهبه الله - عز وجل - بالإسلام ونهى عنه على لسان نبيه - صلى الله عليه وسلم -.

﴿فَاسْتَجَبْنَا لَهُ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ يَحْيَىٰ وَأَصْلَحْنَا لَهُ زَوْجَهُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يُسَارِعُونَ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ وَيَدْعُونَنَا رَعَبًا وَرَهَبًا وَكَانُوا لَنَا خَاشِعِينَ﴾

“They verily used to hasten in making good deeds, and they invoke us with fear and hope. And they used to humble themselves before Us.”

(Al-Anbiyā 21:90)

And He – ‘azza wa jalla – said:

﴿أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ أَيُّهُمْ أَقْرَبُ وَيَرْجُونَ رَحْمَتَهُ وَيَخَافُونَ عَذَابَهُ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ كَانَ مَحْدُورًا﴾

“Those whom they invoke seek the means (of nearness) to their Lord as to which of them is the closest. And they hope for His mercy and they fear His punishment. Verily, the punishment of your Lord is fearsome.” (Al-Isrā 17:57)

Al-Barbahārī said in “Sharh As-Sunnah” (97): “And know – may Allāh show you mercy – that the slave ought to be in a constant state of fear as long as he is in dunyā. Because he does not know upon what he will die, what his ending will be and upon what he will meet Allāh ‘azza wa jalla. This is even if he performed all of the good deeds. And the one who has transgressed against himself (by sinning) should not stop hoping (for the mercy and forgiveness of Allāh) at the time of death, and he should think the best about Allāh and fear his sins. Then if Allāh shows him mercy then this is due to a favor (from Allāh), and if He punishes him then this is due to a sin.”

And this is a disliked innovation which the (people of) jāhiliyyah used to do. Then Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – removed it by Islām, and He prohibited it upon the tongue of His Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).<sup>545</sup> وقال النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم-: لا حلف في الإسلام، وأيما حلفٍ كان في الجاهلية فما زاده الإسلام إلا تأكيداً.

<sup>545</sup> In “Al-Hilyah” (2/204) Mutarrif ibn ‘Abdillāh ibn Ash-Shikhīr said: We used to come to Zayd ibn Sūhān, and he used to say: “O slaves of Allāh, be generous and forbearing. Because verily the means (of nearness) of the slaves to Allāh are two traits: fear and hope.”

Then I came to him one day and they had verily written a writing, and they had arranged some words similar to: “Verily, Allāh is our Lord, Muhammad is our Prophet and the Qurān is our leader. And whoever is with us, then we will (do this) and we will (do that for him). And whoever opposes us then we will (do this) and we will (do that to him).” He said: Then he began presenting this writing to them, one man after the other. And they would say: “I have acknowledged, O fulān.” Until they came to me. So they said: “Do you acknowledge, O young boy?” I said: “No.” He said: “Do not be hasty with the young boy. What are you saying young boy?” He said: I said: “Verily, Allāh has taken a covenant (or promise) from me in His Book. So I will not make up a new covenant besides the one that Allāh – ‘azza wa jalla – took from me.” He said: Then the people from the last of them took back what they had acknowledged. Qatādah said: I said to Mutarrif: “How many were you?” He said: “Around thirty men.”

والشهادة بدعة، والبراءة بدعة، والولاية بدعة، والشهادة: أن يشهد لأحدٍ مِّنْ لم يأتِ فيه خبر أنه من أهل الجنة أو النار، والولاية: أن يتولى قوماً ويتبرأ من آخرين، والبراءة: أن يبرأ من قوم هم على دين الإسلام والسنة .

530. And the shahādah is an innovation, the barāah is and innovation and the wilāyah is an innovation.

And the shahādah is to testify for anyone regarding whom no information (i.e. evidence) came, that he will be in Paradise or Hellfire.

And the wilāyah is to ally with some people and disassociate from others.

And the barāah is to disassociate from a people who is upon the religion of Islām and the Sunnah.<sup>547</sup>

<sup>547</sup> In "As-Sunnah" by Al-Khallāl" (748) Abū Tālib said: I asked Abū 'Abdillāh Ahmad ibn Hanbal (about the statement): "The barāah is an innovation, the wilāyah is an innovation and the shahādah is an innovation."? He said: "The barāah is to disassociate from anyone from the companions of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam). The wilāyah is to ally with some and leave others. And the shahādah is that you testify for someone that he is in Hellfire."

And Harb Al-Karmānī said in his 'aqidah in which he conveyed the ijmā' of the people of knowledge (110): "And the wilāyah is an innovation, and the barāah is an innovation. And they are those who say: We have walā (alliance, love, friendship) with fulān, and we have barā (disassociation, hate, enmity) for fulān. And this saying is an innovation so beware of it."

ومن البدع: أن يأخذ السلطان الرجل فيضربه ويعاقبه فيقول: أفعلت كذا؟ أصنعت كذا حتى يسقطه،

And from the innovation is:

531. That the ruler takes a man and hits him and punishes him. And (then) he says: “Have you done this? Have you done that?” Until he makes him acknowledge something (which he denied before).<sup>548</sup>

<sup>548</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Azhar ibn ‘Abdillāh Al-Harrānī (who said): That a group of people from (the tribe of) Dhū Kalā’ had some goods stolen from them and they accused some people from Al-Hākah. So they went to An-Nu’mān ibn Bashīr – the companion of the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) – and he imprisoned them for some days. Then he let them go. So they went to An-Nu’mān and said: “You let them go without beating them and without any interrogation!” So An-Nu’mān said: “What do you want? If you want me to beat them, then if your goods will come out (due to this) then so be it. And if not then I will take from your backs (i.e. beat you) just as I took from their backs.” So they said: “Is this your judgment?” So he said: “This is the judgment of Allāh and the judgment of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam).” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (4382) and he said: “He verily frightened them with these words, which means: There is no beating except after the acknowledgement (of the crime).” And Ibn Al-Qattān said in “Bayān Al-Wahm wal-Īhām” (3/595): “And this hadīth has some good ways (i.e. chains of narration).”

Al-Kawsaj said in his “Masāil” (2629): I said to Ahmad: Sufyān was asked about the interrogation; that a ruler takes a man and interrogates him. So he says: “You have done this, and you have done that.” And he continues until he makes him acknowledge? He said: “Yes, this is nothing in my opinion. If he acknowledges then he is held responsible. And they should do like that (i.e. what you asked about).”

Ahmad said: “If he acknowledges due to fear, then he is not held responsible, based upon the hadīth of ‘Umar (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) and Shurayh.”

I said: Imām Ahmad is referring to what ‘Abdur-Razzaq (18793) narrated: That a thief was brought to ‘Umar ibn Al-Khattāb (radiAllāhu ‘anhu), and he acknowledged. He said: “I see the hand of a man which is not the hand of a thief.” So the man said: “By Allāh, I am not a thief, but they threatened me.” So he let him go and he did not cut it off. See: “Al-Mughnī” (8/196).

<sup>549</sup> Al-Azharī said in "Tahdhīb Al-Lughah": "The poetry regarding the remembrance of Allāh – the Exalted – which is recited melodically is called tahgbīr. It is as if they are singing to a melody, so they dance and cause ghubār (dust) to emerge. So with this meaning they were called mughabbirah."

<sup>550</sup> In the "Musannaf" of Ibn Abī Shaybah (8/364/Chapter regarding women mounting the saddles): From Ad-Dahhak ibn Muzāhim that he disliked for women to mount the saddles.

And from 'Āsim who said: "They used to dislike the mount of a man for a woman, and the mount of a woman for a man (i.e. that a woman should sit where a man sat, and vice versa)."

<sup>551</sup> From Mu'āwiyah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said to a group of companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam): "Do you know that the Messenger of Allāh prohibited that (a saddle made of) the skins of tigers should be mounted?" They said: "O Allāh, yes." Narrated by Ahmad (17327) and Abū Dāwūd (1796).

<sup>552</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Hudhayfah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "Do not wear silk, nor garments of silk. And do not drink from a vessel gold or silver. And do not eat from plates made of it, for that is verily for them in dunyā."

ومن البدع: إعظام الموت، وتخريق الثياب عند نزوله، وتسويد الأبواب، وجز النواصي، والجلوس على باب الميت بعد الدفن، واتخاذ أهله طعاما لمن أتاهم، ومييت الناس عندهم .

And from the innovation is:

538. Considering death as something major (and unusual) and ripping one's clothes when it occurs. And coloring the doors black, cutting the forehead, sitting at the door of the deceased after the burial, that the family of the deceased offer food for those who come to them and people staying with them overnight.<sup>555</sup>

---

<sup>553</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Jābir (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) prohibited that a grave should be plastered, that it is sat upon and that it is built upon." Narrated by Muslim (2205).

<sup>554</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: The Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) said: "There is no (religious) travel, except to three masājid. This Masjid of mine, Al-Masjid Al-Harām and Masjid Al-Aqsā." Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (1189) and Muslim (3364).

<sup>555</sup> From Jarīr ibn 'Abdillāh Al-Jabalī (radiAllāhu 'anhu) who said: "We used to consider the gathering at the family of the dead and preparing food after his burial as being from niyāhah (wailing)." Narrated by Ahmad (6905) and Ibn Mājah (1612), and Al-Būsīrī declared its isnād as sahīh.

And Al-Kawsaj said in his "Masāil lil-Imām Ahmad" (836): I said: "Is it disliked to prepare food for the family of the deceases and staying overnight with the family of the deceased?" Ahmad said: "The food must be for the family of the deceased. But as for people gathering at their place like a wedding, then no. And as for staying overnight, then I dislike that." Ishāq said: "The same as he said."

And from the innovation is:

539. Reciting the Qurān and the adhān (call to prayer) [with melodies that are similar to singing].<sup>556</sup>

<sup>556</sup> The Salaf disliked to recite the Qurān with newly invented melodies similar to the people of singing and music. And from this is:

From Saʿīd ibn Al-Musayyib that he heard ʿUmar ibn ʿAbdil-ʿAzīz leading the people in the prayer, and he was melodious in his reciting. So Saʿīd sent a letter to him saying: “May Allāh rectify you. The leaders verily do not recite like that.” So ʿUmar – rahimahullāh – left the melody in it. “Al-Mudakhkhal” (1/52).

And from Ibn Al-Qāsim, from Mālik that he was asked about being melodious in the prayer? So he said: “I do not like that.” And he said: “This is verily a song they sing in order to get some darāhim for it.” “Al-Mudawwanah” (1/223).

And Hārūn ibn Yaʿqūb said: I heard my father when he asked Ahmad ibn Hanbal about reciting with a melody? He said: “This is a newly invented innovation.” I said: “Do you dislike it, O Abū ʿAbdillāh?” He said: “Yes. Except that which is natural, just as Abū Mūsā Al-Ashʿarī (radiAllāhu ʿanhu) was. As for the one who learns it, then this is a disliked melody.” “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/514).

And he also said when he was asking about reciting with a melody: “Innovation, innovation.” And he said: “They are treating it like a song, they are treating it like a song.” “Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah” (2/492-493).

And as for what was narrated from the Salaf regarding the disliking of singing and using melody in the adhān, then there is also much of this. From this is:

From ʿUmar ibn Saʿīd ibn Abī Husayn Al-Makkī: That a muadhhdhin called the adhān and was melodious in his adhān. So ʿUmar ibn ʿAbdil-ʿAzīz said to him: “Call a propher adhān or else leave us.” Narrated by Ibn Abī Shaybah (1/229) and Al-Bukhārī mentioned it in his commentary upon his “Sahīh” (Chapter: Raising the voice when calling).

And Al-Kawsaj said in “Al-Masāil” (177): I said to Ahmad: “Being melodious in the adhān?” He said: “All of this is newly invented.” As if he disliked it.

Ishāq said: “The same as he said.”

And in “Al-Jamiʿ” by Ibn ʿAbdil-Hakam (110) Mālik said: “I verily dislike being melodious in the adhān. And I verily had the intention to speak with Amīr Al-Muminīn about this, because I used to hear them call the adhān.”

And from the innovation is:

540. Beautifying (or decorating) the Masāhif (pl. Mushaf).<sup>557</sup>

وزخرفة المساجد،

541. And adorning the masājid.<sup>558</sup>

وتطويل المنابر .

---

<sup>557</sup> Ibn Abī Dāwūd narrated in “Al-Masāhif” (p. 584) (Decorating the Masājihif with gold): From Ubay ibn Ka’b, Abū Ad-Dardā and Abū Hurayrah (radiAllāhu ‘anhum) their words: “If you decorate your Masāhif and you adorn your masājid, then the end is upon you.” Their wordings are different and their chains of narration strengthen one another.

<sup>558</sup> Based upon the hadīth of Anas (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) who said: The Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) said: “The Hour will not be established before the people will compete (or boast) with each other regarding the masājid.” Narrated by Abū Dāwūd (449), and it was declared as sahīh by Ibn Khuzaymah (1322) and Ibn Hibbān (1614).

And Harb Al-Karmānī said in his “Masāil” (1/554): I asked Ishāq ibn Rāhūyah about plastering the masājid? He said: “Worse and worse. The masājid should not be beautified, except with the prayer and piety.”

ومن البدع: أخذ الأجرة على الأذان، والإمامة، وتعليم القرآن، وتغسيل الموتى .

And from the innovation is:

543. Taking wages (or payment) for: Calling the adhān, being the imām (i.e. leading people in prayer), teaching the Qurān and washing the dead.<sup>559</sup>

---

<sup>559</sup> Because the basic principle in seeking nearness (to Allāh) is expecting the reward and recompense for it from Allāh the Exalted. And due to this there are many ahādīth and narration from the Salaf regarding the disliking of this. From this is:

1. Taking payment for the adhān.

At-Tirmidhī (209) and others narrated from ‘Uthmān ibn Abī Al-‘As (radiAllāhu ‘anhu) that he said: “From the last of what the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) ordered me with, was to appoint a muadhdhin who did not take payment for his adhān.”

At-Tirmidhī said: “Hasan sahih. And acting upon this for the people of knowledge is, that they dislike that the muadhdhin should take payment for his adhān. And they preferred that the muadhdhin should expect the reward for his adhān from Allāh.”

2. Taking payment for leading the people in prayer.

The Salaf were strict against taking payment for leading the prayer in voluntary prayers, so how about the obligatory prayer?!

Muhammad ibn Nasr narrated in “Qiyām Ramadān” (p. 246) (Chapter: Taking payment for leading the prayer in Ramadān) with his isnād that ‘Abdullāh ibn Ma’qal led them in the prayer in Ramadān. Then when it was the day of Fitr ‘Ubaydullāh ibn Ziyād sent him five hundred dirham and a robe. But he returned it and said: “We do not take payment for (reciting) the Book of Allāh.”

And Al-Hasan was asked about a people who hires someone to lead them in the prayer? He said: “He has no prayer, nor do they.”

And from Ibn Al-Mubārak who said: “I dislike that someone prays for payment.”

And he said: “I fear that repeating the prayer becomes obligatory for them.”

And Ahmad was asked about an imām who says to some people: “I will lead you in the prayer in Ramadan for so and so many dirham.” He said: “I ask Allāh for safety in the religion. Who prays behind such a person?”

Al-Kawsaj said in his “Masāil” (720): I said: “Paying the one who leads the people in prayer in Ramadān?” He said: “I do not like that payment is taking for any of the good deeds.” Ishāq said: “It is not allowed for him to lead them in the prayer with the = intention of taking it (i.e. the payment). And if he leads in the prayer without having any intention of any of this, and then is given or honored, then this is allowed."

ومن السنة وتمام الإيمان وكماله: البراءة من كل اسم خالف السنة، وخرج عن إجماع الأمة، ومباينة أهله ومجانبة من اعتقده، والتقرب إلى الله - عز وجل - بمخالفته، وذلك مثل قولهم: الراضية، والشيعية، والجهمية، والمرجئة، والحرورية، والمعتزلة، والزيدية، والإمامية، والمغزبية، والإباضية، والكيسانية، والصفيرية والشُّرة، والقدرية، والمنانية، والأزارقة، والحلولية والمنصورية، والواقفة، ومن دفع الصفات والرؤية. ومن كل قول مبتدع، ورأي مخترع، وهوى متبع، فهذه كلها وما شاكلها وما تفرع منها أو فارها أقوال رديئة، ومذاهب سيئة، تُخرج أهلها عن الدين ومن اعتقدها عن جملة المسلمين .

3. Taking payment for teaching the Qurān.

It was narrated by Ahmad (22689) that 'Ubādah ibn As-Sāmit (radiAllāhu 'anhū): said: I taught some people from the people of Suffah how to write and the Qurān. So a man among them gave me a bow. It was not money and I could shoot with it for the sake of Allāh. So I asked the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) (about it), and he said: "If it pleases you to place a necklace of fire around your neck, then accept it."

I said: The issue of taking payment for teaching the Book of Allāh is an issue of disagreement among the people of knowledge, and I verily mentioned their disagreement in the book "Al-Jāmi' fī Ahkām wa Ādāb As-Sibyān" (Kitāb Al-'Ilm) (p.171-177).

And know, that the companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) disliked taking payment for teaching the Book of Allāh the Exalted.

'Abdullāh ibn Shaqīq al-'Uqaylī said: "The companions of the Prophet (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam) used to dislike selling Masāhif and teaching young boys (the Qurān) for money. And they considered this as something major." Narrated by 'Abdur-Razzāq (14534) and Ibn Abī Shaybah (885).

And from Ibrāhīm An-Nakha'ī who said: "They used to dislike taking payment for teaching young boys." Narrated by 'Abdur-Razzāq (14533) and Ibn Abī Shaybah (887).

nearness to Allāh – 'azza wa jalla – by opposing them (i.e. these names and their people). And this is such as their saying:

The Rāfidah, Shī'ah, Jahmiyyah, Murjiah, Harūriyyah, Mu'tazilah, Zaydiyyah, Imāmiyyah, Mughīriyyah, Ibādiyyah, Kaysāniyyah, Sufriyyah, Shurrāh, Qadariyyah, Manāniyyah, Azāriqah, Hulūliyyah, Mansūriyyah, Wāqifah and those who rejects descriptions of the ruyah (seeing Allāh).<sup>560</sup>

And (the disassociation) from every innovated word, made up opinion and followed desire.<sup>561</sup>

For all of these and what is similar to it, what is a branch of it or is close to it, are abhorrent words and evil madhāhib that exists its people from the religion, and (exits) whoever believes in them from the group of the Muslims.

---

<sup>560</sup> The talk about these sects is long, but it is possible to categorize them into general sects and then entering every sect under its origin.

1. The Jahmiyyah. And the sects that goes under this sect among those whom the author mentioned are the Mu'tazilah, the Wāqifah, those who reject the Attributes and the ruyah, and the Hulūliyyah who are those who reject the 'uluw (aboveness) of the Lord – 'azza wa jalla – over His creation.

2. The Rāfidah. And from its sects are the Shī'ah, Zaydiyyah, Imāmiyyah, Mansūriyyah and Mughīriyyah.

3. The Murjiah.

4. The Qadariyyah. And from it are the Mu'tazilah and Manāniyyah.

5. The Khawarij. And from them are the Harūriyyah, Shurrāh, Azāriqah, Ibādiyyah the followers of 'Abdullāh ibn Ibād, and Sufriyyah the followers of 'Ubayd ibn Al-Asfar.

Translator: Refer to "As-Sunnah" by 'Abdullāh for further information about the five general sects and the words of the Salaf regarding them and their leaders.

ولهذه المقالات والمذاهب رؤساء من أهل الضلال ومتقدمون في الكفر وسوء المقال، يقولون على الله ما لا يعلمون، ويعيبون أهل الحق فيما يأتون، ويتهمون الثقات في النقل، ولا يتهمون آراءهم في التأويل. قد عقدوا ألوية البدع، وأقاموا سوق الفتنة، وفتحوا باب البلية، يفترون على الله البهتان، ويتقولون في كتابه بالكذب والعدوان، إخوان الشياطين، وأعداء المؤمنين، وكهف الباغين، وملجأ الحاسدين. هم شعوب وقبائل وصنوف وطوائف، أنا أذكر طرفا من أسمائهم وشيئا من صفاتهم؛ لأن لهم كتباً قد انتشرت ومقالات قد ظهرت لا يعرفها الغر من الناس، ولا النشء من الأحداث تخفى معانيها على أكثر من يقرأها.

545. All these words and madhāhib have leaders from the leaders of misguidance who walks ahead in kufṛ and evil statements. They say about Allāh what they do not know, and they criticize the people of truth for what they bring (of evidences). And they accuse the trustworthy in the narration while they do not accuse their own opinions in the interpretation.

They erected the banners of innovation, established the marketplace of fitnah (affliction) and opened the door to catastrophe.

They invent falsehood about Allāh and they fabricate lies and transgression about His Book.

They are the brothers of the shayātīn, the enemies of the believers, the cave of the transgressors and the refuge of the envious. They are from many types of people and tribes, and they are different categories and groups.

I will mention some of their names and some of their description.<sup>562</sup>

Because they verily have books that have spread and statements that have emerged which are not known by the inexperienced and the young people, so their meanings are hidden for most of those who read it.

<sup>562</sup> Warning against the people of innovation by their names and descriptions is among that which Ahlu-Sunnah wal-Jamā'ah agreed upon, and this is not considered as the prohibited backbiting. Rather, they considered it an obligatory advice.

'Āsim Al-Ahwal said: I sat with Qatādah when 'Amr ibn 'Ubayd was mentioned, so he spoke ill of him, and discredited him. So I said to him: "O Abū Al-Khattāb, I verily see that the scholars they speak ill of each other." So he said: "O Ahwal, do you not see that a man if he invents an innovation, then it should be mentioned, so people can take heed." "Tārikh Baghdad" (14/78) and "Al-Kāmil fī Du'afā Ar-Rijāl" (5/97). And Abū Ja'far Al-Hadhdhā said: I said to Sufyān ibn 'Uyaynah: "Verily this man speaks about Al-Qadar, I mean Ibrāhīm ibn Abū Yahyā." So he said: "Make the people aware of his innovation, and ask your Lord for correctness in religion." "Al-'Ilal wa Marifah Ar-Rijāl" (2291)

And 'Abdullāh ibn Ahmad ibn Hanbal said: Abū Turāb An-Nakhshabī came to my father, so my father began to say: "Fulān is weak, fulān is trustworthy." So Abū Turāb said: "O Shaykh, do not backbite the scholars." So he (i.e. Ahmad) turned to him and said to him: "Woe to you, this is nasīhah, this is not backbiting." "Tabaqāt Al-Hanābilah" (2/183).

Abū Sālih Al-Farrā said: I told Yūsuf ibn Asbāt something from Wakī' regarding the affair of the fitan (trials and tribulations), so he said: "That resembles its teacher, i.e. Al-Hasan ibn Hayy." He said: I said to Yūsuf: "Do you not fear that this would be backbiting." So he said: "And why is that, you dumb one?! I am better for these people than their mothers and fathers. I prohibit the people from learning what they (i.e. the innovators) have innovated (in case of which) their burdens would follow them, while the one who praises them (i.e. the innovators) are worse for them (i.e. the people)." "Ad-Du'afā" by Al-'Uqaylī (1/232) ولعل الحدث يقع إليه الكتاب لرجل من أهل هذه المقالات قد ابتدأ الكتاب بحمد الله والثناء عليه، والإطناب بالصلاة على النبي -صلى الله عليه وسلم- ثم أتبع ذلك بدقيق كفره، وخفي اختراعه وشره. ويظن الحدث الذي لا علم له، والأعجمي والغمر من الناس أن الواضع لذلك الكتاب عالم من العلماء أو فقيه من الفقهاء، ولعله يعتقد في هذه الأمة ما يراه فيها عبدة الأوثان، ومن بارز الله ووالى الشيطان.

So a book written by a man from the people of these statements might fall in the hands of a young man. And he (i.e. the author) began his book by praising Allāh and glorifying Him, and exaggerating in sending peace upon the Prophet (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam), and then he follows this up with his deep kufr while he disguises his innovation and evil. So the youth who has no knowledge, the foreigner and the inexperienced think, that the one who wrote this book is a scholar from the scholars or a faqīh from the fuqahā, while he perhaps considers this Ummah (i.e. the people of Tawhīd and Sunnah) to be the same as the idol worshippers, those who contest with Allāh and ally with the Shaytān.

546. And from their leaders who lead in misguidance is:

Al-Jahm ibn Safwān the misguided who misguides others.<sup>563</sup>

وقد قيل له وهو بالشام: أين تريد؟ فقال: أطلب ربا أعبده، فتقلد مقالته طوائف من الضُّلال.

547. And it was verily said to him when he was in Sham: “Where are you going?”

So he said: “I am searching for a lord whom I can worship.”<sup>564</sup>

<sup>563</sup> The author dedicated a chapter in “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” to Jahm and said: (46/Chapter: What was narrated about Jahm and his misguided followers and what they were upon of hideous opinions). And in it is:

‘Abbād ibn Kathīr said: “Verily, Jahm did not perform Hajj to the house, nor did he sit with the sholars. Rather, he was a man who had been given an (eloquent) tongue.”

<sup>564</sup> “Ar-Radd ‘alā Al-Mubtadi’ah” by Ibn Al-Bannā (89) with my tahqīq.

Then a group from the misguided groups copied his statement.

وقد قال ابن شوذب: ترك جهم الصلاة أربعين ليلة على وجه الشك.

548. And Ibn Shawdhab verily said: “Jahm left the prayer for forty days due to doubting.”<sup>565</sup>

549. And from his followers and disciple are:

Bishr Al-Marīsī, Al-Murdād, Abū Bakr Al-Asam, Ibrāhīm ibn Ismā‘īl ibn ‘Ulayyah, Ibn Abī Duād, Barghūth, Ribāluwayh, Al-Armanī, Ja‘far Al-Hadhddhā, Abū Shu‘ayb Al-Hajjām, Hasan Al-‘Attār, Sahl Al-Kharrāz and Abū Luqmān Al-Kāfir along with another group besides them from the misguided.

وكل العلماء يقولون فيمن سميناهم أنهم أئمة الكفر ورؤساء الضلالة .

And all of the scholars said about those whom we have mentioned:

That they are leaders of kufir and heads of misguidance.

And in “As-Sunnah” by ‘Abdullāh (174) and “Al-Ibānah Al-Kubrā” (2346) a similar narration from Yazīd ibn Hārūn.

ومن رؤسائهم -أيضا- وهم أصحاب القدر معبد الجهني، وغيلان القدري، وثمامة بن أشرس، وعمرو بن عبيد، وأبو الهذيل العلاف، وإبراهيم النَّظام، وبشر بن المعتمر، في جماعة سواهم أهل كفر وضلال يُعم. ومنهم الحسن بن عوقبة بن عبد الوهاب الجبائي، وأبو العنيس الصميري.

550. And from their leaders are also; and they are the people of Qadar:

Ma'bad Al-Juhanī, Ghaylān Al-Qadarī, Thumāmah ibn Ashras, 'Amr ibn 'Ubayd, Abū Hudhayl Al-'Allāf, Ibrāhīm An-Nadhdhām and Bishr ibn Al-Mu'tamir, along with another group besides them who are leaders in *kuf*r and misguidance.

And among them are: Muhammad ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb Al-Jubbāi and Abū Al-'Anbas Al-Saymarī.

551. And from the Rāfidah:

Al-Mughīrah ibn Sa'īd, 'Abdullāh ibn Saba, Hishām Al-Fūtī, Abū Al-Karawwas, Fudayl Ar-Raqqāshī, Abū Mālik Al-Hadramī and Sālih Qubbah.

Rather, they are more than it is possible to count in a book, or to be included in a statement.

ذكرت طرفا من أئمتهم ليتجنب الحدث ومن لا علم له ذكرهم، ومجالسة من يستشهد بأقوالهم، وينظر بكتبهم.

552. I have mentioned a group of their leaders, in order for the young person and the one who has no knowledge to avoid mentioning them, sitting with those who testify to their opinions and debates based upon their books.

ومن خباثتهم ومن يظهر في كلامه الذب عن السنة والنصرة لها وقوله اخبث القول، ابن كُلاب وحسين النجار وأبو بكر الأصم وابن عليّة.

553. And from the dirtiest of them, and those who outwardly shows that they are defending the Sunnah and supporting it while their opinion is the dirtiest of opinions<sup>566</sup> are:

Ibn Kullāb, Husayn An-Najjār, Abū Bakr Al-Asam and Ibn ‘Ulayyah.

<sup>566</sup> Qawām As-Sunnah Al-Asbahānī said in “Al-Hujjah fi Bayān Al-Mahajjah” (2/510): “The Mu’tazilah emerged and they slandered the book of Allāh and they said the Qurān is created. And they slandered the ahādīth of the Messenger of Allāh (sallAllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam) and said: It is not correct. And they called Ashāb Ah-Hadīth ‘Hashawiyyah’... Then when they did not achieve what they wanted, Al-Kullābī followed them, and he wrote some words that apparently agreed (with the truth) but secretly were a place of destruction. And he said: ‘I do not say that the Qurān is created, but I say: Verily, that which is in our Masāhif are not the Words of Allāh. Rather it is an expression of His Words, while His Words are eternal and established in themselves. And I do not negate the istiwā (rising above or establish), but I do not say that He istiwā in His Dhāt (Being). And I do not negate the Hand and the Face, rather I interpret them.’ And then he interpreted with an interpretation in which I deviated from what the Sahābah (radiAllāhu ‘anhum) and the tābi’ūn were upon.”

أعاذنا الله وإياك من مقالاتهم، وعافانا وإياك من شرور مذاهبهم، وأحيانا على الإسلام والسنة، وأمانتنا على ذلك وحشرنا عليه، ولا بدّل ما بنا وبك من نعمة وفواضل مننه، ولا أخلانا من حسن عوائدهم، وجميل فضائله. وجعلنا وإياك من المحافظين لحدوده، القائمين بحقوقه، ونفعنا وإياك بما علمنا واستعملنا به، عملا صالحا متقبلا مرضيا. وحشرنا وإياك في زمرة نبيه وأصحابه، آمين، إنه المؤمل فيما يرجى، والصاحب في الشدة والرخا، والحمد لله أولا وآخرا. وصلى الله على نبيه باطنا وظاهرا. تم كتاب "الشرح والإبانة على أصول السنة والديانة" والحمد لله رب العالمين وصلى الله على محمد النبي الأمي وآله .

May Allāh give us and you refuge from their opinions (and statements), may He protect us from their evil and their madhāhib, may He let us and you live upon Tawhīd and Sunnah, let us die upon it and resurrect us upon it. And may He not change (or remove) the blessing which we are in and His gracious bestowals. And may He not strip us of His Generosity and His beautiful favors. And may He let us be from those who preserve His limits and who fulfill His rights, and benefit us and you with what He has taught us, and employ us in it to good deeds that are accepted and satisfactory. And may He gather us with the group of His Prophet [Muhammad (sallAllāhu 'alayhi wa sallam)] and his companions (radiAllāhu 'anhum). He is verily the One who is hoped for to fulfil what is wanted and He is the Companion in bad and good times. And all praise is due to Allāh in the beginning and ending (of everything), and may the peace of Allāh be upon His Prophet [Muhammad] in the hidden and the open.
